Art and knowledge after 1900 James Fox, Vid Simoniti, 2023-12-12 This ground breaking new history of modern art explores the relationship between art and knowledge from the beginning of the twentieth century to the present day. Each chapter examines artistic responses to a particular discipline of knowledge from quantum theory and theosophy to cybernetics and ethnic futurisms. The authors argue that art's incursion into other intellectual disciplines is a defining characteristic of both modernism and postmodernism. Throughout the volume poses a series of larger questions: is art a source of knowledge? If so, what kind of knowledge? And ultimately, can it contribute to our understanding of the world in ways that thinkers from other fields should take seriously?

The Altered Object Terry Taylor, 2006 Altered art is the fastest growing craft trend today, but its practitioners can't live by books alone. They long to expand their horizons and explore new directions. And this follow up to the hugely successful Altered Art will fulfill their creative desires. It moves into uncharted territory, focusing not on books but on transforming the surfaces of a multitude of everyday objects into artistic canvases. The 25 projects clearly prove that the possibilities are limited only by one's own imagination. For example, in the hands of five different crafters, those ubiquitous mint tins become a small shrine, necklace, photo book, and doll. Profusely illustrated, profiles showcase ten contemporary artists doing their work; all provide invaluable insights into the creative process.

Joyce J. Scott Joyce Scott, 2024-04-02 An insightful retrospective of the genre-defying contemporary artist and MacArthur Fellow Joyce J. Scott, showcasing contributions from an extraordinary group of artists and scholars. This essential new volume serves as a critical resource and details the richness and complexity of the work of Joyce J. Scott, b. 1948, beginning with an overview of the artist's 50-year career: an interconnected community-generating practice that embraces performance art, beaded necklaces, and sculptures, wall hangings, and prints. Interviews with the artist by Leslie King Hammond and Valerie Cassel Oliver focus on Scott's matrilineage and womanist ethos and on the genre-defying choreography of her career across disciplines. Six thematic essays by established and emerging scholars discuss the ancient and global reach of beads, including Yoruba traditions; consider the utility of satire and performance in connection with the work of emerging Black artists; and explore the significance of geography, history, and place. Excerpts from foundational out-of-print texts and an illustrated chronology, annotated by Scott, appear alongside contributions by artists Sonya Clark, Oletha DeVane, Jeffrey Gibson, Kay Lawal, Muhammad Malcolm Peacock, and William C. Rhodes III. Scott makes difficult subjects intimately felt, confronting histories of
