Exploring Language in a Multilingual Context Bettina Migge, Isabelle Léglise, 2013 Proposing a new methodological approach to documenting languages spoken in multilingual societies this book retraces the investigation of one unique linguistic space the Creole varieties referred to as Takitaki in multilingual French Guiana It illustrates how interactional sociolinguistic anthropological linguistic discourse analytical and quantitative sociolinguistic approaches can be integrated with structural approaches to language in order to resolve rarely discussed questions systematically what are the outlines of the community who is a rightful speaker what speech should be documented that frequently crop up in projects of language documentation in multilingual contexts The authors argue that comprehensively documenting complex linguistic phenomena requires taking into account the views of all local social actors native and non native speakers institutions linguists non speakers etc applying a range of complementary data collection and analysis methods and putting issues of ideology variation language contact and interaction centre stage This book will be welcomed by researchers in sociolinguistics linguistic anthropology fieldwork studies language documentation and language variation and change

Children's Multilingual Literacy Pauline

Harris, Cynthia Brock, Elspeth McInnes, Bec Neill, Alexandra Diamond, Jenni Carter, Ufemia Camaitoga, Meresiana Krishna, Eleni Giannakis, 2020-10-22 This book offers a comprehensive report on a three year cross cultural critical participatory action research study conducted in children's homes and communities in Fiji. This project contributed to building sustainable local capacity in communities without access to early childhood services so as to promote preschool children's literacy development in their home languages and English. The book includes rich descriptions of the young children's lived multilingual literacy practices in their home and community contexts. This work advances research based practices for fostering young children's multilingual literacy and building community capacity in a post colonial Pasifika context further it shares valuable insights into processes and complexities that are inherent to multiliteracy and cross cultural research.

Children's Literature in Primary Schools David Waugh, Sally Neaum, Rosemary Waugh, 2016-07-15 How can you help children to develop a love of reading and books? Which books are the best ones to use in primary teaching? How do you make the most of children's literature in teaching across the curriculum? Trainee and experienced primary school teachers need an advanced knowledge of children's literature. This is your guide to the range of and scope of children's literature for the primary classroom. Through the exploration of different genres it covers a wide range of literature and helps you to consider what we mean by literature. Case studies that model good practice are included with suggestions for practical activities using literature to enhance teaching across the curriculum. Throughout book recommendations show how specific texts can be used for teaching in exciting and innovative ways. What's new to this edition updated in line with the new Primary National Curriculum includes new content on supporting children for whom English is an Additional Language an extensive list of book recommendations for primary teaching how to get more out of classic texts introduces new texts and new children's authors.

Developing Language and Literacy 3-8 Ann Browne, 2009-01-19 I would thoroughly recommend this as a book which enables and empowers at many levels of experience. Every staff room should have a copy. English Four to Eleven. The Third Edition of Developing Language and Literacy 3-8 is an insightful introduction to teaching and learning English in the early years. The new edition has been fully updated to reflect requirements for teaching English in the early years including the new curriculum guidance for the Early Years Foundation Stage and the new Primary Framework. It covers all aspects of language and literacy and draws on contemporary ideas, research and classroom expertise to guide practice. The book includes chapters on Speaking and Listening, Reading Resources for Language and Literacy, Writing, Spelling, Handwriting and Punctuation, Bilingual Learners, Language, Literacy and Gender, Children with Difficulties, Involving Parents and Carers, Assessment, Planning. Along with activities to promote reflective practice, the author provides suggestions for further reading and useful websites. Further resource material for each chapter accompanies the book on the SAGE website www.sagepub.co.uk. Browne. This book will be an essential guide for early years and primary trainee teachers.
