Hawthorne Herbert Gorman,1966 Hawthorne Herbert Sherman Gorman,1927 Hawthorne Herbert S. Gorman,1992-03-01 Bonded Leather binding Hawthorne Herbert Sherman Gorman,1927 Hawthorne Herbert Sherman Gorman (biographe.),1966 Nathaniel Hawthorne Thomas C. Quirk,1942 The Sins of the Fathers Frederick Crews,1966 Frederick Crews s The Sins of the Fathers Hawthorne s Psychological Themes has become a classic in the field of Hawthorne studies and can be considered one of the most intelligent psychoanalytic readings of a major American writer Joel Porte Cornell University The best book we have on Hawthorne bar none Giles Gunn University of California Santa Barbara A Study of Hawthorne George Parsons Lathrop,1876 This is a pre 1923 historical reproduction that was curated for quality Quality assurance was conducted on each of these books in an attempt to remove books with imperfections introduced by the digitization process Though we have made best efforts the books may have occasional errors that do not impede the reading experience We believe this work is culturally important and have elected to bring the book back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide A Study of Hawthorne by George Parsons Lathrop George Parsons Lathrop,1876 Hawthorne's the Marble Faun Richard E. Mezo,1999-05 Since its publication in 1860 critics have questioned the artistic value of Hawthorne s The Marble Faun A revival of critical interest during the 1950 s and 1960 s has done little to change a generally unfavorable opinion of the work With a few notable exceptions most recent critics believe The Marble Faun to be inferior to Hawthorne s other completed romances Such opinions however usually seem to be based upon the personal taste of the individual critic rather than upon any sort of objective artistic standards The purpose of this study is to examine and evaluate the various critical approaches to The Marble Faun These interpretations provide the basis for a re appraisal of the work A study of the structure the main themes and the characters of The Marble Faun reveals that it is not an inferior work of art In many respects The Marble Faun reflects the maturity of Hawthorne s artistic and philosophical beliefs The Marble Faun is a work capable of standing on its own merits Some critics have misunderstood Hawthorne s aesthetic principles Hawthorne thought that art should be used to suggest moral values The power of art he believed was in its suggestiveness The creation of an ideal beauty which has no exact counterpart in the material world suggests the reality of an unknowable divine providence However the value of a work of art depends upon the mood of the viewer The viewer must assist the artist with his sympathy and imagination in an act of continual creation The work of art will reflect back only those qualities which are brought to it by the viewer Hawthorne s view of life is similar to the philosophy expressed by modern Christian existentialists Throughout his writings Hawthorne s concern for humanity is evident In The Marble Faun Hawthorne explores a problem which has become almost an obsession of modern man This problem is the question of man s moral position in what seems to be a meaningless if not hostile universe The most important theme of The Marble Faun is a consideration of the consequences of man s alienation from other men from God and from nature The structure and the themes of The Marble Faun are developed through the actions of the major characters Hilda Miriam Donatello and Kenyon are each transformed by a fall from relative innocence into a world of suffering humanity Donatello's transformation from faun to man is more striking than the transformations of the other three characters and it is his fall which leads to the question of the felix culpa Although Hilda and Kenyon are ultimately less mature characters than Donatello and Miriam they also benefit from their experiences in Rome Hawthorne's belief in the brotherhood of all men is demonstrated by the experiences of the major characters in The Marble Faun Whether or not it is their wish each of these characters must accept the responsibility for his own actions and each must become involved with humanity It is Hawthorne's deep concern for the human condition profoundly expressed in his art which makes The Marble Faun a work of enduring importance to our civilization

Robert Penn Warren's Circus Aesthetic and the Southern Renaissance Patricia L. Bradley, 2004 Robert Penn Warren's Circus Aesthetic and the Southern Renaissance aligns Warren's work with that of other authors of the Southern Renaissance and examines intertextuality among them Further it establishes The Circus in the Attic a short teachable Warren piece as central to his canon Finally this book reveals the expressive role of the circus in southern history and culture in the first half of the twentieth century

BOOK JACKET A Study of the Modern Novel Annie Russell Marble, 1928 Henry James as a Biographer Willie Tolliver, 2014-02-04 This study of Henry James's biographies of Nathaniel Hawthorne and William Wetmore Story offers an argument that he deserves greater recognition for his contributions to the development of biography based on his implicit theory of biography found in his critical commentary and on these two complicated and ultimately artistically innovative performances in the genre Although James maintained an ambivalent relationship to the art of biography in his reviews criticism letters and fiction he wrote about biography from a core of aesthetic conviction that constitutes an informal poetics It is necessary thus to scrutinize the ways in which James's theoretical convictions particularly his insistence on artistic unity fail him when he writes two biographies himself Both Hawthorne 1879 and William Wetmore Story and His Friends 1903 fail to cohere in the way traditional biographies achieve unity Neither work has at its center a dynamic and fully dimensional apprehension of the biographical subject Instead James violates one of his own essential biographical tenets He usurps his subject and places himself at the center of what should be a narrative of his subject's life The results fall short of fully achieved biography but they do not fall short of literary interest In order to write these books according to his own genius James had to reinvent the form They are rife with innovations chief among them his great experimentation with narrative point of view here brought to bear on biography This concept and others survey the terrain for the important biographical practitioners and theorists who follow him For this reason a special place must be found for James in pantheon of experimental biographers Nataniel Hawthorne's The Scarlet Letter ,1965

The New England Quarterly ,1928 Includes section Bibliography Articles on the history of New England in periodical literature Biography by Americans, 1658-1936 Edward H. O'Neill,2016-11-11 This volume is the most comprehensive bibliography of purely biographical material written by Americans It covers every possible field of life but by design excludes autobiographies diaries and journals A History of American Literature Percy Holmes Boynton,1919
