Faces In A Single Tree A Cycle Of Monologues:

Faces in a Single Tree Robert Pack, 1984 A variety of characters portray their feelings experiences and lives in a collection of poems Faces in a Single Tree Robert Pack, 1984 These are dramatic monologues rooted in New England but ranging widely over a spectrum of emotions and narrative styles They speak in the voices of fathers to daughters sons to mothers sisters to brothers and wives to husbands They are intimate reflective and colloquial They tell stories about how we deal with pain and endure with those we love the most Belief and Uncertainty in the Poetry of Robert Frost Robert Pack, 2003 A leading Frost critic guides the reader through some of the poet s most challenging verse International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets Minding the Sun Robert Pack, 1996-04-15 The poet concludes the volume with a sobering plea The Trees Will Die to heed the sun s example to cherish and protect our planet and all its living things The New York Times Book Review , 1986 Presents extended reviews of noteworthy books short reviews essays and articles on topics and trends in publishing literature culture and the arts Includes lists of best sellers hardcover and paperback Elk in Winter Robert Pack, 2010-04-15 Robert Pack is a narrative master blessed with a keen ear for everyday speech In poems that recall Robert Frost s meditative regard of nature Pack s newest collection Elk in Winter resolves universal questions in the particular the personal and the intimate This rich and varied volume moves from comedy to elegy from lyric to narrative in which individual characters are revealed and rendered symbolic by the stories that enclose them What finally unites the poems of Elk in Winter is Pack s desire to appeal to the ear as much as to the heart and to discover and reveal the passionate music of ideas Still Here, Still Now Robert Pack, 2008-09-15 Robert Pack is one of America s most eminent nature poets and his virtuoso talents are on glorious display in Still Here Still Now his nineteenth volume of verse With styles ranging from lyric to narrative and themes stretching from biblical concerns to meditations on contemporary science Pack s poetry is composed in strongly rhythmic cadences and a diction that is direct and accessible In four different sections of thematically and stylistically divergent verse Still Here Still Now delivers many of the elements of Pack s poetry readers have come to admire and expect both the humorous and the elegiac The first section of the book contains traditional lyrics that celebrate family ties and seek consolations for the passing of personal and evolutionary time The poems in this group address a named or unnamed auditor in a voice of intimate engagement Featuring the most narrative selections in the book the second section consists of fable like stories rich with innuendo and implication The characters in these poems make choices that press against the events and circumstances that challenge and define them Embodying what Harold Bloom has called Pack s courage to surmount suffering the poems of the third section are largely devoted to biblical themes and philosophical speculations on the meaning of happiness and the uses of suffering Here Pack s empathy for the human condition as well as his forebodings about the prospect of human survival are on poignant display The final section of the book turns to Pack's abiding interest in landscape and the ways in which the place one inhabits contains and animates our individual lives Ripe with many years Pack remains a vital presence in American letters Still Here Still Now is an affecting and graceful addition to the oeuvre of a poet whose compelling and distinct voice will continue to resonate among his loyal readers New England Review and Bread Loaf Quarterly ,1984 The Georgia Review ,1985 Contemporary Poets Tracy Chevalier,1991 Contains biographical entries a list of separately published books and an essay on each poet Prairie Schooner Lowry Charles Wimberly,1985 Whose Woods These are David Haward Bain,1993 Anthology of Magazine Verse and Yearbook of American Poetry ,1985 Anthology of Magazine Verse and Yearbook of American Poetry, 1997 Alan F. Pater,1997-05 Fathering the Map Robert Pack,1993-09-15 Poetry wrote Wordsworth is the breath and finer spirit of all knowledge it is the impassioned expression which is the countenance of all Science Robert Pack's new book is a heady mixture of the finer spirit A selection from his last five books along with a collection of new poems Fathering the Map takes us from the personal reflections distilled in the lyrics of Waking to My Name 1980 to the worldly reckonings of Inheritance 1992 and back again In the dramatic monologues of Faces in a Single Tree 1984 in the narrative of a wayward life from womb to double ending in Clayfield Rejoices Clayfield Laments 1987 in a cosmic tour conducted by the physicist Heinz Pagels with Before It Vanishes 1990 Pack has fashioned poems of intimate experience scientific meditations philosophical wonder poems that breathe the knowledge of man and woman young and old artist and human animal Pack's work has won the acclaim of writers critics and readers from Robert Penn Warren to Cynthia Ozick to Stephen Jay Gould who comments that the precious contacts of science and poetry are now sadly rare but Bob Pack revitalizes the ancient union with incisive poems that sing with lyricism or bite with insight but always seem to add wisdom to the scientist's epigram The poet improves his style and spirit as he extends his reach Howard Nemerov has written and in his new work Pack reaches back to some of his earliest memories and so forward to a personal mythology that circles from the primal instant to the present ecological crisis Robert Pack's poetry is deeply rooted in his won family life Richard Wilbur has remarked and yet his imagination has always included us all And Cynthia Ozick has said of Pack's poetry We rejoice as we read Middlebury College Magazine ,1985 Strong Measures Philip Dacey,David Jauss,1986 The Writers Directory ,2013
