Explorations In Ethics Readings From Across The Curriculum:

Explorations in Ethics Rebecca F. Blomgren, 1998 Journal of Biblical and Theological Studies Daniel S. Diffey, Ryan A. Brandt, 2016-10-12 The Journal of Biblical and Theological Studies JBTS is an academic journal focused on the fields of Bible and Theology from an inter denominational point of view The journal is comprised of an editorial board of scholars that represent several academic institutions throughout the world JBTS is concerned with presenting high level original scholarship in an approachable way Academic journals are often written by scholars for other scholars They are technical in nature assuming a robust knowledge of the field There are fewer journals that seek to introduce biblical and theological scholarship that is also accessible to students JBTS seeks to provide high level scholarship and research to both scholars and students which results in original scholarship that is readable and accessible As an inter denominational journal JBTS is broadly evangelical We accept contributions in all theological disciplines from any evangelical perspective In particular we encourage articles and book reviews within the fields of Old Testament New Testament Biblical Theology Church History Systematic Theology Practical Theology Philosophical Theology Philosophy and Ethics GRADIVA JOURNAL OF CONTEMPORARY THEORY AND PRACTICE ,2000 Grace Upon Grace Thomas A. Langford, 1999 Providing an accessible and comprehensive treatment of grace the essays in this volume honor Thomas A Langford Provost Emeritus of Duke University and retired William Kellon Quick Professor of Theology and Methodist Studies at Duke Divinity School Biblical essays discuss grace from the Reformation through Wesley into today Theological essays exemplify the importance of grace for several Christian doctrines A concluding section engages several cultural issues from the viewpoint of grace Contributors include C Clifton Black Dennis M Campbell Mary McClintock Fulkerson Beverly Roberts Gaventa Stanley Hauerwas Richard P Heitzenrater Willie James Jennings L Gregory Jones Robert K Johnston Philip D Kenneson James C Logan Roland Murphy O Carm Philip A Rolinck Jean Miller Schmidt D Moody Smith David Steinmetz and Jonathan R Wilson Current Law Index ,2001 Teaching the Novel across the Curriculum Colin C. Irvine, 2007-11-30 Instructors at all levels are being encouraged to teach writing in their courses even in subjects other than English Because the novel reflects a broad set of human experiences and history it is the ideal vehicle for learning about a wide range of issues This book helps educators learn how to incorporate novels in courses in English the humanities social and behavioral sciences and professional studies The chapters focus on using the novel to explore ethical concerns multiculturalism history social theory psychology social work and education The book looks at major canonical works as well as graphic novels and popular literature Language arts are at the forefront of education these days Instructors at all levels are being encouraged to teach writing in their courses even if those courses cover subjects other than English Literature instructors have long used fiction to teach composition But because the novel reflects a broad range of human experiences and historical events it is the ideal medium for learning about contemporary social issues This book helps educators learn how to use the novel in courses in English the humanities social and behavioral sciences and professional studies The book is divided into broad sections on general education classes multiculturalism literature classes humanities courses classes in social behavioral and political sciences and professional studies such as social work and teacher training Each section includes chapters written by gifted teachers and provides a wealth of theoretical and practical information While the book examines major canonical works such as Hard Times Billy Budd and Invisible Man it also looks at graphic novels science fiction and popular contemporary works such as Finishing School and Jarhead Chapters reflect the personal successes of their authors and cite works for further reading

American Book Publishing Record ,1999 Crafting Presence Nicole B. Wallack,2017-06-01 Essays are central to students and teachers development as thinkers in their fields In Crafting Presence Nicole B Wallack develops an approach to teaching writing with the literary essay that holds promise for writing students as well as for achieving a sense of common purpose currently lacking among professionals in composition creative writing and literature Wallack analyzes examples drawn primarily from volumes of The Best American Essays to illuminate the most important quality of the essay as a literary form the writer s presence She demonstrates how accounting for presence provides a flexible and rigorous heuristic for reading the contexts formal elements and purposes of essays Such readings can help students learn writing principles practices and skills for crafting myriad presences rather than a single voice Crafting Presence holds serious implications for writing pedagogy by providing new methods to help teachers and students become more insightful and confident readers and writers of essays At a time when liberal arts education faces significant challenges this important contribution to literary studies composition and creative writing shows how an essay centered curriculum empowers students to show up in the world as public thinkers who must shape the knowledge economy of the twenty first century Directory of American Scholars: Philosophy, religion and law ,1999 Ethical Dilemmas in Schools Douglas J. Simpson,Donal M. Sacken,2020-11-05 This work investigates the complexity of ethics as a field of inquiry and practice across a principal s career Fully contextualized and thus carrying the contradictions and requirements of any school the issues realistically do not usually lead to a single beat all answer as any solution will likely have positive and negative consequences Drawn from the authors experiences and studies of schools over decades the central figure is a fictional principal of a magnet school whose dilemmas reflect the questions educators must be prepared for Each decision takes into account the principal s and staff s identities and values because they are all human and their opinions influence the outcomes The work injects analytic virtue feminist care deontological and critical theory insights as Deweyan ethics provides a lens for examining dilemmas This accessible work blends reflective theory the ordinary worlds of schools and engaging pedagogical practice to guide those planning to enter the education sector The Bloomsbury Handbook of Ethics of Care in Transformative Leadership in Higher Education Mary Drinkwater,Yusef Waghid,2024-10-17 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Ethics of Care in Transformative Leadership in Higher Education explores how the use of different ethic of care lenses can be used to nurture and sustain relationships within between and beyond humans as part of the role and responsibilities of HEIs in addressing local and global crises and change With contributions from four continents the handbook brings together multi contextual perspectives to explore ethics of care in the development of the field Topics explored include leadership praxis pedagogy well being cultivating and sustaining relationships within and between institutions post human relationships and responsibilities Countries covered include Australia Canada Guyana South Africa the UK and the USA The book forms part of the Bloomsbury Handbooks of Crises and Transformative Leadership in Higher Education collection brought together by Mary Drinkwater

A Curriculum of Difficulty Leah C. Fowler, 2006 Textbook Arts & Humanities Citation Index, 2000 El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2000, 2000 Critical Readings in Teacher Education, 2008-01-01 Like other fields of study teacher education defines itself both by what it includes and by what it excludes Teacher educators and researchers have spent a great deal of time seeking and attempting to eradicate the flaws in existing structures and practices but significantly less time learning to perceive the absences The premise of this book is that until we can identify and begin to address what is absent teacher education will be constrained by a perennial recycling of concerns that have characterized so much of research policy and practice to date If teacher education is to have a different future we need to ask different and difficult questions This book with contributions from theorists in Australia Canada and the United States addresses the challenges we face in establishing a more hopeful future for teacher education The authors provocative contributions identify what is missing in teacher education while providing critical counterpoints to existing frames of reference in the field In writing against the grain they open up new conceptual spaces and exciting trajectories for a different teacher education
