Friends, John Gordon, 1962 Grace Crowley's Contribution to Australian Modernism and Geometric Abstraction Dianne Ottley, 2010-02-19 Grace Crowley has been recognized as a product of European modernism and was one of the leading innovators of geometric abstraction in Australia Having studied in Paris in the 1920s with one of the leading art teachers writers and theorists Andr Lhote she returned to Australia having mastered the complex mathematics and geometry of the golden section and dynamic symmetry that had become a framework for modernism Through her teaching of these compositional techniques at the most progressive modern art school in Sydney in the 1930s she became a crucial influence on the group of artists now recognized as the historical forerunners to American colour field painting introduced to Australia in the 1960s and Australian abstraction Through her close friendship with Anne Dangar who played a critical role in the success of Albert Gleizes utopian art colony in rural France Crowley maintained contact with mainstream European modernism and links to the Abstraction Creation Group in Paris During the 1940s and 1950s Crowley worked with fellow artist Ralph Balson and together they developed their own style of geometric abstract art which reflected the spiritual dimensions of Kandinsky and Mondrian Although undervalued in her own time the sincerity and uncompromising quality of her work that transcends national boundaries makes her one of the most important Australian women artists of her generation George Johnson George Johnson, Christopher Heathcoate, 2006 George Johnson arrived in Australia from New Zealand in 1952 and in 1956 held his first exhibition of abstract painting in Melbourne This book marks the artist's 80th birthday and fifty years of singular dedication to philosophy based abstract imagery Johnson's work is uniquely consistent rarely straying from compositions based on primary shapes and a limited range of colour preferences but demonstrating how these minimal means can in combination serve as surrogates for complex ideas Additional contributors to the next include the artist's brother renowned New Zealand poet Louis Johnson Australian poet and critic Gary Catalano and Melbourne philosopher Patrick Hutchings The Iconology of Abstraction Krešimir Purgar, 2020-06-15 This book

uncovers how we make meaning of abstraction both historically and in present times and examines abstract images as a visual language The contributors demonstrate that abstraction is not primarily an artistic phenomenon but rather arises from human beings desire to imagine understand and communicate complex ineffable concepts in fields ranging from fine art and philosophy to technologies of data visualization from cartography and medicine to astronomy The book will be of interest to scholars working in image studies visual studies art history philosophy and aesthetics New York Magazine ,1972-06-26 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Geometric

Forming Abstraction Adele Nelson,2022-02-22 Art produced outside hegemonic centers is often seen as a form of derivation or relegated to a provisional status Forming Abstraction turns this narrative on its head In the first book length study of postwar Brazilian art and culture Adele Nelson highlights the importance of exhibitionary and pedagogical institutions in the development of abstract art in Brazil By focusing on the formation of the S o Paulo Biennial in 1951 the early activities of artists Geraldo de Barros Lygia Clark Waldemar Cordeiro H lio Oiticica Lygia Pape and Ivan Serpa and the ideas of critics like M rio Pedrosa Nelson illuminates the complex strategic processes of citation and adaption of both local and international forms The book ultimately demonstrates that Brazilian art institutions and abstract artistic groups and their exhibitions of abstract art in particular served as crucial loci for the articulation of societal identities in a newly democratic nation at the onset of the Cold War We Will Go Right Up to the Sun Astrid Ihle,Julia Nebenführ,René Zechlin,2025-02-15 See the global south between 1914 and the 1970s through the perspective of women pioneers and their new artistic development geometric abstraction Artists like Sophie Taeuber Arp and Sonia Delaunay played an essential part in the development of geometric abstraction a form of non representational art We Will Go Right Up to the Sun presents an overview of the evolution of geometric abstract art and takes into account in addition to the applied arts the female perspective of the Global South with promising new discoveries Geometric abstraction emerged around the turn of the last century from an attitude that was permeated by renewal utopia and resistance and that aimed at the unity of art and life Colorful geometric and highly attractive this comprehensive view of the art produced between 1914 and the 1970s is lavishly illustrated and relates the narrative from a female global historical and contemporary perspective revealing the dense network between women artists gallerists and critics Harmonic Forms on the Edge H. Aesthetic Hybridity in Mughal Painting, 1526-1658 Valerie Gonzalez,2016-03-03 The first specialized critical aesthetic study to be published on the concept of hybridity in early Mughal painting this book investigates the workings of the diverse creative forces that led to the formation of a unique Mughal pictorial language Mughal pictoriality distinguishes itself from the Persianate models through the rationalization of the picture s conceptual structure and other visual modes of expression involving the aesthetic concept of mimesis If the stylistic and iconographic results of this transformational process have been well identified and evidenced their hermeneutic interpretation greatly suffers from the neglect of a methodologically updated investigation of the images conceptual underpinning Valerie Gonzalez addresses this lacuna by exploring the operations of cross fertilization at the level of imagistic conceptualization resulting from the multifaceted encounter between the local legacy of Indo Persianate book art the freshly imported Persian models to Mughal India after 1555 and the influx of European art at the Mughal court in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries The author s close examination of the visuality metaphysical order and aesthetic language of Mughal imagery and portraiture sheds new light on this particular aspect of its aesthetic hybridity which is usually approached monolithically as a historical phenomenon of cross cultural interaction That approach fails to consider specific parameters and features inherent to the artistic practice such as the differences between doxis and praxis conceptualization and realization intentionality and what lies beyond it By studying the distinct phases and principles of hybridization between the variegated pictorial sources at work in the Mughal creative process at the successive levels of the project intention the practice realization and the result product the author deciphers the modalities of appropriation and manipulation of the heterogeneous elements Her unique Study of Thomas
