Ginsberg ... editor-in-chief.). ,1969      Catalogue of English Bible Translations William J. Chamberlin, 1991-12-10 While other Bible catalogs are available this comprehensive reference book is destined to become the standard in the field Chamberlin's one volume work traces the publication history of multiple editions of Bible translations and offers valuable descriptive annotations The catalog not only includes complete Bibles but also Old and New Testaments partial texts commentaries that include translations children's Bibles Apocryphal writings and the Koran as well Other bibliographies are usually limited to editions commonly found in academic libraries but Chamberlin's guide also includes Bibles found in private collections Overall this catalogue contains more than five times as many entries of different English translations as two other Bible bibliographies those by Hill and Herbert combined The entries are grouped in 151 categories and within each category entries are listed in chronological order The accompanying annotations identify the translator and provide an overview of the contents of each work The detailed indexes make this bibliography a convenient tool for researchers Bible scholars collectors and rare book dealers will find this catalogue a necessary addition to their libraries      Jonah Susan Niditch, 2023-01-03 In the new Hermeneia volume the Jonah translation and commentary renowned biblical scholar Susan Niditch encourages the reader to investigate challenging questions about ancient conceptions of personal religious identity Jonah's story is treated as a complex reflection upon the heavy matters of life and death good and evil and human and divine relations The narrative probes an individual's relationship with a demanding deity considers vexing cultural issues of us versus them and examines the role of Israel's god in a universal and international context The author examines the ways in which Jonah prods readers to contemplate these fundamental issues concerning group and self definition In her technical study of Jonah's language style structure content and context Niditch examines the text through the comparative lens of international folklore The thread of appropriations of Jonah by post biblical writers and artists is explored and special attention is paid to rabbinic midrash medieval Jewish manuscript illuminations and Christian art of late antiquity And in the tradition of Hermeneia volumes the commentary evaluates and incorporates the insights of a long legacy of scholars who have explored this venerable text from varied perspectives      Against the Apocalypse David G. Roskies, 1999-12-01 Against the Apocalypse explores how Jewish communities have historically responded to catastrophe particularly through literature memory and cultural traditions The book examines the resilience and creativity of Jewish writers and thinkers in the face of destruction from ancient times to the Holocaust Roskies delves into themes of mourning survival and the refusal to surrender offering a scholarly yet deeply moving analysis of Jewish responses to historical trauma      On the Way to Canon Magne Sæbø, 1997-01-01 In this collection of essays many of them here published in English for the first time the distinguished Norwegian Old Testament scholar Magne Sæbø investigates the complex and variegated history of traditions constituting the literature of the Old Testament Professor S3 4b provides tradition historical studies of particular texts such as the revelation of God's name in Exodus and passages presenting the early preaching of Isaiah and of particular theological themes such as the priestly theology in the Pentateuch and the relation of apocalyptic to prophecy and wisdom as well as more wide ranging considerations of the significance of tradition history in Old Testament studies The focus is on the diverse and creative development of the traditions and on the final transition from pluriformity to canonical unity In

Conversation with Jonah Raymond F. Person, 1996-01-01 The Epistle of Second Baruch Mark Whitters, 2003-05-01 2 Baruch is one of the more important apocalyptic writings among the Jewish Pseudepigrapha written at the end of the 1st century AD and so contemporary with the New Testament The Epistle is a message to the Jews of the Dispersion Whitters is arguing that the document was once an authoritative text for a specific community and gives us clues about the important era between the two Jewish wars of 70 and 132 AD when Judaism was assuming radical new forms This Epistle tells Diaspora Jews how to live in a world without the Jerusalem Temple Perspectives on the Song of Songs / Perspektiven der Hoheliedauslegung Anselm C. Hagedorn, 2012-02-13 The collection of essays contains nineteen contributions that aim at locating the Song of Songs in its ancient context as well as addressing problems of interpretation and the reception of this biblical book in later literature In contrast to previous studies this work devotes considerable attention to parallels from the Greek world without neglecting the Ancient Near East or Egypt Several contributions deal with the use of the Song in Byzantine Medieval German Romantic and modern Greek Literature Due to the interdisciplinary nature of the collection new perspectives and avenues of approach are opened Vain Rhetoric Gary D. Salyer, 2001-06-01 The Book of Ecclesiastes like many ancient and modern first person discourses generates ambivalent responses in its readers The book's rhetorical strategy produces both acceptance of and suspicion towards the major positions argued by the author Vain rhetoric aptly describes the persuasive and dissuasive properties of the narrator's peculiar characterization It also describes how the Book of Ecclesiastes with its abundant use of rhetorical questions constant gapping techniques and other strategies from the arsenal of ambiguity is a stunning testimony to the power of the various strategies of indirection to communicate to the reader something of his or her own rhetorical liabilities and limitations as well as those of the religious community in general
