Modernism and the Art of Muslim South Asia Iftikhar Dadi, 2010-05-15 This pioneering work traces the emergence of the modern and contemporary art of Muslim South Asia in relation to transnational modernism and in light of the region's intellectual, cultural and political developments. Art historian Iftikhar Dadi here explores the art and writings of major artists, men and women ranging from the late colonial period to the era of independence and beyond. He looks at the stunningly diverse artistic production of key artists associated with Pakistan including Abdur Rahman Chughtai, Zainul Abedin, Shakir Ali, Zubeida Agha, Sadequain, Rasheed Araeen and Naiza Khan. Dadi shows how beginning in the 1920s these artists addressed the challenges of modernity by translating historical and contemporary intellectual conceptions into their work, reworking traditional approaches to the classical Islamic arts and engaging the modernist approach towards subjective individuality in artistic expression. In the process they dramatically reconfigured the visual arts of the region. By the 1930s these artists had embarked on a sustained engagement with international modernism in a context of dizzying social and political change that included decolonization, the rise of mass media and developments following the national independence of India and Pakistan in 1947. Bringing new insights to such concepts as nationalism, modernism, cosmopolitanism and tradition, Dadi underscores the powerful impact of transnationalism during this period and highlights the artists' growing embrace of modernist and contemporary artistic practice in order to address the challenges of the present era. Incarnations Sunil

Khilnani, 2017-01-12 For all of India's myths, stories and moral epics, Indian history remains a curiously unpeopled place. In Incarnations, Sunil Khilnani fills that space, recapturing the human dimension of how the world's largest democracy came to be. His trenchant portraits of emperors, warriors, philosophers, film stars and corporate titans, some famous, some unjustly forgotten, bring feeling, wry humour and uncommon insight to dilemmas that extend from ancient times to our own. The Making of Persianate Modernity Alexander Jabbari, 2023-03-30 Traces the emergence of literary history showing how Iranians and South Asians drew from their shared heritage to produce a Persianate modernity. Urdu Literary Culture

M. Farooqi, 2012-07-02 Urdu Literary Culture examines the impact of political circumstances on vernacular Urdu literary culture through an in-depth study of the writings of Muhammad Hasan Askari, who lived during the Partition of India.

Religion as Critique Irfan Ahmad, 2017-11-20 Irfan Ahmad makes the far reaching argument that potent systems and modes for self critique as well as critique of others are inherent in Islam indeed critique is integral to its fundamental tenets and practices Challenging common views of Islam as hostile to critical thinking Ahmad delineates thriving traditions of critique in Islamic culture focusing in large part on South Asian traditions Ahmad interrogates Greek and Enlightenment notions of reason and critique and he notes how they are invoked in relation to others including Muslims Drafting an alternative genealogy of critique in Islam Ahmad reads religious teachings and texts drawing on sources in Hindi Urdu Farsi and English and demonstrates how they serve as expressions of critique Throughout he depicts Islam as an agent not an object of critique On a broader level Ahmad expands the idea of critique itself Drawing on his fieldwork among marketplace hawkers in Delhi and Aligarh he construes critique anthropologically as a sociocultural activity in the everyday lives of ordinary Muslims beyond the world of intellectuals Religion as Critique allows space for new theoretical considerations of modernity and change taking on such salient issues as nationhood women s equality the state culture democracy and secularism
