Explorations In Language And Meaning Towards A Semantic Anthropology:

Explorations in Language and Meaning Malcolm Crick, 1976      A Divided Republic Emile Chabal, 2015-04-02 This book is an original and sophisticated historical interpretation of contemporary French political culture Until now there have been few attempts to understand the political consequences of the profound geopolitical intellectual and economic changes that France has undergone since the 1970s However Emile Chabal's detailed study shows how passionate debates over citizenship immigration colonial memory the reform of the state and the historiography of modern France have galvanised the French elite and created new spaces for discussion and disagreement Many of these debates have coalesced around two political languages republicanism and liberalism both of which structure the historical imagination and the symbolic vocabulary of French political actors The tension between these two political languages has become the central battleground of contemporary French politics It is around these two poles that politicians intellectuals and members of France's vast civil society have tried to negotiate the formidable challenges of ideological uncertainty and a renewed sense of global insecurity

Bibliography of Semiotics, 1975–1985, 1986-01-01 This bibliography of semiotic studies covering the years 1975–1985 impressively reveals the world wide intensification in the field During this decade national semiotic societies have been founded all over the world a great number of international national and local semiotic conferences have taken place the number of periodicals and book series devoted to semiotics has increased as has the number of books and dissertations in the field This bibliography is the result of a dedicated effort to approach complete coverage      The Problem of Context Roy Dilley, 1999 Various disciplines use context to elucidate and interpret objects and events but rarely is the idea of context itself examined What meanings are evoked by this term How do social anthropologists and those in related disciplines construe this idea What analytical strategies are adopted in order to suggest that the relevant context is self evident      Evil Eye in Christian Orthodox Society Nikolaos Souvlakis, 2021-06-11 Evil eye is a phenomenon observed globally and has to do with the misfortune and calamities that we can cause to someone else out of jealousy of their possessions The book engages with evil eye beliefs in Corfu and investigates the Christian Orthodox influences on the phenomenon and how it affects individuals reactions to it Developing an interdisciplinary dialogue it offers a fresh view of evil eye as a facilitator of wellbeing rather than a generator of calamities      Pueblo Style and Regional Architecture (Routledge Revivals) Nicholas C.

Markovich, Wolfgang F. E. Preiser, Fred G. Sturm, 2015-06-03 Few architectural styles evoke so strong a sense of place as Pueblo architecture This book brings together experts from architecture and art archaeology and anthropology philosophy and history considering Pueblo style not simply architecturally but within its cultural religious economic and climate contexts as well The product of successive layers of Pueblo Indian Spanish and Anglo influences contemporary Pueblo style is above all seen as a harmonious response to the magnificent landscape from which it emerged Pueblo Style and Regional Architecture first published in 1990 is a unique and thorough study of this enduring regional style a sourcebook that will inform and inspire architects and designers as well as fascinate those interested in the anthropology culture art and history of the American Southwest

The Living and the Dead Liz Wilson, 2012-02-01 This collection examines the social dimensions of death in South Asian religions exploring the ritualized exchanges between the living and the dead performed by Hindus Buddhists Muslims and other religious groups Using ethnographic and historical tools associated with the comparative and historical study of religion the contributors also record the voices and actions of marginalized groups such as tribal peoples women and members of lower castes who are often underrepresented in studies of South Asian deathways which typically focus on the writings and practices of elite groups For many religious people death entails a journey leading to some new condition or place As the ultimate experience of passage it is highly ceremonial and ritualized and those beliefs and practices associated with the moment of death itself death bed ceremonies funerary rites and rituals of mourning and of remembering are examined here The Living and the Dead offers historical depth ethnographic detail and conceptual clarity on a subject that is of immense importance in South Asian religious traditions

Dialogue and Syncretism , 2024-12-09

Historical journey in a linguistic archipelago Emilie Aussant, Jean-Michel Fortis, This volume offers a selection of papers presented during the 14th International Conference on the History of the Language Sciences ICHoLS XIV Paris 2017 Part I brings together studies dealing with descriptive concepts First examined is the notion of accidents in Latin grammar and its Greek counterparts Other papers address questions with a strong echo in today s linguistics localism and its revival in recent semantics and syntax the origin of the term polysemy and its adoption through Br al and the difficulties attending the description of prefabs idioms and other fixed expressions This first part also includes studies dealing with representations of linguistic phenomena whether these concern the treatment of local varieties so called patois in French research or the import and epistemological function of spatial representations in descriptions of linguistic time Or again now taking the word representation literally the visual display of grammatical relations in the form of the first syntactic diagrams Part II presents case studies which involve wider concerns of a social nature the from below approach to the history of Chinese Pidgin English underlines the social roles of speakers and the diversity of speech situations while the scrutiny of Lhomond s Latin and French textbooks demonstrates the interplay of pedagogical practice cross linguistic comparison and descriptive innovation An overview of early descriptions of Central Australian languages reveals a whole spectrum of humanist to positivist and antihumanist stances during the colonial age An overarching framework is also at play in the anthropological perspective championed by Meillet whose socially and culturally oriented semantics is shown to live on in Benveniste The volume ends with a paper on Tr n c Th o whose work is an original synthesis between phenomenology and Marxist semiology wielded against the idealistic doctrine of Saussure

Cultural Encounters Elizabeth Hallam, Brian Street, 2013-11-05 Cultural Encounters examines how otherness has been constituted communicated and transformed in cultural representation Covering a diverse range of media including film TV advertisements video photographs painting novels poetry newspapers and material objects the contributors who include Ludmilla Jordanova and Ivan Karp explore the cultural politics of Europe's encounters with Brazil India Israel Australia and Africa examining the ways in which visual and textual art forms operate in their treatment of cultural difference

The Law of the Lifegivers Claude Brodeur, René Devisch, 2018-12-07 African societies are gifted with a rich creativity often expressed in intimate corporeal terms For the Yaka people of southwestern Congo such manifestations can have individual social or even cosmic significance The Law of the Lifegivers investigates the importance among the Yaka of body and space in their daily life exercise of power and initiatic traditions Through this analysis Devisch and Brodeur show that body desire and symbol are intertwined so that bodily expression can act as sensuous and powerful symbol The domestication of passion and the institutionalizing of a subject are all expressed in bodily terms particularly during initiations the ethical order of law rests on many bodily symbols including the importance of maternal and paternal lifegivers The authors vividly describe the different life giving or life threatening roles which function in this society such as sorcerer diviner therapist and chief as well as the funeral drama which shapes the passage to the afterlife with the ancestors as experienced by the dying subject and his community Through their dialogue and correspondence Devisch and Brodeur an anthropologist and a psychoanalyst respectively bring together two sometimes conflicting intellectual approaches They aim to unravel a truth which is freed as much as possible from the presumption that only the West possesses the knowledge of objective discourse and science Through the interaction the authors reveal the semantic threads located at the very heart of the most vital life giving processes which weave the fabric of the practice and thought of a riveting passionate Africa

Football Culture Gerry Finn, Richard Giulianotti, 2013-01-11 These essays provide a critical investigation of football cultures examining local and national impacts of the game's new millennial order over five continents

Monstrosity Alexa Wright, 2013-06-30 From the Monster of Ravenna to the Elephant Man Myra Hindley and Ted Bundy the visualisation of real human monsters has always played a part in how society sees itself But what is the function of a monster Why do we need to embody and represent what is monstrous This book investigates the appearance of the human monster in Western culture both historically and in our contemporary society It argues that images of real rather than fictional human monsters help us both to identify and to interrogate what constitutes normality we construct what is acceptable in humanity by depicting what is not quite acceptable By exploring theories and examples of abnormality freakishness madness otherness and identification Alexa Wright demonstrates how monstrosity and the monster are social and cultural constructs However it soon becomes clear that the social function of the monster however altered a form it takes remains constant it is societal self defence allowing us to keep perceived monstrosity at a distance Through engaging with the work of Michel Foucault Julia Kristeva and Canguilhem to name but a few Wright scrutinises and critiques the history of a mode of thinking She reassesses and explodes conventional concepts of identity obscuring the boundaries between what is normal and what is not
