Getting Strong In All The Hurting Places:

Assisted Suicide in the United States United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on the Constitution, 1996

Disability Robert M. Baird, Stuart E. Rosenbaum, 2008-12-31 What is it like to experience disability What are the prevailing cultural attitudes toward those who experience disability How do social norms and public policies affect those experiencing disability This book provides a vivid and concrete introduction to the wealth of social political and ethical debates that surround the experience of disability Beginning with an exploration of the perspective of persons with disabilities the essays demonstrate the extent to which the disability experience is affected by social and cultural values attitudes and policies In addition to these first person reflections there are essays relating to such issues as The disability rights movement Disability studies Social policy relating to disability Physician assisted suicide genetic testing selective abortion the moral status of handicapped newborns and living and dying with dignity Written in an engaging style with a focus on the concrete this collection of essays includes contributions by John Hockenberry Oiver Sacks Peter Singer and others It is a marvelous resource for enabling the reader to comprehend the experience of disability and to explore contemporary issues involving the disability community

Healing in the Hurting Places Karen F. Riley, 2011-08-16 Healing in the Hurting Places is a personal experience story and outreach for victims of childhood sexual abuse and those who want to help them It sensitively focuses on the healing journey how to recognize symptoms of abuse and offer help Victims often feel alone they don't know where to turn or may believe no one will understand Author Karen Riley speaks to that place of pain and takes you on the healing journey that transformed her life This is not about the tragic event but about where to go now I want them to know that they are not alone and there is One who can heal their broken hearts writes the author Others who will benefit from this story of hope and healing those affected by alcoholism drug abuse domestic and other physical or verbal abuse and those who are involved with them And the peace of God which surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus Philippians 4:7 Many victims share similar characteristics and traits as a result of abuse which often manifest in the same behavior patterns Healing in the Hurting Places is a springboard to empowerment and better understanding
