Java In A Time Of Revolution Occupation And Resistance 1944 1946:

Java in a Time of Revolution Benedict Richard O'Gorman Anderson, 2006 With remarkable scope and in scrupulous detail Professor Anderson analyzes the Indonesian revolution of 1945 Against the background of Javanese culture and the Japanese occupation he explores the origins of the revolutionary youth groups the military and the political parties to challenge conventional interpretations of revolutionary movements in Asia The author emphasizes that the critical role in the outbreak was played not by the dissatisfied intellectuals or by an oppressed working class but by the youth of Indonesia Perhaps most important are the insights he offers into the conflict between strategies for seeking national revolution and those for attaining social change By giving first priority to gaining recognition of Indonesian sovereignty from the outside world he argues the revolutionary leadership had to adopt conservative domestic policies that greatly reduced the possibility of far reaching social reform This in depth study of the independence crisis in Indonesia brought back to life by Equinox Publishing as the first title in its Classic Indonesia series also illuminates the revolutionary process in other nations where wars for independence have been fought but significant social and economic progress has not yet been achieved ABOUT THE AUTHOR Benedict Anderson is one of the world's leading authorities on South East Asian nationalism and particularly on Indonesia He is Professor of International Studies and Director of the Modern Indonesia Project at Cornell University New York His other works include Imagined Communities Reflections on the Origin and Spread of Nationalism and The Spectre of Comparisons Nationalism Southeast Asia and the World Java in a Time of Revolution Richard S. Newell, 1972 Japan's Occupation of Java in the Second World War Ethan Mark, 2018-07-12 Shortlisted for the ICAS International Convention of Asia Scholars Book Prize in the Humanities 2019 Japan's Occupation of Java in the Second World War draws upon written and oral Japanese Indonesian Dutch and English language sources to narrate the Japanese occupation of Java as a transnational intersection between two complex Asian societies placing this narrative in a larger wartime context of domestic regional and global crisis Japan's occupation of Java is here revealed in a radically new and nuanced light as an ambiguous encounter revolutionary in the degree of mutual interests that drew the two sides together fascinating and tragic in its evolution and profound in the legacies left behind Mark structures his study around a diverse group of Japanese and Indonesians captivated by the wartime vision of a Greater Asia The book is not only the first transnational study of Japan's wartime occupation of Java but the first to focus on the Second World War experience in transnational terms on the ground anywhere in Asia Breaking new ground interpretatively thematically and narratively Mark's monumental study is of vital significance for students and scholars of modern Asian and global history This book is published in partnership with Columbia University's Weatherhead East Asian Institute <http://weai.columbia.edu/japans-occupation-of-java> Building Dutch Air Power in World War II Nicholas Michael Sambaluk, 2025-01-17 During World War II the United States earned the nickname the arsenal of democracy due to its sheer productive output which included over 3 000 000 trucks and jeeps 86

000 tanks 6 750 naval platforms 300 000 aircraft of all types It was also the arsenal of democracy in a second sense as a large portion of that hardware was supplied to countries fighting fascism When Franklin D Roosevelt introduced the Lend Lease Act Allied countries of the antifascist coalition were supplied with aid hardware and food Beyond material aid the United States also hosted and trained over 20 000 foreign pilots and aircrew between 1941 and 1945 This book presents the history of one such training program where 532 Dutch pilots crew and other personnel were trained on United States soil over 21 months With the Japanese army intent on invading the Netherlands East Indies it was critical that the Dutch army strengthen their air power When resistance fell on the NEI island of Java and Australia became the new front line Dutch authorities were forced to relocate their training program to Jackson Mississippi where they christened the Royal Netherlands Military Flying School From there they trained on bases in over a dozen states representing a high point for the Dutch air force during a grueling time After their training the RNMFS participated in the liberation of NEI from Japanese occupation This history presents in full context the training of Dutch air personnel on U S soil under the Lend Lease Act their easy rapport with their American hosts and their efforts to establish the Netherlands as an integral part of the Allied cause

The Dutch-Indonesian War 1945-49 Marc Lohnstein,2023-06-22 Highly detailed and colourful this account illustrates the struggle of Indonesian forces in their War of Independence against the Netherlands following the surrender of occupying Japanese forces in 1945 Following on from MAA 521 Royal Netherlands East Indies Army 1936 42 and completing the coverage of the post World War II wars of decolonization The Dutch Indonesian War 1945 49 describes the Japanese surrender in September 1945 which left a power vacuum in the colonial Dutch East Indies Indonesia Using vivid colour illustrations and rare photos this title depicts the various forces involved in the struggle for Indonesia the British Indian Army troops sent to key areas to disarm Japanese garrisons the Indonesian nationalists who immediately proclaimed an independent Republic remaining Japanese troops and the Dutch forces which arrived in 1946 The wide dispersion of populations and their ethnic religious and political differences ensured that the struggle which followed was complex Fragmented bands of nationalist pemuda insurgents were slowly brought together under command of a republican army the BKR later TKR and finally the TNI complete with naval and air elements but stubborn negotiations alternated with bouts of major fighting This book details how the nationalists were defeated by Dutch and Dutch led local forces in urban areas e g during Operations Product and Crow 1947 and 1948 but how their guerrillas evaded Dutch troops in the jungle hills and swamps Illustrating a wide range of uniforms insignia personal weapons and equipment this study showcases the troops and armour involved in the conflict Colonial and Postcolonial East and Southeast Asia Julia Chandler,2016-12-15

Republicanism, Communism, Islam John T. Sidel,2021-05-15 In Republicanism Communism Islam John T Sidel provides an alternate vantage point for understanding the variegated forms and trajectories of revolution across the Philippines Indonesia and Vietnam a perspective that is de nationalized internationalized and transnationalized Sidel positions this new vantage point against the conventional framing of revolutions in modern Southeast Asian history in terms of a nationalist template on the one hand and distinctive local cultures and forms of consciousness on the other Sidel's comparative analysis shows how in very different decisive and often surprising ways the Philippine Indonesian and Vietnamese revolutions were informed enabled and impelled by diverse cosmopolitan connections and international conjunctures Sidel addresses the role of Freemasonry in the making of the Philippine revolution the importance of Communism and Islam in Indonesia's Revolusi and the influence that shifting political currents in China and anticolonial movements in Africa had on Vietnamese revolutionaries Through this assessment Republicanism Communism and Islam tracks how these forces rather than nationalism per se shaped the forms of these revolutions the ways in which they unfolded and the legacies which they left in their wakes The Limits of Empire Robert J. McMahon, 1999 The most complete picture to date of how U.S. strategies of containment and empire building spiraled out of control in Southeast Asia investigating also how the demoralizing experience of Vietnam radically undermined U.S. enthusiasm for the region in a strategic sense

Imperial Policy and Southeast Asian Nationalism Hans Antlov, Stein Tonnesson, 2013-10-08 Traditionally the tumultuous period 1930-50 in South East Asia has been viewed as a dichotomy of European vs Asian or imperialist vs nationalist This highly acclaimed volume presents another triangular perspective and challenges established wisdom about the period The Encoded Cirebon Mask Laurie Margot Ross, 2016-08-29 In The Encoded Cirebon Mask Materiality Flow and Meaning along Java's Islamic Northwest Coast Laurie Margot Ross situates masks and masked dancing in the Cirebon region of Java Indonesia as an original expression of Islam This is a different view from that of many scholars who argue that canonical prohibitions on fashioning idols and imagery prove that masks are mere relics of indigenous beliefs that Muslim travelers could not eradicate Making use of archives oral histories and the performing objects themselves Ross traces the mask's trajectory from a popular entertainment in Cirebon once a portal of global exchange to a stimulus for establishing a deeper connection to God in late colonial Java and eventual links to nationalism in post-independence Indonesia Roots of Violence in Indonesia Freek Colombijn, J. Th. Lindblad, 2021-11-15 Jakarta Sambas Poso the Moluccas West Papua These simple geographical names have recently obtained strong associations with mass killing just as Aceh and East Timor where large scale violence has flared up again Lethal incidents between adjacent villages or between a petty criminal and the crowd take place throughout Indonesia Indonesia is a violent country Many Indonesia watchers both scholars and journalists explain the violence in terms of the loss of the monopoly on the means of violence by the state since the beginning of the Reformasi in 1998 Others point at the omnipresent remnants of the New Order state 1966-1998 former President Suharto's clan or the army in particular as the evil genius behind the present bloodshed The authors in this volume try to explain violence in Indonesia by looking at it in historical perspective Ours to Master and to Own Dario Azzellini, Immanuel Ness, 2011-07-05 From the dawning of the industrial epoch wage earners have organized themselves into unions fought bitter strikes and gone so far as to challenge the very premises of the system by creating institutions of democratic self management aimed at controlling production without bosses With specific examples drawn from every corner of the globe and every period of modern history this pathbreaking volume comprehensively traces this often underappreciated historical tradition Ripe with lessons drawn from historical and contemporary struggles for workers control Ours to Master and to Own is essential reading for those struggling to create a new world from the ashes of the old Immanuel Ness is professor of political science at Brooklyn College City University of New York and edits WorkingUSA Dario Azzellini is a writer documentary director and political scientist at Johannes Kepler University in Linz Entertaining Children G. Arrighi, V. Emeljanow, 2014-05-07 Children have been exploited as performers and wooed energetically as consumers throughout history These essays offer scholarly investigations into the employment and participation of children in the entertainment industry with examples drawn from historical and contemporary contexts Year Zero Ian Buruma, 2014-09-30 A marvelous global history of the pivotal year 1945 as a new world emerged from the ruins of World War II Year Zero is a landmark reckoning with the great drama that ensued after war came to an end in 1945 One world had ended and a new uncertain one was beginning Regime change had come on a global scale across Asia including China Korea Indochina and the Philippines and of course Japan and all of continental Europe Out of the often vicious power struggles that ensued emerged the modern world as we know it In human terms the scale of transformation is almost impossible to imagine Great cities around the world lay in ruins their populations decimated displaced starving Harsh revenge was meted out on a wide scale and the ground was laid for much horror to come At the same time in the wake of unspeakable loss the euphoria of the liberated was extraordinary and the revelry unprecedented The postwar years gave rise to the European welfare state the United Nations decolonization Japanese pacifism and the European Union Social cultural and political reeducation was imposed on vanquished by victors on a scale that also had no historical precedent Much that was done was ill advised but in hindsight as Ian Buruma shows us these efforts were in fact relatively enlightened humane and effective A poignant grace note throughout this history is Buruma's own father's story Seized by the Nazis during the occupation of Holland he spent much of the war in Berlin as a laborer and by war's end was literally hiding in the rubble of a flattened city having barely managed to survive starvation rations Allied bombing and Soviet shock troops when the end came His journey home and attempted reentry into normalcy stand in many ways for his generation's experience A work of enormous range and stirring human drama conjuring both the Asian and European theaters with equal fluency Year Zero is a book that Ian Buruma is perhaps uniquely positioned to write It is surely his masterpiece The Cold War Spencer C. Tucker, 2020-10-27 This sweeping reference work covers every aspect of the Cold War from its ignition in the ashes of World War II through the Berlin Wall and the Cuban Missile Crisis to the collapse of the Soviet Union in 1991 The Cold War superpower face off between the Soviet Union and the United States dominated international affairs in the second half of the 20th century and still reverberates around the world today This comprehensive and insightful multivolume set provides authoritative entries on all aspects of this world changing event including wars new military technologies diplomatic initiatives espionage activities important individuals and organizations economic developments societal and cultural events and more This expansive coverage provides readers with the necessary context to understand the many facets of this complex conflict The work begins with a preface and introduction and then offers illuminating introductory essays on the origins and course of the Cold War which are followed by some 1 500 entries on key individuals wars battles weapons systems diplomacy politics economics and art and culture Each entry has cross references and a list of books for further reading The text includes more than 100 key primary source documents a detailed chronology a glossary and a selective bibliography Numerous illustrations and maps are inset throughout to provide additional context to the material

In the Ruins of Empire Ronald H. Spector, 2007 Looks at how the end of the war in the Pacific theater of World War II led to all new conflicts and power struggles among the Asian people of the former Japanese empire analyzing the implications of these battles between political rivals ethnic groups nationalist factions and others in the wake of the war 35 000 first printing

Indonesia Taufik Abdullah, 2009 This book traces the beginning of the process of nation formation the struggle for independence the hopeful beginning of the new nation state of Indonesia only to be followed by hard and difficult ways to remain true to the ideals of independence In the process Indonesia with its sprawling archipelago and its multi ethnic and multi religious nation has to undergo various types of crisis and internal conflicts but the ideals that have been nurtured since the beginning when a new nation began to be visualized remain intact Some changes in the interpretation may have taken place and some deviations here and there can be noticed but the literal meaning of the ideals continues to be the guiding light In short this is a history of a nation in the continuing effort to retain the ideals of its existence

The Second World War Chris Bambery, 2014-05-08 The Second World War casts a long shadow portrayed as a necessary and paradigmatic war that defeated fascism During recent wars in Iraq Afghanistan and elsewhere US presidents and British prime ministers have tried to claim they were following in the footsteps of Winston Churchill by standing up to dictators In The Second World War Chris Bambery tests this position in a thorough account of the war and demonstrates why it continues to dominate TV history channels and school history books Arguing that the conflict was as much about a division of the world between the great powers as it was as a rising of ordinary people against fascism he offers a nuanced and radical analysis that sets the book apart from conventional histories of the war

The Vietnamese War David W. P. Elliott, 2003 16 Holding On 17 Civil War 18 The Final Chapter Notes Appendix A The Human Cost Appendix B Reflections Bibliography Index

The Romance of K'tut Tantri and Indonesia Timothy Lindsey, 2008 This historiographic study of K tut Tantri alias Vannen Walker the journalist from the Isle of Man Muriel Pearson the unhappy wife and Surabaya Sue the notorious revolutionary compares her romantic and colorful autobiography Revolt in Paradise with other versions of her past including those of her fellow Bali colonists and her revolutionary comrades

as well as her foes the Dutch and various intelligence organizations These alternative accounts of her past question the image of K tut Tantri as hero portraying her instead as dishonest unstable egotistical and immoral Such criticisms have overshadowed proper recognition of her role in the development of modern Indonesia both as a bohemian hotelier in between wars Bali and later as propaganda broadcaster and adviser to Indonesian revolutionary leaders including Soekarno Sutomo and Syarifuddin Focusing on the nature of biography and autobiography this book analyses K tut Tantri s self defeating battle to use history in text and film script to define her identity and reappropriate her past An examination of the use of ideas of truth and fiction in understanding the past leads to broader consideration of the nature of history and its uses Finally an attempt is made to reconcile the deconstruction of K tut Tantri s autobiography with both an acceptance of the validity of alternative historical genres and an acceptance of the problems inherent in writing a history of a living person

ABOUT THE AUTHOR Timothy Lindsey is Professor of Law Director of the Asian Law Centre Director of the Centre for Islamic Law and Society and Federation Fellow in the Law School at the University of Melbourne
