The Inquisitor Mark Allen Smith, 2012-04-10 A spectacularly original thriller about a professional torturer who has a strict code a mysterious past and a dangerous conviction that he can save the life of an innocent child Geiger has a gift he knows a lie the instant he hears it And in his business called information retrieval by its practitioners that gift is invaluable because truth is the hottest thing on the market Geiger s clients count on him to extract the truth from even the most reluctant subjects Unlike most of his competitors Geiger rarely sheds blood but he does use a variety of techniques some physical many psychological to push his subjects to a point where pain takes a backseat to fear Because only then will they finally stop lying

One of Geiger's rules is that he never works with children. So when his partner, former journalist Harry Boddicker, unwittingly brings in a client who demands that Geiger interrogate a twelve-year-old boy, Geiger responds instinctively. He rescues the boy from his captor, removes him to the safety of his New York City loft, and promises to protect him from further harm. But if Geiger and Harry cannot quickly discover why the client is so desperate to learn the boy's secret, they themselves will become the victims of an utterly ruthless adversary. Mesmerizing and heart-in-your-throat compelling, The Inquisitor is a completely unique thriller that introduces both an unforgettable protagonist and a major new talent in Mark Allen Smith.

Brown, 2003. For Paris Gibson, her popular late-night radio show is both an escape and her one real contact with the outside world. Since moving to Austin to ease the pain of past tragic mistakes, she has led a life of virtual solitude, coming alive only when she hosts her show. To her loyal listeners, she is a wise and trusted friend who not only takes their music requests but listens to their problems and occasionally dispenses advice. Paris's world of isolation is brutally threatened, however, when one listener, a man who identifies himself only as Valentino, tells her that her on-air advice to the girl he loves has caused her to leave him and that now he intends to exact his revenge. First, he plans to kill the girl whom he has abducted, which he says he will do in 72 hours; then he will come after Paris. Joined by the Austin police department, Paris plunges into a race against time in an effort to find Valentino before he can carry out his threat to kill and to kill again. To her dismay, she finds that one of the people she must work with is crime psychologist Dean Malloy, a man with whom she shares a history that had a catastrophic effect on both their lives. His presence arouses old passions, forcing Paris to confront painful memories that she had come to Austin to forget. As the clock ticks down and Valentino's threats come closer and closer to becoming a reality, Paris suddenly finds herself forced to deal with a killer who may not be a stranger at all. BOOK JACKET The Rainbow Trail; A Romance

Forgotten Debra Marie DeLash, 2019-02-07. My soul cannot find rest on any other path. My name is John Goodwill, and with grandson Frank, this is the story of our cross-country trip to find my daughter Faith. Forty-five years ago, I ran away from the pain of her mental illness and live with a secret, broken heart. Faith just turned sixty years old, and I wonder absolutely everything about her. As a fun surprise, Frank and I meet curious characters who share raw truths, helping tear down my walls of denial and shame. This homeless artist is like shattered pieces of glass from a broken goblet. Just Bob. She didn't know what was happening to her son Mom always believed I could learn to live with who I am Sea Wind and Gang God works in mysterious ways We are sent a helper support in most unlikely packages This one comes with short frizzy orange hair and a nose ring What else could I need Josie The cure is a shot in the eye Not for me Get my pants Frank we are out of here Grandfather We get to a crossroad We can give our dreams one final push Then we know deep inside we are finished Nurse Hatchett Judgment To some I look more like a cartoon character than a servant of God yet I carry the Lord s spirit just like you Chaplain Charlie Our lives if you could go back and choose one moment in time to do differently would you When the storm is calmed what is left in your clear reflection upon the still waters now Seeking My Daughter Faith Parables from The Forgotten details spiritual adventures of the forgotten among us and stories of God s mercy forgiveness and love When you see an RV going down the road think of me reflect on all of us As long as we breathe there are chances for do overs with the ones we love and with ourselves

The American Theatre Reader Edited By The American Theatre Magazine,2010-06 All of us have immense inner resources for dealing with what life throws at us but we have to learn how to release those resources We can t always control what life sends us but we can choose how we respond And that Easwaran tells us is mainly a matter of quieting the agitation in the mind It s a simple idea but one that goes deep a truly calm mind can weather any storm And we learn to calm the mind through practice there s no magic about it This book offers insights stories practical techniques and exercises that will help us release the energy compassion and wisdom we need to ride the waves of life minute by minute day by day
