The Mother in/and French Literature ,2021-11-22 The essays in this volume investigate maternity and the figure of the mother in French literature from France Switzerland Quebec and Africa from the seventeenth century to the present Drawing on cultural history psychoanalysis and feminist theory as well as more traditional methods they present maternity as a source of frustration and of joy mothers as repressed and revered daughters as wounded and loving sons as domineering and dependent Indeed few things are simple where mothers and especially where writing about mothers are concerned

Zola and Film Anna Gural-Migdal,Robert Singer,2005-05-10 French novelist Emile Zola noted for his championship of the Naturalist novel has been one of the most adapted authors in world literature There have been approximately 80 film adaptations of his late 19th century novels and short stories many of which occurred during the silent era of international film production 1895 1927 While the aesthetic elements of Zola s fiction continue to appeal to international cinema the author s thematic naturalism and his scientific methodology have provided an ideological framework that incorporates art science and history into the many cinematic adaptations of his work This collection of essays contributed by scholars of French literature and film explores the dynamic relationship between Zola s fiction and its film adaptations examining critically significant cinematic adaptations of Zola s novels from a variety of theoretical and interdisciplinary perspectives The 13 essays discuss the adaptation of Zola s works within the limitations of the silent cinema the challenges posed by film censorship and the notoriety of the author s naturalist text the ideological inflection given to Zola s working class narratives and Zola s representation of women Zola s works are placed within their respective historical contexts as the essays address encoded anti Nazi sentiment in films produced under the German occupation of France during World War II and the French Communist Party s reception of the filmic adaptation of Germinal Other adapted works addressed in these chapters include La Terre Nana La Bête humaine Au Bonheur des Dames Thérèse Raquin Gervaise and Pot Bouille El Lector Araceli Tinajero,2010-02-01 The practice of reading aloud has a long history and the tradition still survives in Cuba as a hard won right deeply embedded in cigar factory workers culture In El Lector Araceli Tinajero deftly traces the evolution of the reader from nineteenth century Cuba to the present and its eventual dissemination to Tampa Key West Puerto Rico and Mexico In interviews with present day and retired readers she records testimonies that otherwise would have been lost forever creating a valuable archive for future historians Through a close examination of journals newspapers and personal interviews Tinajero relates how the reading was organized how the readers and readings were selected and how the process affected the relationship between workers and factory owners Because of the reader cigar factory workers were far more cultured and in touch with the political currents of the day than other workers But it was not only the reading material which provided political and literary information that yielded self education that influenced the workers the act of being read to increased the discipline and timing of the artisan s job Ventriloquized Bodies Janet L. Angelo,2014-08-20 What does it mean to write I in postmodern society in a world in which technological advances and increased globalization have complicated notions of authenticity origins and selfhood Under what circumstances and to what extent do authors lend their scriptural authority to fictional counterparts What role does naming or conversely anonymity play vis vis the writing and written I What aspects of identity are subject to auto fictional manipulations And how do these complicated and multilayered narrating selves problematize the reader s engagement with the text Seeking answers to these questions Protean Selves brings together essays which explore the intricate relations between language self identity otherness and the world through the analysis of the forms and uses of the first person voice Written by specialists of a variety of approaches and authors from across the world the studies in this volume follow up a number of critical inquiries on the thorny problematic of self representation and the representation of the self in contemporary French and francophone literatures and extend the theoretical analysis to narratives and authors who have gained increasing commercial and academic visibility in the twenty first century

French Global Christie McDonald,Susan Suleiman,2010-10-25 Recasting French literary history in terms of the cultures and peoples that interacted within and outside of France s national boundaries this volume offers a new way of looking at the history of a national literature along with a truly global and contemporary understanding of language literature and culture The relationship between France s national territory and other regions of the world where French is spoken and written most of them former colonies has long been central to discussions of Francophonie Boldly expanding such discussions to the whole range of French literature the essays in this volume explore spaces mobilities and multiplicities from the Middle Ages to today They rethink literary history not in terms of national boundaries as traditional literary histories have done but in terms of a global paradigm that emphasizes border crossings and encounters with others Contributors offer new ways of reading canonical texts and considering other texts that are not part of the traditional canon By emphasizing diverse conceptions of language text space and nation these essays establish a model approach that remains sensitive to the specificities of time and place and to the theoretical concerns informing the study of national literatures in the twenty first century Ecriture de la ruse ,2021-10-18

Victims of the Book François Proulx,2019-11-08 Victims of the Book uncovers a long neglected but once widespread subgenre the fin de siècle novel of formation in France Novels about and geared toward adolescent male readers were imbued with a deep worry over young Frenchmen's masculinity as evidenced by titles like Crise de jeunesse Youth in Crisis 1897 La Crise virile Crisis of Virility 1898 La Vie stérile A Sterile Life 1892 and La Mortelle Impuissance Deadly Impotence 1903 In this book François Proulx examines a wide panorama of these novels many of which have rarely been studied as well as polemical essays pedagogical articles and medical treatises on the perceived threats posed by young Frenchmen's reading habits Against this cultural backdrop he illuminates all that was at stake in representations of the male reader by prominent novelists of the period including Jules Vallès Paul Bourget Maurice Barrès André Gide and Marcel Proust In the final decades of the nineteenth century social commentators insistently characterized excessive reading as an emasculating illness that afflicted French youth Fin de siècle writers responded to this pathologization of reading with a profusion of novels addressed to young male readers paradoxically proposing their own novels as potential cures In the early twentieth century this corpus was critically revisited by a new generation of writers Victims of the Book shows how Gide and Proust in particular reworked the fin de siècle paradox to subvert cultural norms about literature and masculinity proposing instead a queer pact between writer and reader Faites pas de bruit, 'y a un mort Madeleine Champagne,2023-09-27 Qu'est-ce qui peut inciter sept générations de Blanchet choisir un métier triste mourir aux yeux du commun des mortels Quelles sont leurs motivations
