Export Of Meaning Cross Cultural Readings Of Dallas:

The Export of Meaning Tamar Liebes, Elihu Katz, 1990 In the new paperback edition of this classic text Liebes and Katz examine how television viewers around the world respond differently to popular television programmes particularly Dallas Analysing conversations among viewers in Israel Japan and the U S they show that viewers possess a good deal more critical ability than they are commonly given credit for Reading Into Cultural Studies , Dictionary of Race, Ethnicity and Culture Guido Bolaffi, 2003 Race ethnicity and culture are concepts that are interpreted in various and often contradictory ways This dictionary provides the historical background and etymology of a wide range of words related to these concepts and ideas Media/Theory Shaun Moores, 2007-05-07 From an established author with a growing international profile in media studies Media Theory is an accessible yet challenging guide to ways of thinking about media and communications in modern life Shaun Moores draws on ideas from a range of disciplines in the humanities and social sciences and expertly connects the analysis of media and communications with key themes in contemporary social theory Examining core issues of time and space Moores also examines matters of interactions signification and identity and argues that media studies is bound up in the wider processes of the modern world and not just about studying the media This book makes a distinctive contribution towards rethinking the shape and direction of media studies today and for students at advanced undergraduate or postgraduate level Encyclopedia of Television Horace Newcomb, 2014-02-03 The Encyclopedia of Television second edition is the first major reference work to provide description history analysis and information on more than 1100 subjects related to television in its international context For a full list of entries contributors and more visit the Encyclo pedia of Television 2nd edition website The Handbook of Comparative Communication Research Frank Esser, Thomas Hanitzsch, 2013-06-19 The Handbook of Comparative Communication Research aims to provide a comprehensive understanding of comparative communication research It fills an obvious gap in the literature and offers an extensive and interdisciplinary discussion of the general approach of comparative research its prospect and problems as well as its applications in crucial sub fields of communications The first part of the volume charts the state of the art in the field the second section introduces relevant areas of communication studies where the comparative approach has been successfully applied in recent years the third part offers an analytical review of conceptual and methodological issues and the last section proposes a roadmap for future research Hollywood Abroad Melvyn Stokes, Richard Maltby, 2019-07-25 Hollywood Abroad is the first book to examine the reception of Hollywood movies by non American audiences Although numerous books on film history have analyzed the ways in which American films came to dominate world markets there has so far been very little published work on how audiences outside the United States have responded to Hollywood produced films Hollywood Abroad explores the reception of U S films in Britain France Belgium Turkey Australia India Japan and Central Africa The book covers topics from the first major penetration of American films into France Britain and Australia to the impact of such films as The Best Years of Our Lives to the response of Belgian young people in the age of the multiplex It demonstrates that the story of the reception of American films overseas is less one of domination than of a complex adoption of Hollywood into various cultures

Transatlantic Television Drama Matt Hills, Michele Hilmes, Roberta Pearson, 2018-12-14 In 2014 the UK science fiction television series Black Mirror was released on Netflix worldwide quickly becoming a hit with US audiences Like other beloved British imports this series piqued Americans interest with hints of dark comedy clever plotlines and six episode seasons that left audiences frantic for more In Transatlantic Television Drama volume editors Michele Hilmes Matt Hills and Roberta Pearson team up with leading scholars in TV studies and transnational television to look at how serial dramas like Black Mirror captivate US audiences and what this reveals about the ways Americans and Brits relate to each other on and off the screen Focusing on production strategies performance styles and audience reception chapters delve into some of the most widely discussed programs on the transatlantic circuit from ongoing series like Game of Thrones Downton Abbey Orphan Black and Sherlock to those with long histories of transnational circulation like Masterpiece and Doctor Who to others whose transnational success speaks to the process of exchange adaptation and cooperation such as Rome Parade s End Broadchurch and Gracepoint The book s first section investigates the platforms that support British American exchange from distribution partnerships and satellite providers to streaming services The second section concentrates on the shift in meaning across cultural contexts such as invocations of heritage genre shifts in adaptation performance styles and in the case of Episodes actual dramatized depiction of the process of transatlantic television production In section three attention turns to contexts of audience reception ranging from fan conventions and fiction to television criticism the effects of national branding on audiences and the role of social media in de or re contextualizing fans response to transnational programs

»Love it or Loathe it« Mascha K. Brichta, 2014-03-15 Popular newspapers like the British The Sun and the German Bild regularly invite controversy over their morals and methods power and responsibility political and social impact At best their reporting is rejected as trivial vulgar and tasteless at worst it is deemed hazardous to the workings of democratic society Yet the papers are able to attract large audiences and contribute significantly to the daily lives of millions of readers This book looks at popular newspapers from an audience point of view Examining the crucial relationship between news and entertainment it provides timely empirical evidence for the values tabloids really have for readers and modern day Britain and Germany Contradicting common myths and stereotypes the book calls for fresh perspectives on the popular media and their audiences With a foreword by Peter Dahlgren Lund University Sweden Kazaaam! Splat! Ploof! Sabrina P. Ramet, Gordana Crnković, 2003 Explores American influences not only on European television fashions fast food and rock music but also on youth organizations literature UFO culture and religious faith An Introduction to Television Studies Jonathan Bignell, 2004 The author discusses the theoretical issues of shows such as Buffy the Vampire Slayer America s Most Wanted Sex and the City The Cosby Show Dallas The Sopranos Crimewatch and Big Brother Media and Cultural across the social sciences and humanities to consider one of the most vexing issues confronting the proverbial anti discipline of cultural studies Covers such topics as the media feminism and politics Identifies what methods have prevailed in the interdisciplinary pursuit of cultural studies Examines the relationship between cultural studies and traditional disciplines the politics of knowledge and spatial and temporal models Probes the possibility of method in explicit terms for scholars and students in media communications sociology and allied fields

Theories of Consumption John Storey, 2017-01-06 Theories of Consumption explores the concept of consumption from the post disciplinary perspective of cultural studies John Storey brings together work that up until now has been located in distinct disciplinary spaces including work on reception theory in literary studies and philosophy work on consumer culture in sociology anthropology and history and work on media audiences both ethnographic and theoretical in media studies and sociology Moving beyond the usual analysis of consumer culture Storey presents a critical assessment of a range of theoretical approaches to the study of consumption In doing so he provides an authoritative overview of a significant selection of research and analysis that has explored consumption as an object of study This book provides an ideal introduction to consumption for students of media and cultural studies and will also be useful for students within a number of other disciplines such as sociology history anthropology cultural geography and both literary and visual studies

Gender, Power, and Communication in Human Relationships Pamela J. Kalbfleisch, Michael J. Cody, 2012-12-06 This edited volume establishes a state of the art perspective on theory and research on gender power and communication in human relationships Both theoretical essays and review chapters address issues relevant to female and male differences in power dominance communication equality and expectations beliefs All chapter contributors share two commonalities First each provides a 1990s assessment of power and equality in female and male relationships Second each reviews respective programs of research and focuses attention on the relevance of this research to understanding the relationships of women and men Unique because it incorporates a multidisciplinary approach to the study of gender and the communication of power in human relationships this book includes the original work of intellectuals with national and international reputations in the social sciences The volume provides both scholastic breadth and centralized treatment of issues that form the very foundation of social and personal relationships It will appeal to scholars working in the disciplines of communication and psychology as well as other areas of social science research

Television Across Asia Michael Keane, Albert Moran, 2003-10-16 This book explores the trade in television program formats which is a crucially important ingredient in the globalisation of culture in Asia It examines how much traffic there is in program formats the principal direction of flow of such traffic and the economic and cultural significance of this trade for the territories involved and for the region as a whole It shows how new technology deregulation privatisation and economic recession have greatly intensified competition between broadcasters in Asia as in other parts of the world and discusses how this in turn has multiplied the incidence of television format remakes with some countries developing dedicated format companies and others becoming net importers and adapters of formats      Handbook of Intercultural Communication Helga Kotthoff, Helen Spencer-Oatey, 2008-09-25 In today's globalized world of international contact and multicultural interaction effective intercultural communication is increasingly seen as a pre-requisite for social harmony and organisational success.
