ThirdWay, 1995-03 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics, society, economics, and culture Dance and the Christian Faith Martin Blogg, 2011-09-29 First published in 1985 this pioneering work on religious dance was written in response to the paradoxical attitude of many Christians who express an interest and enthusiasm for the arts as part of Christian worship yet retain a suspicion even a dislike of dance. Dance and the Christian Faith examines what the Bible says about both dance and worship and relates it to an understanding of what dance is and how it can be used in the church and in education today. Martin Blogg relates his faith to his profession of teaching dance drama and his non-verbal approach to Christian dance opens up new avenues for the expression of the faith complementing the more traditional forms of speech, music, and sacrament. The book is a critical discussion both theoretical and practical of the nature and conditions of religious dance as explored through the disciplines of scripture, education, and dance as art. At the same time Dance and the Christian Faith is a call for Christians to embrace dance as a means to prayer and worship, outreach, and renewal. Although centred on dance within a religious context, much of the discussion is directly relevant to dance, education, and the performing arts in general. With a Foreword by the Rt Revd Maurice Wood, former Bishop of Norwich.
