Conversations at the American Film Institute with the Great Moviemakers George Stevens, Jr., 2012-04-03 ONE OF THE HOLLYWOOD REPORTER'S 100 GREATEST FILM BOOKS OF ALL TIME A rich companion volume to George Stevens Jr's much admired book of American Film Institute seminars with the pioneering moviemakers of Hollywood's Golden Age this time with a focus on filmmakers of the 1950s to present day The Next Generation brings together conversations with moviemakers at work from the 1950s during the studios decline to today's Hollywood Directors producers writers actors cinematographers composers film editors and independent filmmakers appear within these pages including Steven Spielberg Nora Ephron George Lucas Sidney Poitier Meryl Streep David Lynch Darren Aronofsky and more We see how the filmmakers of today and those of Hollywood's Golden Age face the same challenges of both art and craft to tell compelling stories on the screen And we see the ways in which actors and directors work together how each director has his or her own approach and how they share techniques and theories Resources in Education, 1978 Literature into Film Linda Costanzo Cahir, 2014-12-24 For most people film adaptation of literature can be summed up in one sentence The movie wasn't as good as the book This volume undertakes to show the reader that not only is this evaluation not always true but sometimes it is intrinsically unfair Movies based on literary works while often billed as adaptations are more correctly termed translations A director and his actors translate the story from the written page into a visual presentation Depending on the form of the original text and the chosen method of translation certain inherent difficulties and pitfalls are associated with this change of medium So often our reception of a book based movie has more to do with our expectations and reading of the literature than with the job that the movie production did or did not do Avoiding these biases and fairly evaluating any particular literary based film takes an awareness of certain factors Written with a formalistic rather than historical approach this work presents a comprehensive guide to literature based films establishing a contextual and theoretical basis to help the reader understand the relationships between such movies and the original texts as well as the reader's own individual responses to these productions To this end it focuses on recognizing and appreciating the inherent difficulties encountered when basing a film on a literary work be it a novel novella play or short story Individual chapters deal with the specific issues and difficulties raised by each of these genres providing an overview backed up by case studies of specific film translations Films and literary works receiving this treatment include The Unbearable Lightness of Being The Manchurian Candidate 1962 Lady Windemere's Fan by Oscar Wilde and Shakespeare's Henry V Interspersed throughout the text are suggestions for activities the film student or buff can use to enhance his or her appreciation and understanding of the films Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here
