Exploding Poetry Georges Poulet, 1984 Exploding Poetry Georges Poulet, The Revolting Body of Poetry Scott Shinabargar, 2016-07-11 If the transgressions of modern French poetry have been amply noted at thematic and formal levels they remain largely unremarked at the most visceral level of reading Indebted to while problematizing the Kristevan concept of s miotique Scott Shinabargar s The Revolting Body of Poetry reveals how the very matter of key works forces us to enact these transgressions when articulating textures of offensive lexica and imagery While certain phonemes provide access to previously untapped forces first apparent in Baudelaire and Lautr amount compulsive repetitions produce expressive inflation diffusing any initial impact C saire and Char however demonstrate an acquired control of these forces intensity contained Shinabargar concludes with a survey of contemporary poets inviting readers to consider the legacy of revolting poetics

The Poetry of Life in Literature Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2013-03-09 Poetry of life in literature and through literature and the vast territory in between as vast as human life itself where they interact and influence each other is the nerve of human existence Whether we are aware of it or not we are profoundly dissatisfied with the stark reality of life s swift progress onward and the enigmatic and irretrievable meaning of the past And so we dramatise our existence probing deeply for a lyrical and heartfelt yet universally valid sense of our experience It is in great works of literature that we seek those hidden springs that so move us It is in honour of this search that this collection focuses on the creative imagination at work in literature and aesthetics Baudelaire Nicolae Babuts, 1997 In his poetry and critical writings Baudelaire performs a vast fusion of experiential and literary sources explores in a more resolute manner the domain of correspondences and thereby marks a radical departure from the accepted norms He challenges humbles and then reaffirms and recenters Western tradition That is his finest achievement Mandelstam's Worlds Andrew Kahn, 2020-07-28 Rightly appreciated as a poet s poet Mandelstam has been habitually read as a repository of learned allusion Yet as Seamus Heaney observed his work is as firmly rooted in both an historical and cultural context as real as Joyce s Ulysses or Eliot s Waste Land Great lyric poets offer a cross section of their times and Mandelstam s poems represent the worlds of politics history art and ideas about intimacy and creativity The interconnections between these domains and Mandelstam s writings are the subject of this book showing how engaged the poet was with the history social movements political ideology and aesthetics of his time The importance of the book also lies in showing how literature no less than history and philosophy enables readers to confront the huge upheaval in outlook can demand of us thinking with poetry is to think through the moral compromise and tension felt by individuals in public and private contexts and to create out of art experience in itself The book further innovates by integrating a new comprehensive discussion of the Voronezh Notebooks one of the supreme achievements of Russian poetry This book considers the full political dimension of works that explore the role of the poet as a figure positioned within society but outside the state caught between an ideal of creative independence and a devotion to the original ameliorative ideals of the revolution Salome and the Dance of Writing Françoise Meltzer, 2010-08-15 How does literature imagine its own powers of representation Fran oise Meltzer attempts to answer this question by looking at how the portrait the painted portrait framed appears in various literary texts Alien to the verbal system of the text yet mimetic of the gesture of writing the textual portrait becomes a telling measure of literature s views on itself on the politics of representation and on the power of writing Meltzer s readings of textual portraits in the Gospel writers and Huysmans Virgil and Stendhal the Old Testament and Apuleius Hawthorne and Poe Kafka and Rousseau Walter Scott and Mme de Lafayette reveal an interplay of control and subversion writing attempts to veil the visual and to erase the sensual in favor of meaning while portraiture with its claims to bringing the natural object to life resists and eludes such control Meltzer shows how this tension is indicative of a politics of repression and subversion intrinsic to the very act of representation Throughout she raises and illuminates fascinating issues about the relation of flattery to caricature the nature of the uncanny the relation of representation to memory and history the narcissistic character of representation and the interdependency of representation and power Writing thinking speaking dreaming acting the extent to which these are all controlled by representation must Meltzer concludes become consciously unconscious In the textual portrait she locates the moment when this essential process is both revealed and repressed The Cambridge History of Literary Criticism: Volume 8, From Formalism to Poststructuralism George Alexander Kennedy, Raman Selden, 1989 Volume 8 of The Cambridge History of Literary Criticism deals with the most influential and hotly debated areas of literary theory those developing in Europe but having their main impact in the Anglo American world of academic literary studies whose course they have fundamentally redirected The structuralism poststructuralism Russian formalism semiotics narratology hermeneutics phenomenology reception theory and speech act theory associated with European writers including Barthes Todorov Derrida and Iser are here described in the context of their original development but with an eye also to their eventual influence and the volume includes a reflective chapter by Richard Rorty on deconstruction Incorporating full bibliographies this volume engages systematically with the history of the twentieth century s most profound and extensive set of cross cultural intellectual movements Under the Spell of Orpheus Judith E. Bernstock, 1991 This comprehensive view of the Orpheus myth in modern art focuses on an extremely rich artistic symbol and cuts through all the clichés to explore truly significant problems of meaning The author takes a new approach to the iconography of major modern artists by incorporating psychological and literary analysis as well as biography The three parts of the book explore the ways in which artists have identified with different aspects of the often paradoxical Orpheus myth The first deals with artists such as Paul Klee Carl Milles and Barbara Hepworth In the second Max Beckmann Oskar Kokoschka and Isamu Noguchi are discussed Artists examined in the final part include Pablo Picasso Jacques Lipchitz Ethel Schwabacher and Cy Twombly The author documents her argument with more than sixty illustrations

High Art David Carrier, 2010-11-01 The great poet Charles Baudelaire 1821 1867 was also an extremely influential art critic High Art relates the philosophical issues posed by Baudelaire's art writing to the theory and practice of modernist and postmodernist painting Baudelaire wrote in an age of transition David Carrier argues an era divided by the Revolution of 1848 the historical break that played for him a role now taken within modernism by the political revolts of 1968 Moving from the grand tradition of Delacroix to the images of modern life made by Constantin Guys this movement from high to low from the unified world of correspondences to the fragmented images of contemporary city life motivates Baudelaire's equivalent to the post 1968 turn away from formalist art criticism Viewed from the perspective of the 1990s Carrier argues the issues raised by Baudelaire's criticism and creative writing provide a way of understanding the situation of art writing in our own time provides original analytic accounts of the main Modernist movements Close readings of key texts monitor the histories of Futurism Expressionism Cubism Dadaism and Surrealism This new edition includes discussion of the recent research trends examination of developments in the US and a new chapter on African American Modernisms Arthur Rimbaud Harold Bloom,1988 Instead of modernity Andrew Ginger,2020-10-13 This book revisits the claim that a key dimension of cultural modernity understood as a turn to the autonomy of the signs and the erasure of the face of man arose in the mid nineteenth century It presents an alternative to that obsession focusing instead on the aesthetic appreciation of forms through which connections are realised across place and time The book is one of few to offer a comparative approach to numerous major writers and artists of this period over diverse countries Specifically the comparative approach overcomes the constitutively ambiguous relation between the modern and the Hispanic The Hispanic is often imagined as at once foundational for and excluded from the modern world Its reincorporation into the story of the mid century unsettles the notion of modernity The book offers instead an experiment in writing tracing commonalities across place and time and drawing on mid century expressions of such likenesses Modernism and Theory Stephen Ross,2009-05-07 Modernism and Theory boldly asks what if any role theory has to play in the new modernist studies Separated into three sections each with a clear introduction this collection of new essays from leading critics outlines ongoing debates on the nature of modernist culture This collection examines aesthetic and methodological links between modernist literature and theory addresses questions of the importance of theory to our understanding of modernism and modernism as a literary category considers intersections of modernism and theory within ethics ecocriticism and the avant garde Concluding with an afterword from Fredric Jameson the book makes use of an innovative dialogic format offering a direct and engaging experience of the current debate in modernist studies Contributors include Charles F Altieri C D Blanton Ian Buchanan Pamela Caughie Melba Cuddy Keane Thomas S Davis Oleg Gelikman Jane Goldman Ben Highmore Fredric Jameson Martin Jay Bonnie Kime Scott Neil Levi Anneleen Masschelein Scott McCracken Andrew John Miller Stephen Ross Roger Rothman Morag Shiach Susan Stanford Friedman Allan Stoekl Hilary Thompson and Glenn Willmott Poetry Harriet Monroe,1984 Modern Nicaraguan Poetry Steven F. White,1993 This work demonstrates that twentieth century Nicaraguan poetry can not be comprehended in its fullest dimension without an understanding of the literary traditions of France and the United States Ever since Ruben Dario established Hispanic America s literary independence from Spain in the nineteenth century with his modernista revolution poets in Nicaragua actively have engaged in a dialogue with the works of French and North American authors as a means of assimilating and transforming them and thereby inventing a profoundly Nicaraguan literary identity This process has resulted in what might be called a double genealogy in Nicaraguan poetry certain poets attracted to the alchemical properties of the poetic word and a transcendent mythic meta reality seem to have descended from French literary forebears others interested in an expansive poeticized version of history and verisimilitude have roots that might be traced to North American soil This division is a provisional experimental means of grouping Nicaraguan poets based not on the traditional compartmentalization of literary generations but on the family resemblances of poetic affinities Presented here is an effective analysis of the familial nature of the Nicaraguan poets achieving their own literary independence by taking into account socio political and historical considerations common literary themes as well as the intertextual relations that form the basis of international literary dialogues This rigorous but flexible approach to modern Nicaraguan poetry enables the reader to accompany the poets on their journeys toward God and the end of the world into a timeless Nicaraguan landscape invaded by U S Marines beyond a contemporary urban portrait of Los Angeles through the horrifying European battlefields of World War I and the trenches of Nicaragua s revolution against the Somoza dictatorship The English speaking reader probably will be unfamiliar with most of the seven preeminent Nicaraguan poets whose works are the subject of this book but it is hoped that the reader will realize that the poetry of Nicaraguans Alfonso Cortes Salomon de la Selva Jose Coronel Urtecho Pablo Antonio Cuadra Joaquin Pasos Carlos Martinez Rivas and Ernesto Cardenal is worthy of serious study Furthermore the poems of these authors take on a richer meaning when they are studied as co presences in relation to certain texts by Baudelaire Rimbaud Mallarme and Supervielle or in an American context by poets such as Whitman Pound Eliot and Masters A relatively small country with a rich diverse tradition in poetry Nicaragua has maintained high literary standards generation after generation and has produced poets of a world class stature whose time has come for greater recognition
