The Publishers Weekly ,1918 Gender and Rural Modernity Elizabeth B. Jones,2016-12-05 By the end of the First World War women s labor was viewed by contemporary observers as fundamental to the survival of family farms in Germany and consequently to the nation s economic and social stability At the same time however the overburdening of farm women sparked increasingly acrimonious conflicts between young hired women or M gde their employers and state officials The progressive feminization of agricultural work in Germany during the prewar decades and attempts after the war to prevent young women s flight from family farms is the focus of this new study Concentrating principally on developments in the Kingdom later the Freestate of Saxony the author highlights the ways that previously invisible historical actors young rural women actively shaped state policies in disputes over work between M gde and their employers before village magistrates in the thorny debates over rural social welfare reform and the campaigns to professionalize farm wives and daughters and in state officials uneven enforcement of agricultural employment laws and their struggles to maintain the food supply during and after the First World War The book furthermore challenges established narratives of German history that equate modernity with the industrial and the urban instead suggesting that rural inhabitants participated actively in the broader debates and crises that defined modernity in the Imperial and Weimar eras particularly concerning debates over individual rights versus collective national duties the future health and prosperity of the Volk and the meanings of Germanness Europe Tourism eBook GURMEET SINGH DANG, Literature of Travel and Exploration Jennifer Speake, 2014-05-12 Containing more than 600 entries this valuable resource presents all aspects of travel writing There are entries on places and routes Afghanistan Black Sea Egypt Gobi Desert Hawaii Himalayas Italy Northwest Passage Samarkand Silk Route Timbuktu writers Isabella Bird Ibn Battuta Bruce Chatwin Gustave Flaubert Mary Kingsley Walter Raleigh Wilfrid Thesiger methods of transport and types of journey balloon camel grand tour hunting and big game expeditions pilgrimage space travel and exploration genres buccaneer narratives guidebooks New World chronicles postcards companies and societies East India Company Royal Geographical Society Society of Dilettanti and issues and themes censorship exile orientalism and tourism For a full list of entries and contributors a generous selection of sample entries and more visit the Literature of Travel and Exploration An Encyclopedia website
