Exploring Green Lanes and the Stories They Tell - South and South-East Devon Valerie Belsey, 2008-09-11 Here is a chance to leave the car behind and penetrate deep into the South Devon countryside with only the birds for company Valerie Belsey has gathered together 50 walks which take you through wooded slopes high heathland river valleys sheltered coves exposed headlands and rolling grassland She looks at the history of these routes and the stories that surround them the smugglers ways in from the coast the mine workers who had to walk a long way to their quarries the lace makers who trudged through the lanes bringing lace to Honiton and the drovers moving their animals from one farm to the next Featured on the walks are castles and ancient monuments and lively historical heroes such as Thomas Wakley founder of The Lancet Cavaliers fleeing from Roundheads a poet seeking an Ancient Mariner and some tanners still working in a small town based industry These 50 lanes readily complement those already explored in Exploring Green Lanes in the South Hams and lead the walker forth once again into the labyrinth of brambly burrow lanes with only a bus ticket to protect you Discovering Green Lanes Valerie Belsey, 2001 This is the essential handbook for anyone interested in green lanes Valerie Belsey shows how to identify them on the ground how to recognise them on antique maps and how to locate documents and other records which will reveal who used them in past times She also discusses their ecological value the current controversy about who should be able to use them and how to get involved in restoring and protecting lanes in your area Discovering Green Lanes includes useful contact information key dates in highway history and sample survey forms for recording wildlife in your local green lane The Rother Valley John Boardman, Ian Foster, 2024-12-31 The valley of the western Rother lies within the South Downs National Park but has a special character based on its Cretaceous geology of sandstones and clays These give rise to soils that are ideal for agriculture but are extremely erodible Over the centuries the area has been exploited by humans and partially cleared of forest In this book the archaeological history of the Rother Valley is summarized with particular emphasis on the evidence for Mesolithic Bronze Age and Roman occupation Analysis of sediments in ponds adds to the evidence for changes that have happened over the last few hundred years A notable feature of the cultural landscape is the network of sunken lanes The Rother Valley contains unique chalk aquifer fed streams with rare and protected species such as sea trout and otter Heathland floodplain wet meadows and woodlands are interspersed with agriculture linked together by hedgerows and ditches The health of the river is threatened by polluting inputs from farming and sewage Past weather and hydrological records show the potential impact of climate change on the functioning of the river The impact of recent changes on water availability for irrigation and human consumption are explored in relation to ecosystem requirements Soil erosion is a significant problem with the resulting high river sediment concentrations requiring expensive cleaning for the water to be fit for human consumption and the runoff often causes flooding of roads and properties Mitigation measures aim to reduce the loss of soil on fields and interrupt connectivity between fields and the river system We identify sediment sources contributing eroded soil to the river the function of field edge sediment traps in stream weirs and major reservoirs on sediment storage and connectivity Finally the book considers the future of the unique landscape that is the Rother Valley including plans for restoration of the flood plain Contributors include planners researchers and managers of the large estates that are an integral part of the Rother landscape Slow Devon and Exmoor Hilary Bradt, 2010 One of three launch titles in the new Slow series of regional UK guides from two of the UK's most distinctive travel publishers Bradt and Alastair Sawday Travel slowly and sustainably with Hilary Bradt founder of Bradt guides and a resident of Devon as she takes you on a personal slow tour of Devon and Exmoor Connect with the people places environment and heritage of this spectacular part of the country and discover for yourself the unsung delights well known sights wildlife coast and countryside not to mention the foibles of the locals in this truly unique guide Topping it off is an enticing selection of accommodation from the inimitable collection of Alastair Sawday The complete travel guide for Jersey (United Kingdom), The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2009 Exploring Green Lanes in the South Hams Valerie R. Belsey, 2003-05-01 The South Hams in south Devon is an area of outstanding beauty with a wealth of ancient green lanes These tracks some of which were ancient packhorse ways drovers or smugglers routes are a hidden network of byways and a living link with past centuries This new book contains twenty four circular routes which are suitable for walkers horse riders and or mountain bikers and which incorporate green lanes in the South Hams Each chapter includes a map showing the walk together with the history of the lane and the local area wildlife etc Exploring Green Lanes in North and North-West Devon Valerie Belsey, 2008-04-17 The green lanes of Devon have been walked by those who had to do so to earn their daily bread from the silver mine workers of Combe Martin the poachers of Littleham the wool jobbers of Exmoor the glovers of Torrington the clay miners of Peters Marland the Bible Christian farm worker preachers of North Lew the rebel Captain Swing rioters of Swimbridge the potters of Fremington to Ernest Bevin the farm labouring son of Copplestone who eventually became Foreign Secretary Exploring Green Lanes in North and North West Devon lists 50 walks each one provided with public transport information historical and ecological facts and clues for children to discover fascinating facts en route Some of these walks are not circular most are linked to bus and train routes the author's mode of travel when writing the book The explorations go through many different habitats coastal areas moorland valley bottoms ridgeways harroways and woodlands The maps are based on Ordnance Survey maps fifty or more years old showing clearly the industries once in place But although these have often disappeared the pattern of the lanes remains the same today The fifty explorations stand as a good introduction to the labyrinth of brambly burrow lanes which parcel up the Devonshire landscape In the wilds of South America; six years of exploration in Colombia, Venezuela, British Guiana, Peru, Bolivia Argentina, Paraguay and Brazil Leo Edward Miller, 1918 Southern Charm: Exploring the Magnificent Wonders of South Carolina Brandy Kelly, Embark on a breathtaking journey through South Carolina as you discover the hidden gems and popular attractions this charming state

Hidden Histories: A Spotter's Guide to the British Landscape Mary-Ann Ochota, 2018-04-05 For the times when you're driving past a lumpy bumpy field and you wonder what made the lumps and bumps, or when you're walking between two lines of grand trees wondering when and why they were planted, or when you see a brown heritage sign pointing to a tumulus but you don't know what to look for. Entertaining and factually rigorous, Hidden Histories will help you decipher the story of our landscape through the features you can see around you. This Spotter's Guide arms the amateur explorer with the crucial information needed to read the landscape and spot the human activities that have shaped our green and pleasant land. Photographs and diagrams point out specific details and typical examples to help the curious Spotter get their eye in and understand what they're looking at or looking for. Specially commissioned illustrations bring to life the processes that shaped the landscape from medieval ploughing to Roman road building, and stand alone capsules explore interesting aspects of history such as the Highland Clearances or the coming of Christianity. This unique guide uncovers the hidden stories behind the country's landscape, making it the perfect companion for an exploration of our green and pleasant land.
