Expertise And Explication In The Translation Process Benjamins Translation Library Est:

Expertise and Explication in the Translation Process Birgitta Englund Dimitrova, 2005-09-22 This book addresses the complexities of the translation process Informed by theoretical and methodological advances in translation studies research on writing and the expertise paradigm it explores translation as a text reproduction task With triangulation of data from Russian Swedish translation think aloud methodology and computer logging of the writing process it makes a cross sectional comparison of subjects with different amounts of translation experience highlighting crucial aspects of professional competence and expertise in translation The book also elaborates a method for a combined product and process analysis applying it to the study of one type of explication increased cohesive explicitness of the target text The results have implications for translation theory and pedagogy This volume will be of interest to translation scholars and translator trainers irrespective of language combination as well as to specialists in Russian and Swedish It will also appeal to researchers on expertise in other domains      Sociocultural Aspects of Translating and Interpreting Anthony Pym, Miriam Shlesinger, Zuzana Jettmarová, 2006-08-10 Translation Studies has recently been searching for connections with Cultural Studies and Sociology This volume brings together a range of ways in which the disciplines can be related particularly with respect to research methodologies The key aspects covered are the agents behind translation the social histories revealed by translations the perceived roles and values of translators in social contexts the hidden power relations structuring publication contexts and the need to review basic concepts of the way social and cultural systems work Special importance is placed on Community Interpreting as a field of social complexity the lessons of which can be applied in many other areas The volume studies translators and interpreters working in a wide range of contexts ranging from censorship in East Germany to English translations in Gujarat Major contributions are made by Agn s Whitfield Daniel Gagnon Franz P chhacker Michaela Wolf Pekka Kujam ki and Rita Kothari with an extensive introduction on methodology by Anthony Pym      In Translation □ Reflections, Refractions, Transformations Paul St-Pierre, Prafulla C. Kar, 2007-05-16 With contributions by researchers from India Europe North America and the Caribbean In Translation Reflections refractions transformations touches on questions of method and on topics including copyright cultural hybridity globalization identity construction and minority languages which are important for the disciplinary development of translation studies but also of interest to other fields as well most notably comparative literature cultural studies and world literature The volume provides a forum for new voices to be heard alongside those of well established scholars and for current concerns to express themselves often focusing on practices in areas of the world other than Europe or North America which have until now tended to dominate the field Acknowledging difference and celebrating it the contributions conceive of translation as a process which reconstitutes and transforms which brings renewal and growth an interaction in a new context a new reading a new writing      Agents of Translation John Milton, Paul Fadio Bandia, 2009-01-01 Printbegr nsninger Der kan printes 10 sider ad gangen og max 40 sider pr session

Text Typology and Translation Anna Trosborg, 1997-11-27 This book breaks new ground in translation theory and practice The central question is In what ways are translations affected by text types The two main areas of investigation are A What are the advantages of focusing on text types when trying to understand the process of translation How do translators tackle different text types in their daily practice B To what extent and in what areas are text types identical across languages and cultures What similarities and dissimilarities can be observed in text types of original and translated texts Part I deals with methodological aspects and offers a typology of translations both as product and as process Part II is devoted to domain specific texts in a cross cultural perspective while Part III is concerned with terminology and lexicon as well as the constraints of mode and medium involving dubbing and subtitling as translation methods Sonnets sagas fairy tales novels and feature films sermons political speeches international treaties instruction leaflets business letters academic lectures academic articles medical research articles technical brochures and legal documents are but some of the texts under investigation In sum this volume provides a theoretical overview of major problems and possibilities as well as investigations into a variety of text types with practical suggestions that deserve to be weighted by anyone considering the relation between text typology and translation The volume is indispensable for the translator in his her efforts to become a competent text aware professional

Doubts and Directions in Translation Studies Yves Gambier, Miriam Shlesinger, Radegundis Stolze, 2007-07-13 Like previous collections based on congresses of the European Society of Translation Studies EST this volume presents the latest insights and findings in an ever changing ever challenging domain The twenty six papers carefully chosen from about 140 presented at the 4th EST Congress offer a bird s eye view of the most pressing concerns and most exciting vistas in Translation Studies today The editors final choices reflect a focus on quality of approach originality of topic and clarity of presentation and aim at capturing the most salient developments in the contemporary theory methodology and technology of TS As always in EST the themes covered relate to translation as well as interpreting They include discussion of a broad range of text types and skopoi and a diversity of themes such as translation universals translation strategies translation and ideology perception of translated humor translation tools etc Many of the papers force us to take a fresh look at seemingly well established paradigms and familiar notions while also making recourse to work being done in other disciplines Semiotics Linguistics Discourse Analysis Contrastive Studies

Constructing a Sociology of Translation Michaela Wolf, Alexandra Fukari, 2007-10-25 The view of translation as a socially regulated activity has opened up a broad field of research in the last few years This volume deals with central questions of the new domain and aims to contribute to the conceptualisation of a general sociology of translation Interdisciplinary in approach it discusses the role of major representatives of sociology like Pierre Bourdieu Bruno Latour Bernard Lahire Anthony Giddens or Niklas Luhmann in establishing a theoretical framework for a sociology of translation Drawing on methodologies from sociology and integrating them into translation studies the book questions some of the established categories in this discipline and calls for a redefinition of long assumed principles The contributions show the social involvement of translation in various fields and focus especially on the translator's position in an emerging sociology of translation Bourdieu's influence in conceptualising this new sub discipline methodological questions and a sociologically oriented meta discussion of translation studies

Efforts and Models in Interpreting and Translation Research Gyde Hansen, Andrew Chesterman, Heidrun Gerzymisch-Arbogast, 2009-01-05 This volume covers a wide range of topics in Interpreting and Translation Research Some deal with scientometrics and the history of Interpreting Studies arguments about conceptual analysis meta language and interpreters risk taking strategies Other papers are on research skills like career management writing communicative abstracts and the practicalities of survey research Several contributions address empirical issues such as expertise in Simultaneous Interpreting the cognitive load imposed on interpreters by a non native accent the impact of intonation on interpreting quality linguistic interference in Simultaneous Interpreting similarities between translation and interpreting and the relation between translation competence and revision competence The collection is a tribute to Daniel Gile in appreciation of his creativity and his commitment to interpreting and translation research All the contributions in some way show his influence or are related to the models and research he has shaped

Translation as Intercultural Communication Mary Snell-Hornby, Zuzana Jettmarová, Klaus Kaindl, 1997-08-21 This selection of 30 contributions 3 workshop reports 27 papers from 14 countries concentrates on intercultural communication in its broadest sense themes vary from dissident translation under the Marcos dictatorship in the Philippines and translation as a process of power in the 3rd world context to drama translation and the role of the cognitive sciences in translation theory Topics of current interest such as media interpreting news translation advertising subtitling and the ethics of translation have a prominent position as does the Workshop Contact as Conflict which discusses the phenomenon of the hybrid text as a result of the translation process The volume closes with the EST Focus debate on thorny issues of Methodology Policy and Training The volume demonstrates clearly the richness and breadth of the topics dealt with in Translation Studies today along with its complex interaction with neighbouring disciplines

Comparative Stylistics of French and English Jean-Paul Vinay, Jean Darbelnet, 1995 The Stylistique comparée du français et de l'anglais has become a standard text in the French speaking world for the study of comparative stylistics and the training of translators This updated first English edition makes Vinay Darbelnet's classic methodology of translation available to a wider readership The translation oriented contrastive grammatical and stylistic analyses of the two languages are extensively exemplified by expressions phrases and texts Combining description with methodological guidelines for translation this volume serves both as a course book and through its detailed index and glossary as a reference manual for specific translation problems

Descriptive Translation Studies and Beyond Gideon Toury, 1995 A replacement of the author's well known book on Translation Theory In Search of a Theory of Translation 1980 this book makes a case for Descriptive Translation Studies as a scholarly activity as well as a branch of the discipline having immediate consequences for issues of both a theoretical and applied nature Methodological discussions are complemented by an assortment of case studies of various scopes and levels with emphasis on the need to contextualize whatever one sets out to focus on Part One deals with the position of descriptive studies within TS and justifies the author's choice to devote a whole book to the subject Part Two gives a detailed rationale for descriptive studies in translation and serves as a framework for the case studies comprising Part Three Concrete descriptive issues are here tackled within ever growing contexts of a higher level texts and modes of translational behaviour in the appropriate cultural setup textual components in texts and through these texts in cultural constellations Part Four asks the question What is knowledge accumulated through descriptive studies performed within one and the same framework likely to yield in terms of theory and practice This is an excellent book for higher level translation courses

The Didactics of Audiovisual Translation Jorge Díaz-Cintas, 2008 While complementing other volumes in the BTL series in its exploration of the state of the art of translator training this collection of essays is solely focused on audiovisual translation one of the most complex and dynamic areas of the translation discipline The book offers an easily accessible yet comprehensive introduction to the fascinating subject of translating films video games and other audiovisual material Offering a balance between theory and practice the main aim of this volume is to provide a wealth of teaching and learning ideas in areas such as subtitling dubbing and voice over without forgetting the newer fields of subtitling for the deaf and audio description for the blind The Didactics of Audiovisual Translation comes with an accompanying CD Rom highlighting its fundamentally interactive approach and the activities proposed can be adapted to different learning environments and used with different language combinations

Functional Approaches to Culture and Translation Dirk Delabastita, Lieven D'hulst, Reine Meylaerts, 2006-10-31 This volume contains a generous selection of articles on translation by Professor Jos Lambert K U Leuven It traces the intellectual itinerary of their author who started out as a French and Comparative Literature scholar some four decades ago trying to get a better grip on the problem of inter literary contacts and who soon became a key figure in the emergent discipline of Translation Studies where he is widely known as an indefatigable promoter of descriptively oriented research This collection shows how Jos Lambert has never stopped asking new questions about the crucial but often hidden role of language and translation in the world of today It includes some of the author's classic papers as well as a few lesser known ones that deserve wider circulation The editors introduction and the bibliography complete this thought provoking survey of the career of one of the most creative researchers in the field

Why Translation Studies Matters Daniel Gile, Gyde Hansen, Nike Kocijan, Pokorn, 2010-01-01 Whether Translation Studies really matters is an important and challenging question which practitioners of translation and interpreting raise repeatedly TS scholars many of whom are translators and interpreters themselves are not indifferent to it either The twenty papers of this thematic volume contributed by authors from various parts of Europe from Brazil and from Israel address it in a positive spirit Some do so through direct critical reflection and analysis arguing in particular that the engagement of TS with society should be strengthened so that the latter could benefit more from the former Others illustrate the relevance and contribution of TS to society and to other disciplines from various angles Topics broached include the cultural mediation role of translators issues in literary translation knowledge as intellectual capital globalization through English and risks associated with it bridging languages mass media corpora training the use of modern technology interdisciplinarity with psycholinguistics and neurophysiology Translation Studies at the Interface of Disciplines João Ferreira Duarte, Alexandra Assis Rosa, Teresa Seruya, 2006-01-01 Printbegr nsninger Der kan printes 10 sider ad gangen og max 40 sider pr session

Topics in Language Resources for Translation and Localisation Elia Yuste Rodrigo, 2008 Language Resources LR's are sets of language data and descriptions in machine readable form such as written and spoken language corpora terminological databases computational lexica and dictionaries and linguistic software tools Over the past few decades mainly within research environments LR's have been specifically used to create optimise or evaluate natural language processing NLP and human language technologies HLT applications including translation related technologies Gradually the infrastructures and exploitation tools of LR's are being perceived as core resources in the language services industries and in localisation production settings However some efforts ought yet to be made to raise further awareness about LR's in general and LR's for translation and localisation in particular to a wider audience in all corners of the world Topics in Language Resources for Translation and Localisation sets out to establish the state of the art of this ever expanding field and underscores the usefulness that LR's can potentially have in the process of creating adapting managing standardising and leveraging content for more than one language and culture from various perspectives

Teaching Translation and Interpreting 2 Cay Dollerup, Annette Lindegaard, 1994-07-01 Selected papers from this second conference on Translator and Interpreter Training With contributions from five continents the articles deal with global challenges taking into account the role of the translator in societies knit together by one tongue and those in which languages are the repositories of national cultures such as India The main merit of this volume is that it shows how translator training is tackled in the main translator training courses around the world what requirements are made on the students and what solutions are given The various approaches provide a wealth of translator training ideas Complementing the first volume of papers from the Language International conference this second volume deals with a wide variety of aspects in this interdisciplinary field of study dubbing subtitling simultaneous consecutive interpreting court interpreter training linguistic features cognitive aspects cultural aspects terminology and specialisation computeraided translation in practice translation procedures at the European Commission etc

Basic Concepts and Models for Interpreter and Translator Training Daniel Gile, 2009 Printbegr nsninger Der kan printes 10 sider ad gangen og max 40 sider pr session

Developing Translation Competence Christina Schäffner, Beverly Adab, 2000-10-15 This volume presents a comprehensive study of what constitutes Translation Competence from the various sub competences to the overall skill Contributors combine experience as translation scholars with their experience as teachers of translation The volume is organized into three sections Defining Building and Assessing Translation Competence The chapters offer insights into the nature of translation competence and its place in the translation training programme in an academic environment and show how theoretical considerations have contributed to defining building and assessing translation competence offering practical examples of how this can be achieved The first section introduces major sub competences including linguistic cultural textual subject research and transfer competence The second section presents issues relating to course design methodology and teaching practice The third section reflects on criteria for quality assessment

Simultaneous Interpretation Robin Setton, 1999-05-15 Simultaneous interpretation is among the most complex of human cognitive linguistic activities This study which will interest practitioners and trainers as well as linguists draws more on linguistics based theories of cognition in communication cognitive semantics and pragmatics than on the traditional information processing approaches of cognitive psychology and shows SI to be a valuable source of data on language and cognition Starting from semantic representations of input and output in samples of professional SI from Chinese and German into English the analysis explains the classic phenomena anticipation restoration of the implicit explicit balance and communicative re packaging re ostension of the discourse in terms of an intermediate cognitive model in working memory allowing a more unitary view of resource management in the SI task Relevance theoretic analysis of the input discourse reveals rich pragmatic information guiding the construction of the appropriate contexts and the speaker s underlying intentionalities The course of meaning assembly is reconstructed in annotated synchronised transcripts
