Reading Theory Now Eamonn

Dunne, 2013-06-20 Reading Theory Now explores movements in critical thinking through a host of radical theorists and channels those movements through the work of one of the most influential proponents of critical interpretation in the world today J Hillis Miller It enables its readers to see how and why theoretical models of reading are of use only in the practical event of reading literary and philosophical texts that the politics and poetics of interpretive paradigms are constantly shifting changing and evolving as present day perspectives transform those traditions unalterably it seeks to invite its readers to challenge the concept of the paradigm the school the movement even the sequence by presenting them with a choice to read in their own way to dip in and out of singular events of interpretation from A to Z In this respect Reading Theory Now invites its audience to decide for him herself where they begin and end their own critical analyses Reading Theory Now also contains A Preface by J Hillis Miller which comments on the significance of reading as an event and the centrality of political and ecological issues in his most recent work An Afterword by Julian Wolfreys which tackles these issues in Miller's latest books A select annotated bibliography which will help students coming to Miller's work for the first time to find their own way into his vast critical corpus

"The Time Is Fulfilled" Lynne Moss Bahr, 2018-12-27

In this study Lynne Moss Bahr explores the concept of temporality as central to Jesus's proclamation of the Kingdom of God Using insights from continental philosophy on the messianic which expose the false claim that time progresses in a linear continuum Bahr presents these philosophical positions in critical dialogue with the sayings of Jesus regarding time and time's fulfillment She shows how the Kingdom represents the possibilities of a disruption in time one that reveals the intrinsic relation between God and humanity In illustrating how Jesus's sayings regarding time are thus expressions of his messianic identity as of the world and not of the world Bahr argues that the meaning of Jesus's identity as Messiah is embedded in the disjuncture of time in the impossibility of now from which the Kingdom comes Bahr's use of critical theory in this study expands the concept of God's Kingdom beyond the traditional confines of the discipline

How We Read Kaitlin Heller, Suzanne Conklin Akbari, 2019

What do we do when we read Reading can be an act of consumption or an act of creation Our work reading overlaps with our pleasure reading and yet these two modes of reading engage with different parts of the self It is sometimes passive sometimes active and can even be an embodied form The contributors to this volume share their own histories of reading in order to reveal the shared pleasure that lies in this most solitary of acts which is also paradoxically the act of most complete plenitude Many of the contributors engage in academic writing and several publish in other genres including poetry and fiction some contributors maintain an active online presence All are engaged with reading's capacity to stimulate and excite as well as to frustrate and confuse The synergies and tensions of online reading and print reading animate these thirteen contributions generating a sense of shared community Together the authors open their libraries to us This is how we read Table of Contents Suzanne Conklin Akbari Introduction Practicing Reading Reading Practice Irina Dumitrescu Reading Lessons Anna
