Hello to Bodega [sound Recording] Aaron, Chester, McClelland, Jane, 2004 Gang of Looters Mark Anthony Nze, 2019-11-04 From being a besotted governor to be sent into an exile the story is weaved around Kulala Bodega the governor of Endassa and his battle to bring the economy and people of his state out of the evil shadow of the gang of looters who are feasting on the corpse of the once abundant treasury Nonetheless standing up against the bully had never been easy as Chief Timbabu has his eyes and ears in every branch of the government making sure whoever stands in his way is ceased from the existence The chief may be powerful but in the war between the good and evil it is always the good that wins so the sun shines on the state of Endassa once again after a long dark spell The children of Africa return from their exile back to what they always called home
