Fair and Varied Forms Mary C. Olson, 2020-04-03 First published in 2003 Research in Medieval Studies continues to be fresh in these volumes in the Medieval History and Culture series which includes studies on individual works and authors or Latin and vernacular literatures historical personalities and events theological and philosophical issues and new critical approaches to medieval literature and culture International Review of Biblical Studies, Volume 49 (2002-2003) Bernhard Lang, 2004-02-01 Formerly known by its subtitle Internationale Zeitschriftenschau f r Bibelwissenschaft und Grenzgebiete the International Review of Biblical Studies has served the scholarly community ever since its inception in the early 1950 s Each annual volume includes approximately 2 000 abstracts and summaries of articles and books that deal with the Bible and related literature including the Dead Sea Scrolls Pseudepigrapha Non canonical gospels and ancient Near Eastern writings The abstracts which may be in English German or French are arranged thematically under headings such as e g Genesis Matthew Greek language text and textual criticism exegetical methods and approaches biblical theology social and religious institutions biblical personalities history of Israel and early Judaism and so on The articles and books that are abstracted and reviewed are collected annually by an international team of collaborators from over 300 of the most important periodicals and book series in the fields covered Performing Manuscript Culture Elisabeth Kempf, 2016-12-19 This study conceives of Thomas Hoccleve s Regement of Princes 1410 1413 as an essentially performative text one that expresses its awareness of the manuscript culture in which it is so firmly rooted The openness of manuscripts is a recurring subject in the Regement and is not only expressed through mere descriptions of but through complex references to this manuscript context Performances of manuscript culture manifest themselves in several aspects of the text The first is the narrator persona and especially the question of how persona and text are intertwined The second is the constantly recurring interpretation of quotes from authoritative sources that pervades the Regement This urge to interpret is expressed both in the tradition of adding marginal glosses and in the process of subjecting the text to an exegetical reading The third aspect is the relation between text and images in the Regement s manuscripts which shows how mediality is performed and how the manuscript context is made the focus of this performance In this monograph all of these aspects are studied in a mindset that combines the concept of performativity with the postulations of Material Philology Pathos in Late-Medieval Religious Drama and Art Gabriella Mazzon, 2018-05-23 Pathos as Communicative Strategy in Late Medieval Religious Drama and Art explores the strategies employed to trigger emotional responses in late medieval dramatic texts from several Western European traditions and juxtaposes these texts with artistic productions from the same areas with an emphasis on Britain The aim is to unravel the mechanisms through which pathos was produced and employed mainly through the representation of pain and suffering with mainly religious but also political aims The novelty of the book resides in its specific linguistic perspective which highlights the recurrent use of words structures and dialogic patterns in drama to reinforce messages on the salvific value of suffering in synergy with visual messages produced in the same cultural milieu

Darkness, Depression, and Descent in Anglo-Saxon England Ruth Wehlau, 2019-05-20 This collection of essays examines the motifs of darkness depression and descent in both literal and figurative manifestations within a variety of Anglo Saxon texts including the Old English Consolation of Philosophy Beowulf Guthlac The Junius Manuscript The Wonders of the East and The Battle of Maldon Essays deal with such topics as cosmic emptiness descent into the grave and recurrent grief In their analyses the essays reveal the breadth of this imagery in Anglo Saxon literature as it is used to describe thought and emotion as well as the limits to knowledge and perception The volume investigates the intersection between the burgeoning interest in trauma studies and darkness and the representation of the mind or of emotional experience within Anglo Saxon literature

Illuminating Metalwork Joseph Salvatore Ackley, Shannon L. Wearing, 2021-12-20 The presence of gold silver and other metals is a hallmark of decorated manuscripts the very characteristic that makes them illuminated Medieval artists often used metal pigment and leaf to depict metal objects both real and imagined such as chalices crosses tableware and even idols the luminosity of these representations contrasted pointedly with the surrounding paints enriching the page and dazzling the viewer To elucidate this key artistic tradition this volume represents the first in depth scholarly assessment of the depiction of precious metal objects in manuscripts and the media used to conjure them From Paris to the Abbasid caliphate and from Ethiopia to Bruges the case studies gathered here forge novel approaches to the materiality and pictoriality of illumination In exploring the semiotic material iconographic and technical dimensions of these manuscripts the authors reveal the canny ways in which painters generated metallic presence on the page Illuminating Metalwork is a landmark contribution to the study of the medieval book and its visual and embodied reception and is poised to be a staple of research in art history and manuscript studies accessible to undergraduates and specialists alike

The Life Course in Old English Poetry Harriet Soper, 2023-11-29 In the first book length study of the whole lifespan in Old English verse Harriet Soper reveals how poets depicted varied paths through life including their staging of entanglements between human life courses and those of the nonhuman or more than human While Old English poetry sometimes suggests that uniform patterns shape each life paralleling patristic traditions of the ages of man it also frequently disrupts a sense of steady linearity through the life course in striking ways foregrounding moments of sudden upheaval over smooth continuity contingency over predictability and idiosyncrasy over regularity Advancing new readings of a diverse range of Old English poems Soper draws on an array of supporting contexts and theories to illuminate these texts unearthing their complex and fascinating depictions of ageing through life This title is part of the Flip it Open Programme and may also be available Open Access Check our website Cambridge Core for details

Marvel and Artefact A. J. Ford, 2015-11-02 Marvel and Artefact examines the three surviving manuscripts of Wonders of the East London BL Cotton Vitellius A xv London BL Cotton Tiberius B v and Oxford Bodleian Library Bodley 614 After outlining the learned tradition of writing on monsters and marvels and the family of texts of which the Wonders of the East is part A J Ford offers a forensic reading of each manuscript in which codex text and image are studied together as a single artefact By focussing on the materiality of manuscripts whose origin can only be hypothesized this innovative and challenging work opens new vistas for the study and interpretation of medieval manuscripts and the cultures that produced them

Transporting Chaucer Helen Barr, 2015-11-01 This book draws on the work of the British sculptor Antony Gormley alongside more traditional literary scholarship to argue for new relationships between Chaucer's poetry and works by others Chaucer's playfulness with textual history and chronology anticipates how his own work is figured in later and earlier texts Conventional models of source and analogue study are re energised to reveal unexpected and sometimes unsettling literary cohabitations and re placements The author presents innovative readings of relationships between medieval texts and early modern drama and between literary texts and material culture Associations between medieval architecture pilgrim practice manuscript illustration and the soundscapes of dramatic performance reposition how we read Chaucer's oeuvre and what gets made of it An invaluable resource for scholars and students of all levels with an interest in medieval English literary studies and early modern drama Transporting Chaucer offers a new approach to how we encounter texts through time

The East and West in Late Medieval Travel Writings Na Chang, 2024-10-07 This book traces the history of encounter between Eastern and Western cultures by closely examining a body of medieval travel writings penned or related by Europeans and by inhabitants of East Asia Whilst these texts are usually considered in the context of kindred European or Chinese literature this study will make a case for considering them as a common literature of medieval encounters with foreign people For the modern historian writing in a world that so consciously thinks of itself as global these accounts offer a precious lens through which to enter into the world before globalization In particular the book shows that these narratives show the similarity in how Eastern and Western travellers thought and behaved in the face of difference and will show that individuals often held somewhat different views shaped by their particular experience or agendas than those of their government or of local cultural convention

Fathers in Victorian Fiction Natalie McKnight, 2011-08-08 This book examines the changing roles of fathers in the nineteenth century as seen in the lives and fiction of Victorian authors Fatherhood underwent unprecedented change during this period The Industrial Revolution moved work out of the home for many men diminishing contact between fathers and their children Yet fatherhood continued to be seen as the ultimate expression of masculinity and being involved with the lives of one's children was essential to being a good father Conflicting and frustrating expectations of fathers and the growing disillusionment with other paternal authorities such as church and state yielded memorable portrayals of fathers from the best novelists of the age The essays in this volume explore how Victorian authors the Brontës Dickens Gaskell Trollope Eliot Hardy and Elizabeth Sewall and Mary Augusta Ward responded to these tensions in their lives and in their fiction The stern Victorian father cliché persisted but it was countered by imaginative involved albeit faulty fathers and surrogate fathers This volume poses fathering questions that are still relevant today What does it mean to be a good father And with distrust in patriarchal authorities continuing to increase are there any sources of authority left that one can trust

Olde Clerkis Speche William A. Quinn, 2013 Proposes that Troilus was intended for live performance by Chaucer himself and discusses the use of useless to readers words and phrases the different moods of presentation for each book and the implications for contemporary studies of the work

Fatherhood, Authority, and British Reading Culture, 1831-1907 Melissa Shields Jenkins, 2016-04-15 During a period when the idea of fatherhood was in flux and individual fathers sought to regain a cohesive collective identity debates related to a father's authority were negotiated and resolved through competing documents Melissa Shields Jenkins analyzes the evolution of patriarchal authority in nineteenth century culture drawing from extra literary and non narrative source material as well as from novels Arguing that Victorian novelists reinvent patriarchy by recourse to conduct books biography religious manuals political speeches and professional writing in the fields of history and science Jenkins offers interdisciplinary case studies of Elizabeth Gaskell George Meredith William Makepeace Thackeray George Eliot Samuel Butler and Thomas Hardy Jenkins's book contributes to our understanding of the part played by fathers in the Victorian cultural imagination and sheds new light on the structures underlying the Victorian novel

Ideas of Landscape Matthew Johnson, 2008-04-15 Ideas of Landscape discusses the current theory and practice of landscape archaeology and offers an alternative agenda for landscape archaeology that maps more closely onto the established empirical strengths of landscape study and has more contemporary relevance The first historical assessment of a critical period in archaeology Takes as its focus the so called English landscape tradition the ideological underpinnings of which come from English Romanticism via the influence of the father of landscape history W G Hoskins Argues that the strengths and weaknesses of landscape archaeology can be traced back to the underlying theoretical discontents of Romanticism Offers an alternative agenda for landscape archaeology that maps more closely onto the established empirical strengths of landscape study and has more contemporary relevance

Communal Creativity in the Making of the 'Beowulf' Manuscript Simon C. Thomson, 2018-04-17 In Communal Creativity in the Making of the Beowulf Manuscript Simon Thomson analyses details of scribal activity to tell a story about the project that preserved Beowulf as one of a collective if error strewn endeavour and arguing for a date in Cnut's reign He presents evidence for the use of more than three exemplars and at least two artists as well as two scribes making this an intentional and creative re presentation uniting literature religious and heroic in poetry and in prose He goes on to set it in the broader context of manuscript production in late Anglo Saxon England as one example among many of communities using old literature in new ways and of scribes working together making mistakes and learning      Ovid's Art and the Wife of Bath Marilyn Desmond, 2006 In The Blue Eagle at Work Charles J Morris a renowned labor law scholar and preeminent authority on the National Labor Relations Act uncovers a long forgotten feature of that act that offers a new approach to the revitalization of the American labor movement and the institution of collective bargaining He convincingly demonstrates that in private sector nonunion workplaces the Act guarantees that employees have a viable right to engage in collective bargaining through a minority union on a members only basis As a result of this startling breakthrough American labor relations may never again be the same Morris s underlying thesis is based on a meticulous analysis of statutory and decisional law and exhaustive historical research The Blue Eagle at Work which is clear and accessible to general readers as well as specialists is an essential tool for labor union officials and organizers human resource professionals in management attorneys practicing in the field of labor and employment law teachers and students of labor law and industrial relations and concerned workers and managers who desire to understand the law that governs their relationship Book Jacket

Speculative Grammar and Stoic Language Theory in Medieval Allegorical Narrative Jeffrey Bardzell, 2010-07 In this study Bardzell unveils the way signification in medieval allegorical narrative depends not on Aristotelian theories of language but rather on an alternative theory of language which began with the Stoics and was transmitted through the Middle Ages via grammar theory      The Water Supply System of Siena, Italy Michael P. Kucher, 2020-10-28 The book reviews scholarly literature and archival sources including maps and diagrams to better situate Siena s achievement in urban history and broadens our understanding of medieval technology and urban life

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
