authoritative journey into the world of a cinema master With the revolutionary 8 1 2 Federico Fellini put his deepest desires and anxieties before the lens in 1963 permanently impacting the art of cinema in the process Now more than forty years later film critic and Fellini confidant Tullio Kezich has written the work by which all other biographies of the filmmaker are sure to be measured In this moving and intimately revealing account of a lifetime spent in pictures Kezich uses his friendship with Fellini as a means to step outside the frame of myth and anecdote that surrounds him much it turns out of the director s own making A great lover of women and a meticulous observer of dreams Fellini perhaps more than any other director of the twentieth century created films that embodied a thoroughly modern sensibility eschewing traditional narrative along with religious and moral precepts His is an art of delicate pathos of episodic films that directly address the intersection of reality fantasy and desire that exists as a product of mid century Italy a country reeling from a Fascist regime as it struggled with an outmoded Catholic national identity As Kezich reveals the dilemmas Fellini presents in his movies reflect not only his personal battles but those of Italian society The result is a book that explores both the machinations of cinema and the man who most grandly embraced the full spectrum of its possibilities leaving his indelible mark on it forever
