rode to the county seat to close on the purchase of an adjoining farm which he intended for Thomas Nearly crazed by the impending collapse of all hope of acquiring knowledge and wealth Thomas threw down his axe and ran ten miles to stop the purchase From this spontaneous decision flowed his later success as a judge banker and capitolist who caught the exhilarating tide of the American economy in the second half of the nineteenth century For this new edition of the book Paul Mellon Thomas Mellon s grandson has written a preface and David McCullough winner of the Pulitzer Prize for his biography of Harry S Truman has contributed a foreword The introduction notes and afterword by Mary L Briscoe Professor of English at the University of Pittsburgh and editor of American Autobiography 1945 1980 provide the historical and social context for the autobiography The book is illustrated with three maps and approximately twenty five photographs many of them rarely seen from a variety of sources that includes Paul Mellon and other members of the Mellon family Pennsylvania Mining Families Barry P.
