something of the animal from the Id The author aligns himself with Bizarro because the work clearly is however it is also seriously surrealist Thirdly violence in all the authors work is never treated morally but let loose you dont have to read the stories from the point of view of a good person being shown bad things which fascinate and yet you are never allowed to be a part of but just as if you were in a dream or were a child you have no moral compass and are lead into violence without condemnation are told to identify with it even when its source is apparently evil To go back to surrealism before we discuss the actual stories I the author am a surrealist anarchist and a surrealist creator for three reasons One is a fascination with dreams their strangeness and wonder where they come from their unrestrained adventures Two is a political interest from the point of view that the super ego the restraints of the opinions of society therefore the opinions of the state through all aspects of media and coercion is a cowardly internalised source that restricts our freedom and makes everyone slaves Thirdly is an attempt to unpeel this onion even further let out the Id the creativity the desires without the restraints of ego and super ego to see the core of who we are even if this is bad I want to find good but I do not want to find it at the bottom of being afraid because I do not want to consent to the pressures of every one and thing I despise even if I am instead lead to evil that I despise more and yet I find as a child or in a dream I am rarely lead to evil through lack of social inhibitions in my work I often am but then I have had a very violent life Most of these stories however are rather more restrained than the earlier works of Unrequited Zombie and Urban Book of the Dead except for The Destructive Urge also the most surreal here and the most recent Bathory and the State is from an earlier period and a little primitive which only means it is eighteen months old Bible of the Gun is a story about a man who after strange events of a dream like and schizophrenic nature goes to see a female psychiatrist I was lying on the leather couch so much like a dental chair the smell of leather had a clinical effect on the memories she extracted as the sense of smell alerted me to smells from the past Light fell on the couches black leather in shiny checks from the window light as the warm rays that read my mind with their heat signatures fell on us they made the plant on the coffee table with its lush green leaves burble to me happily in a language I could not understand Like pulling teeth she grasped each memory examined it through her glasses leaning forward she tapped each one with her pen looking for rottenness tore it painfully from its protective flesh Her mobile phone sat on the coffee table Dismantled at my request slim orange and black a Sonny Ericsson 880i it had its spying guts removed That is its battery lay at its side so that the secret services or who ever they were could not pick up through its microphone my conversation with my psychiatrist My psychiatrist sat in a swiveling chair I looked down at her red shoes the sharp heels pointing from one side and then the other as she turned the chair from side to side with her long legs occasionally The Journal of the Armed Forces ,1872 The Good Policeman Jerome Charyn,2012-04-10 DIVPolice commissioner Isaac Sidel struggles to keep the New York Police Department from shattering divDIV divDIVWhen he was the police commissioner s first deputy Isaac Sidel was one of the most powerful men in New York But now that he s been promoted to the top job there s nothing for Sidel to do but stare at his desk and feed the tapeworm that s attached to his stomach divDIV divDIVThe Justice Department sends him on a lecture tour of the country but after one too many lunches with small town mayors Sidel goes AWOL and comes back to New York getting in touch with the Ivanhoes his illegal network of secret informants A missing mob lawyer a baseball obsessed orphan genius and a mysterious Romanian princess point towards a mystery that only he can tackle Justice wants him back on tour but something is rumbling beneath the city and Sidel needs to be there to see it explode div
