Jim James Tobacks Self Centered Memoir O:

Baddest Man Mark Kriegel, 2025-06-03 From the acclaimed New York Times bestselling author whose coverage of Mike Tyson and his inner circle dates back to the 1980s a magnificent noir epic about fame race greed criminality trauma and the creation of the most feared and mesmerizing fighter in boxing history On an evening that defined the greed is good 1980s Donald Trump hosted a raft of celebrities and high rollers in a carnival town on the Jersey Shore to bask in the glow created by a twenty one year old heavyweight champion Mike Tyson knocked out Michael Spinks that night and in ninety one frenzied seconds earned more than the annual payrolls of the Los Angeles Lakers and Boston Celtics players combined It had been just eight years since Tyson a feral child from a dystopian Brooklyn neighborhood was delivered to boxing's forgotten wizard Cus D Amato who was living a self imposed exile in upstate New York Together Cus and the Kid were an irresistible story of mutual redemption darlings to the novelists screenwriters and newspapermen long charmed by D Amato and perfect for the nascent industry of cable television Way before anyone heard of Tony Soprano Mike Tyson was HBO's leading man It was the greatest sales job in the sport's history and the most lucrative But the business of Tyson concealed truths that were darker and more nuanced than the script would allow The intervening decades have seen Tyson villainized lionized and fetishized but never until now fully humanized Mark Kriegel an acclaimed biographer regarded as the finest boxing writer in America was a young cityside reporter at the New York Daily News when he was first swept up in the Tyson media hurricane but here he measures his subject not by whom he knocked out but by what he survived Though Tyson was billed as a modern day Jack Dempsey in truth he was closer to Sonny Liston Tyson was Black feared and born to die young What made Liston a pariah though would make Tyson in a way his own handlers could never understand a touchstone for a generation raised on a soundtrack of hip hop and gunfire What Peter Guralnick did for Elvis in Last Train to Memphis and James Kaplan for Sinatra in Frank Kriegel does for Tyson It's not just the dizzying ascent that he captures but also Tyson's place in the American psyche

Every Step a Struggle Frank Manchel, 2007 This book pays tribute to the sacrifices and achievements of seven individuals who made difficult and controversial choices to insure that black Americans shared in the evolution of the nation's cultural heritage Transcriptions and analyses of never before published uncensored conversations with Lorenzo Tucker Lillian Gish King Vidor Clarence Muse Woody Strode Charles Gordone and Frederick Douglass O Neal reveal many of the reasons and rationalizations behind a racist screen imagery in the first three quarters of the twentieth century This primary source replete with pictures documentation and extensive annotations recounts through the words of important participants what happened to many film pioneers when a new generation of African Americans rebelled against the nation's stereotyped film imagery A unique historical resource this book is a fitting tribute to these artists reminding us of their courage integrity and perseverance to succeed against great odds The thorough meticulous annotations make it an indispensable addition to collections in film studies and African American studies Denise Youngblood Professor of History University of Vermont The author has taken a unique approach and may have even created a new genre of writing the interview embellished with scholarly commentary It is a fascinating experiment This book belongs in every research library and in all public libraries from mid size to large cities It fills in lacunae between existing studies Peter C Rollins Editor in Chief of Film History
