

From résumés to personal ads, from talk shows to self-help groups, autobiographical storytelling has become a central theme of American culture. Getting a Life is an innovative examination of how personal narratives have become central in circulating multiple, overlapping, provisional identities--and how those identities are negotiated or resisted in everyday life.

"So innovative that it will stand as a model for refiguring the field of autobiography." Caren Kaplan, University of California, Berkeley

"These essays forge a new path in a well-established field of inquiry by challenging a number of heretofore unexamined assumptions about how a 'life' is constituted, judged worthy of attention, and made representable."

Communities Cynthia Anne Huff, 2005 Recognising the great legacy of women s life writings this book draws on a wealth of sources to critically examine the impact of these writings on our communities The Work of Life Writing G. Thomas Couser, 2021-04-13 Life writing in its various forms does work that other forms of expression do not it bears on the world in a way distinct from imaginative genres like fiction drama and poetry it acts in and on history in significant ways Memoirs of illness and disability often seek to depathologize the conditions that they recount Memoirs of parents by their children extend or alter relations forged initially face to face in the home At a time when memoir and other forms of life writing are being produced and consumed in unprecedented numbers this book reminds readers that memoir is not mainly a literary genre or mere entertainment Similarly letters are not merely epiphenomena of our real lives Correspondence does not just serve to communicate it enacts and sustains human relationships Memoir matters and there s life in letters All life writing arises of our daily lives and has distinctive impacts on them and the culture in which we live Tracks and Traces of Violence Viviane Azarian, 2017 Tracks and Traces of Violence explores the social conditions political contexts and cultural spaces of violence in Africa It is comprised of accounts that underpin the visible and hidden tracks and traces of violence in the memories of traumatized individuals and groups It also interrogates the gaps silences and vacuities of in these memories as well as the role they play in shaping the facial contours of our modern societies Weaving together views from literature anthropology art cultural studies and museum studies this book provides deeper insight into the meanings of violent socialities spatialities and temporalities as well as into how they materialize in poetry fiction art and popular culture Series Contributions to African Research Beitrage zur Afrikaforschung Vol 80 Subject African Studies Sociology Art Literature Anthropology

Autosociobiography Johanna Bundschuh-van Duikeren, Marie Jacquier, Peter Löffelbein, 2025-02-27 Autosociobiography a term coined by nobel prize winner Annie Ernaux is recognized as a productive literary phenomenon at the intersection of literary representation social analysis and political commentary The contributors to this volume trace the global entanglements of autosociobiographical texts especially the historical social and transcultural dynamics they discuss represent and perform They critically engage with the question of how to expand the scope of autosociobiography beyond its current corpus and class narratives to include other forms of social exclusion and stratification

Tracing the Autobiographical Marlene Kadar,Susanna Egan,2009-10-22 The essays in Tracing the Autobiographical work with the literatures of several nations to reveal the intersections of broad agendas for example national ones with the personal the private and the individual Attending to ethics exile tyranny and hope the contributors listen for echoes and murmurs as well as authoritative declarations They also watch for the appearance of auto biography in unexpected places tracing patterns from materials that have been left behind Many of the essays return to the question of text or traces of text demonstrating that the language of autobiography as well as the textualized identities of individual persons can be traced in multiple media and sometimes unlikely documents each of which requires close textual examination These unlikely documents include a deportation list an art exhibit reality TV Web sites and chat rooms architectural spaces and government memos as well as the more familiar literary genres a play the long poem or the short story Interdisciplinary in scope and contemporary in outlook Tracing the Autobiographical is a welcome addition to autobiography scholarship focusing on non traditional genres and on the importance of location and place in life writing Read the chapter Gender Nation and Self Narration Three Generations of Dayan Women in Palestine Israel by Bina Freiwald on the Concordia University Library Spectrum Research Repository website

Stories of the Self Anna Poletti,2020-08-25 The importance of personal storytelling in contemporary culture and politics In an age where our experiences are processed and filtered through a wide variety of mediums both digital and physical how do we tell

our own story How do we get a life make sense of who we are and the way we live and communicate that to others Stories of the Self takes the literary study of autobiography and opens it up to a broad and fascinating range of material practices beyond the book investigating the manifold ways people are documenting themselves in contemporary culture Anna Poletti explores Andy Warhol's Time Capsules a collection of six hundred cardboard boxes filled with text objects from the artist's everyday life the mid aughts crowdsourced digital archive PostSecret queer zine culture and its practices of remixing and collaging and the bureaucratic processes surrounding surveillance dossiers Stories of the Self argues that while there is a strong emphasis on the importance of personal storytelling in contemporary culture and politics mediation is just as important in establishing the credibility and legibility of life writing Poletti argues that the very media used for writing our lives intrinsically shapes how we are seen to matter 1960s Model Girl Felice McDowell, 2025-06-26 Examining histories of post war Britain fashion modelling photography and popular culture 1960s Model Girl Narrative Identities in Fashion Time and History explores model girl narratives found throughout media fashion magazines advice literature auto biographies and fashion exhibits Introducing theories of history life writing and narrative identity 1960s Model Girl demonstrates how these can be applied to the study of fashion and shows how fashion studies opens new pathways to understanding identity and emergent British femininities Drawing on a wealth of archival research case studies include teen fashion magazines Petticoat and Model Girl advice writing of model agent Lucie Clayton and fashion journalist Suzy Menkes autobiographies of fashion models Jean Shrimpton and Twiggy and the Mary Quant exhibition Victoria and Albert Museum London 2019 2020 This book provides an intricate study of a varied and manifold figure whose impact and influence spreads further afield than a particular time place and professional context Closely attending to a range of model girl narratives 1960s Model Girl illuminates the cultural past and in turn sheds light on our own historical present The Wunderkammer of Lady Charlotte Guest Erica Obey, 2007 Lady Charlotte's translation of the Mabinogion opens a window into several important nineteenth century intellectual issues It sheds light on the interrelationships among antiquarianism philosophy folklore collection and children's literature that underlie the works of such seminal creators of the Victorian fairy tale as the Brothers Grimm The Autobiographical Documentary in America Jim Lane, 2002-04-29 Since the late 1960s American film and video makers of all genres have been fascinated with themes of self and identity Though the documentary form is most often used to capture the lives of others Jim Lane turns his lens on those media makers who document their own lives and identities He looks at the ways in which autobiographical documentaries including Roger and Me Sherman's March and Silverlake Life raise weighty questions about American cultural life What is the role of women in society What does it mean to die from AIDS How do race and class play out in our personal lives What does it mean to be a member of a family Examining the history diversity and theoretical underpinnings of this increasingly popular documentary form Lane tracks a fundamental transformation of notions of both autobiography and documentary New Forms of Self-Narration Ana Belén Martínez

García,2020-08-21 This book is a timely study of young women's life writing as a form of human rights activism. It focuses on six young women who suffered human rights violations when they were girls and have gone on to become activists through life writing: Malala Yousafzai, Hyeonseo Lee, Yeonmi Park, Bana Alabed, Nujeen Mustafa, and Nadia Murad. Their ongoing life writing projects diverge to some extent but all share several notable features: they claim a testimonial collective voice; they deploy rights discourse; they excite humanitarian emotions; they link up their context-bound plight with bigger social justice causes; and they use English as their vehicle of self-expression and self-construction. This strategic use of English is of vital importance as it has brought them together as icons in the public sphere within the last six years. New Forms of Self Narration is the first ever attempt to explore all these activists' life writing texts side by side, encompassing both the written and the audiovisual material online and offline, and taking all texts as belonging to a unique single though multifaceted project.

Everybody's Autonomy Juliana Spahr,2001-01-11 Everybody's Autonomy is about reading and identity. Experimental texts empower the reader by encouraging self-governing approaches to reading and by placing the reader on equal footing with the author.

The Biographical Turn Hans Renders,Binne de Haan,Jonne Harmsma,2016-09-13 The Biographical Turn showcases the latest research through which the field of biography is being explored. Fifteen leading scholars in the field present the biographical perspective as a scholarly research methodology investigating the consequences of this bottom-up approach and illuminating its value for different disciplines. While biography has been on the rise in academia since the 1980s, this volume highlights the theoretical implications of the biographical turn that is changing the humanities. Chapters cover subjects such as gender, religion, race, new media, and microhistory, presenting biography as a research methodology suited not only for historians but also for explorations in areas including literature studies, sociology, economics, and politics. By emphasizing agency, the use of primary sources, and the critical analysis of context and historiography, this book demonstrates how biography can function as a scholarly methodology for a wide range of topics and fields of research. International in scope, The Biographical Turn emphasizes that the individual can have a lasting impact on the past and that lives that are now forgotten can be as important for the historical narrative as the biographies of kings and presidents. It is a valuable resource for all students of biography, history, and historical theory.

Luminous presence Alexandra Parsons,2021-11-02 Luminous presence Derek Jarman's life writing is the first book to analyse the prolific writing of queer icon Derek Jarman. Although he is well known for his avant-garde filmmaking, his garden, and his AIDS activism, he is also the author of over a dozen books, many of which are autobiographical. Much of Jarman's exploration of post-war queer identity and imaginative response to HIV/AIDS can be found in his books, such as the lyrical AIDS diaries, Modern Nature, and Smiling in Slow Motion. This book fully explores for the first time the remarkable range and depth of Jarman's writing. Spanning his career, Alexandra Parsons argues that Jarman's self-reflexive response to the HIV/AIDS crisis was critical in changing the cultural terms of queer representation from the 1980s onwards. Luminous presence is of great interest to
