Explorations In Connected History:

From the Tagus to the Ganges Sanjay Subrahmanyam, 2011 Collection of essays previously published based on various conference presentations     Explorations in Connected History Sanjay Subrahmanyam, 2005 Collection of essays previously published based on various conference presentations     Mughals and Franks Sanjay Subrahmanyam, 2011 Collection of essays previously published based on various conference presentations     Mughals and Franks Sanjay Subrahmanyam, 2005 Collection of essays previously published based on various conference presentations     Explorations in Connected History Sanjay Subrahmanyam, 2011     Transloyalties, Connected Histories and World Christianity during the Interwar Period Frieder Ludwig, Ellen Veä Rosnes, Joar Haga, Marina Xiaojing Wang, Jairzinho Lopes Pereira, 2025-06-30 This book introduces the approach of transloyalties to study connected histories in World Christianity The term transloyalties is used to analyze the multifaceted processes in various contact zones through which cultural and religious identities were transformed in the tension between different loyalties The volume tests this approach in various case studies most of them focusing on Lutheran churches and World Lutheranism between 1919 and 1939 a time of rapidly changing political circumstances Traditionally the United States Germany and Scandinavia had been identified as the three centers of Lutheranism However while the structures in these centers were well established and World Lutheranism was something out there with limited impact back home negotiation processes on Lutheran identity were crucial in contexts where new Lutheran churches emerged Asian and African church leaders operated in a new context of loyalties They pushed for cooperation and they often interacted with mission organizations from all three centers and also with other religions traditional cultures and political movements Therefore it is significant what happened for instance in the Lutheran Church of China or at Umphumulo in South Africa Including theoretical reflections and case studies this volume is valuable reading for scholars of the history of World Christianity     Explorations in Connected History, 2005     Connecting Histories David B. Ruderman, Francesca Bregoli, 2019-03-07 Whether forced by governmental decree driven by persecution and economic distress or seeking financial opportunity the Jews of early modern Europe were extraordinarily mobile experiencing both displacement and integration into new cultural legal and political settings This in turn led to unprecedented modes of social mixing for Jews especially for those living in urban areas who frequently encountered Jews from different ethnic backgrounds and cultural orientations Additionally Jews formed social economic and intellectual bonds with mixed populations of Christians While not necessarily effacing Jewish loyalties to local places authorities and customs these connections and exposures to novel cultural settings created new allegiances as well as new challenges resulting in constructive relations in some cases and provoking strife and controversy in others The essays collected by Francesca Bregoli and David B Ruderman in Connecting Histories show that while it is not possible to speak of a single cohesive transregional Jewish culture in the early modern period Jews experienced pockets of supra local connections between West and East for example between Italy and Poland Poland and the Holy Land and western and eastern Ashkenaz as well as increased exchanges between high and low culture Special attention is devoted to the impact of the printing press and the strategies of representation and self representation through which Jews forged connections in a world where their status as a tolerated minority was ambiguous and in constant need of renegotiation Exploring the ways in which early modern Jews related to Jews from different backgrounds and to the non Jews around them Connecting Histories emphasizes not only the challenging nature and impact of these encounters but also the ambivalence experienced by Jews as they met their others Contributors Michela Andreatta Francesca Bregoli Joseph Davis Jes s de Prado Plumed Andrea Gondos Rachel L Greenblatt Gershon David Hundert Fabrizio Lelli Moshe Idel Debra Kaplan Lucia Raspe David B Ruderman Pavel Sl dek Claude B Stuczynski Rebekka Vo Warfare in Pre-British India - 1500BCE to 1740CE Kaushik Roy,2015-06-03 This book presents a comprehensive survey of warfare in India up to the point where the British began to dominate the sub continent It discusses issues such as how far was the relatively bloodless nature of pre British Indian warfare the product of stateless Indian society How far did technology determine the dynamics of warfare in India Did warfare in this period have a particular Indian nature and was it ritualistic The book considers land warfare including sieges naval warfare the impact of horses elephants and gunpowder and the differences made by the arrival of Muslim rulers and by the influx of other foreign influences and techniques The book concludes by arguing that the presence of standing professional armies supported by centralised bureaucratic states have been underemphasised in the history of India

A History of the Social Sciences in 101 Books Cyril Lemieux,Laurent Berger,Marielle Mace,Gildas Salmon,Cecile Vidal,2023-08-01 An intellectual history of the social sciences that offers a library of 101 books that broke new ground for the field What are the social sciences What unifies them This essay collection seeks to answer these and other important questions as it considers how the field has developed over the years from post World War II to the present day throughout the world Edited by Cyril Lemieux Laurent Berger Marielle Mac Gildas Salmon and C cile Vidal A History of the Social Sciences in 101 Books brings together a diverse range of researchers in the social sciences to present short essays on 101 books both renowned and lesser known that have shaped the field from Theodor Adorno and Max Horkheimer s Dialectic of Enlightenment 1947 to Michel Aglietta s Money 5000 Years of Debt and Power 2016 While there have been surveys and intellectual histories of particular disciplines within the social sciences history anthropology sociology until now there has been no intellectual history of the social sciences as a unified whole Far from presenting a fixed and frozen canon A History of the Social Sciences in 101 Books offers instead a moving multiform landscape with no settled questions only an ongoing series of new perspectives and challenges to previously established grounding

Entangled Histories of the Balkans - Volume Four Roumen Dontchev Daskalov,Diana Mishkova,Tchavdar Marinov,Alexander Vezenkov,2017-02-06 The present volume is the last in the Entangled Balkans series and marks the end of several years of research guided by the transnational entangled history and histoire crois e approaches The essays in this volume address theoretical and methodological issues of Balkan or Southeast European regional studies not only questions of scholarly concepts definitions and approaches but also the extra scholarly ideological political and geopolitical motivations that underpin them These issues are treated more systematically and by a presentation of their historical evolution in various national traditions and schools Some of the essays deal with the articulation of certain forms of Balkan heritage in relation to the geographical spread and especially the cultural definition of the Balkan area Concepts and definitions of the Balkans are thus complemented by self representations that reflect on their cultural foundations

India, Modernity and the Great Divergence Kaveh Yazdani, 2017-01-05 India Modernity and the Great Divergence is an original and pioneering book about India's transition towards modernity and the rise of the West The work examines global entanglements alongside the internal dynamics of 17th to 19th century Mysore and Gujarat in comparison to other regions of Afro Eurasia It is an interdisciplinary survey that enriches our historical understanding of South Asia ranging across the fascinating and intertwined worlds of modernizing rulers wealthy merchants curious scholars utopian poets industrious peasants and skilled artisans Bringing together socio economic and political structures warfare techno scientific innovations knowledge production and transfer of ideas this book forces us to rethink the reasons behind the emergence of the modern world

The Making of the Abrahamic Religions in Late Antiquity Guy G. Stroumsa, 2015-07-30 This book presents how ancient Christianity must be understood from the viewpoint of the history of religions in late antiquity The continuation of biblical prophecy runs like a thread from Jesus through Mani to Muhammad And yet this thread arguably the single most important characteristic of the Abrahamic movement often remains outside the mainstream hidden as it were since it generates heresy The figures of the Gnostic the Holy man and the mystic are all sequels of the Israelite prophet They reflect a mode of religiosity that is characterized by high intensity It is centripetal and activist by nature and emphasizes sectarianism and polemics esoteric knowledge or gnosis and charisma The other mode of religiosity obviously much more common than the first one is centrifugal and irenic It favours an ecumenical attitude contents itself with a widely shared faith or pistis and reflects in Weberian parlance the routinisation of the new religious movement This is the mode of priests and bishops rather than that of martyrs and holy men These two main modes of religion high versus low intensity exist simultaneously and cross the boundaries of religious communities They offer a tool permitting us to follow the transformations of religion in late antiquity in general and in ancient Christianity in particular without becoming prisoners of the traditional categories of Patristic literature Through the dialectical relationship between these two modes of religiosity one can follow the complex transformations of ancient Christianity in its broad religious context

Travelling Pasts: The Politics of Cultural Heritage in the Indian Ocean World, 2019-07-15 Travelling Pasts edited by Burkhard Schnepel and Tansen Sen offers an innovative exploration of the issue of heritage in the Indian Ocean world This collection of essays demonstrates how the heritagization of the past has played a vital role in processes and strategies related to the making of socio cultural identities

the establishing of political legitimacies and the pursuit of economic and geopolitical gains The contributions range from those dealing with the impact of UNESCO s World Heritage Convention in the Indian Ocean world as a whole to those that address the politics of cultural heritage in various distinct maritime sites such as Zanzibar Mayotte Cape Town the Maldives Calcutta and Penang Also examined are the Maritime Silk Road and the Project Mausam initiatives of the Chinese and Indian governments respectively The volume is an important contribution to the transdisciplinary fields on Indian Ocean Studies

Creolised Science Dorit Brixius, 2024-04-04 This rich deeply researched study offers the first comprehensive exploration of cross cultural plant knowledge in eighteenth century Mauritius Using the concept of creolisation the process by which elements of different cultures are brought together to create entangled and evolving new entities Brixius examines the production of knowledge on an island without long established traditions of botany as understood by Europeans Once foreign plants and knowledge arrived in Mauritius they were adapted to new environmental circumstances and a new socio cultural space Brixius explores how French colonists settlers mediators labourers and enslaved people experienced and shaped the island s botanical past centring the contributions of subaltern actors By foregrounding neglected non European actors from both Africa and Asia within a melting pot of cultivation traditions from around the world she presents a truly global history of botanical knowledge

The Mughals and the North-East Sajal Nag, 2023-07-17 There is a perception that the region of north east India maintained its splendid isolation and remained outside the reach of the Mughals and did not have a pre colonial past The present book is an attempt to decenter and demolish the said perceptions and asserts that north east India had a medieval past through linkage with the dominant central power in India the Mughals The eastern frontier of this Mughal Empire was constituted by a number of states like Bengal Koch Bihar Assam Manipur Dimas Jaintia Cachar Tripura Khasi confederation Chittagong Lushai and the Nagas Of these some areas like Bengal were an integral part of the Mughal Empire while others like Koch Bihar and Assam were in and out of the empire Tripura Manipur Jaintia and Cachar were frequently overrun by the Mughals whenever the State was short of revenue and withdrew soon without incorporating them in the state Despite not being a formal part of the Mughal Empire the society economy polity and culture of the north east India however had been majorly impacted by the Mughal presence The brief but effective advent of the Mughals had supplanted certain political and revenue institutions in various states It generated trade and commerce which linked it to the rest of India A number of wandering Sufi saints Islamic missionaries imprisoned Mughal soldiers and officers were settled in various states which resulted in a substantial Muslim population growth in the region Besides the population there are numerous Islamic and syncretic institutions cultures and shrines which dot the entire region

Philanthropic Foundations at the League of Nations Ludovic Tournès, 2022-03-30 This book presents a comprehensive analysis of the relations between US philanthropic foundations in particular the Rockefeller Foundation and the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace and the League of Nations Generations of students and scholars have learned that the US having played a key role in the creation of the League of Nations in 1919 did not join the organization and stood aloof from its activities during the whole interwar period This book questions this idea and argues that even though the US was not a de jure member of the League of Nations the financial human and intellectual investment of foundations brought about the de facto integration of the US within the League system and also modified the latter's architecture The book describes the Americanization of the League and shows how it resulted from three strategies pursued throughout the interwar period that of US foundations that of the Secretariat and that of the US federal government The book also shows the limits of this Americanization and analyzes the role of the European experts in the coproduction of the postwar international order together with the US government This book will be of interest to historians and political scientists as well as undergraduate and graduate students in interdisciplinary programs of international relations

The City and the Wilderness Arash Khazeni, 2020-11-17 The City and the Wilderness recounts the journeys and microhistories of Indo Persian travelers across the Indian Ocean and their encounters with the Burmese Kingdom and its littoral at the turn of the nineteenth century As Mughal sovereignty waned under British colonial rule Indo Persian travelers and intermediaries linked to the East India Company explored and surveyed the Burmese Empire inscribing it as a forest landscape and Buddhist kingdom at the crossroads of South and Southeast Asia Based on colonial Persian travel books and narratives in which Indo Persian knowledge and perceptions of the wondrous edges of the Indian Ocean merged with Orientalist pursuits The City and the Wilderness uncovers fading histories of inter Asian crossings and exchanges at the ends of the Mughal world

Transitions to Modernity in Taiwan Niki Alsford, 2017-07-20 On 19 April 1895 British Consul Lionel Charles Hopkins at the northern port of Tamsui was summoned by Tang Jingsong the governor of Taiwan to his yamen in the western district of Taipei Shortly after his arrival Hopkins was handed a petition Signed by a number of Taiwanese notables the document appealed to the British government to incorporate the island into a protectorate in the wake of an impending Japanese invasion The British declined This book addresses the interconnectivity of these two communities by focusing on the market town of Dadaocheng in northern Taiwan It seeks to contextualise and examine the establishment of a settler society as well as the creation of a sojourning British community showing how they became a precursor of modernity and middle classism there By uncovering who the signatories of the petition were and what their motivation was to call upon the British consulate to bring the island under its protection it brings into focus a remarkable period of transition not only for the history of Taiwan but also for the modern history of China Using 1895 as a year of enquiry it ultimately challenges the current orthodoxy that modernity in Taiwan was simply a by product of the Japanese colonial period As a social and transnational history of the events that took place in Taiwan during 1895 this book will be useful for students of East Asian Studies Modern Chinese Studies and Asian History

The Bukharan Crisis Scott Levi, 2020-05-26 In the first half of the eighteenth century Central Asia's Bukharan Khanate descended into a crisis from which it would not recover Bukharans suffered failed harvests and famine a severe fiscal downturn invasions from the north and the south rebellion and then revolution To date efforts to identify the cause of this crisis have focused on the assumption that the region became isolated from early modern globalizing trends The Bukharan Crisis exposes that explanation as a flawed relic of early Orientalist scholarship on the region In its place Scott Levi identifies multiple causal factors that underpinned the Bukharan crisis Some of these were interrelated and some independent some unfolded over long periods while others shocked the region more abruptly but they all converged in the early eighteenth century to the detriment of the Bukharan Khanate and those dependent upon it Levi applies an integrative framework of analysis that repositions Central Asia in recent scholarship on multiple themes in early modern Eurasian and world history
