How To Proceed In The Arts:

Process in the Arts Therapies Ann Cattanach, 1999-06-01 The multiplicity of levels at which process operates for art therapists is the theme of this book What happens during a therapy session is examined as are the client's response which is experienced through the medium of the art form itself and the evolution of the relationship between therapist and client

Frank O'Hara Now Robert Hampson, Will Montgomery, 2022-04-02 Frank O'Hara's writing is central to any consideration of 20th century American poetry This collection of essays the first to be dedicated to O'Hara in nearly two decades asks why O'Hara remains so important to 21st century readers and writers of poetry The book is transatlantic in tone combining American scholarship with a wide sampling of British writers For many O'Hara's distinctive appeal depends on his witty depictions of urban experience his relationship to the painters of Abstract Expressionism and the exhilarating immediacy of his poetic voice Yet these chatty and approachable qualities coexist with a testing engagement with currents in European and American modernism Frank O'Hara Now offers a comprehensive picture of the poet presenting the conversational insouciance of the writing alongside its more intransigent features

Professional Practice in Health, Education and the Creative Arts Joy Higgs, Angie Titchen, 2008-04-15 Society is rapidly changing its expectations of professionals in all arenas In this book we focus on changing patterns of professional practice in health education and the creative arts In each of these areas professional practice care is undergoing major reform in a complex and rapidly changing environment This multi-authored text explores professional practice in four key dimensions doing knowing being and becoming These concepts have been chosen to represent professional practice as much more than applying learned knowledge in practice situations The authors present professional practice as a lived and dynamic experience as well as a process a service for and with others and a way of being and behaving The text explores the essential unity of knowledge and practice through discourse narrative imagery and critical debate This is a book for all those seeking to learn and to improve practice
