Hello God Am I Getting Through:

Hi, God. It's Me Again. Julia Taves, 2014-10-29 Kids have questions and need answers They look to each other for self esteem friendship entertainment and even help for understanding larger concepts Why not allow children to look to other mature children for help in applying God s Word When kids see other kids affected by God s Word and making a difference they understand and are inspired for life change Relating and connecting to another child opens doors into the heart of a child s issues and most importantly into the heart of God Hi God It s Me Again is a devotional book written from a wide spectrum of kids who are living out the Gospels through applying God s Word and sharing that with others These devotions are a valuable tool to inspire children from ages eight to twelve and to allow God to make a difference through them just as He has done through the lives of similar children

Hey, God! What Went Wrong and When Are You Going to Fix It? Samuel D. G. Heath, 2009-05 Awarded an American Legion Scholarship I am also an award winning author and have published numerous articles and books Having attended several colleges and universities eventually earning my Ph D in Human Behavior I hold several life credentials in education earned during many years as an educator together with years spent working in the Aerospace Industry and other occupations But to call Einstein s famous equation $E=MC^2$ incomplete because it does not account for life and death does seem quite extraordinary yet these remain the two greatest mysteries they have ever been denying us thus far a theory of everything The title of this book Hey God What went wrong and when are You going to fix it is a perfectly legitimate question and one that often comes to the minds of most of us We know something animates life and departs with death but what this something is not all our science has yet discovered though things like the Large Hadron Collider may provide needed insight and it has been in the pursuit of knowledge about these two greatest mysteries that has compelled me into so many varied academic studies and careers attempting to make sense of the world and our place in it and how people think and deal with the issues of life and death philosophically religiously and politically The things I have discovered along the way compelled me to much research and speculation about these mysteries and how they impact our lives to communicate my thoughts about them to others But there are many things some of them terribly wrong which we wish God would intervene and set right and question why He does not Some years ago I removed from the greater part of society to live in semi seclusion alone with my books and thoughts in a quiet part of the Sequoia National Forest devoting myself to contemplation speculating about many things and committing my thoughts in writing fulltime As a writer and author given to much introspection and fascinated by human behavior nature and our universe it was important to me to simplify my life as much as possible as anyone given to philosophical speculation about many things must That much of my writing covers some metaphysical thoughts about God angels and demons an afterlife and Biblical stories of origins of prophecies of the End Times and so much more have been absorbing studies as well and I freely share my thoughts about these in this volume

Get Over It and On with It Michelle McKinney Hammond, 2009-02-04 We all have dreams and expectations of life But life is unpredictable No matter what we do or how we live we are certain to encounter trials and setbacks frustrations and real suffering The question is how are we to respond when we are blindsided by troubles What can we do when life knocks the wind out of us If you re like most people when hardship hits you can think of countless situations you d rather be in Yet the secret of making it through is in learning how to make right choices and thrive in the middle of difficulty In Get Over It and On with It outspoken Bible teacher Michelle McKinney Hammond finds contemporary application in the ancient stories of several men and women who took the path from suffering to overcoming Their journeys teach us how to press through hardship and get to the other side of our disappointment Hey, God John Barr,2012-07-25 Hey God! Frank Foglio,2011-06-20 Mama Foglio her cantankerous husband and ten rambunctious kids were poor In fact they were so poor that the poor people called them poor Then one day the Lord burst into their lives in the form of another equally poor equally large and tumultuous Italian American family who stormed into their home and evangelized them mano a mano your gut heart brain and soul If yes Then you only may know the reasons and need to share with the world The protagonist talks to God in this way only Why To know you need to travel into virtual world of the protagonist That'S the Spirit Bettie Linke,2010-09-13 Memoirs and happenings of life in central New Jersey begins in the 1930s drawing the reader to look at the good old days The non fiction stories show a picture of family living in the small town of Jamesburg Included in the collection are innovative humorous chapters about the ever loved situations of the Mr and the Mrs holiday pieces that introduce the Christmas Mouse and Mr Snowman These stories have delighted her faithful supporters for over 20 years Many pieces include a Norwegian accent and an assortment of writing styles Recalling the past proves nostalgia is worth saving worth the surprise Is this the Best God Could Do? Sarah Tirri,2011-03-03 Is This the Best God Could Do nonfiction approximately 115 000 words was born of a crisis of faith of the most cruel kind the loss of my mother who lingered on the brink death for five weeks and that is where the book begins I was living the American dream a happy wife and mother and by most measures charmed and then she died suffering terribly in the process in spite of my ardent prayers Like many in this position I felt that God had let me down but once my grief passed I realized that the God of traditional Christianity keeps us in thrall by fear and guilt by insisting we are small when we are really quite big beings When the World Trade Center collapsed I also realized that the end of the world might well be upon us because it is a self fulfilling prophecy brought about by the zealot believers in the Abrahamic religions fear carried to an illogical extreme This epiphany made me angry Is This the Best God Could Do is also the result of that anger However although the topic is obviously deadly serious I debunk the warped monotheism of the Big Three with humor and wit as well as reasonable albeit edgy argument What follows the section in which I recount the loss of my mother and the realization that the Abrahamic version of God has been messing with us for a couple thousand years is part dialogue with that big guy picture Groucho Marx as interlocutor Hi God of Christianity Sarah here I can appreciate your dilemma I really can But the next time one of your angels gets out of hand please try to take care of the problem instead of making it one of ours part personal history and part reasoned deconstruction But the conclusion I reach about religion does not amount to an advocacy of atheism Although the monotheistic God is discounted as a manmade thing one used to control us I also argue against the godless scientism of Richard Dawkins The God Delusion Sam Harris Letter to a Christian Nation and Christopher Hitchens God is Not Great In fact I argue against this limited perception of human being as a random function of extraneous forces in favor of a more profound participation of humans in reality leading to a profound spiritual transformation on the part of individuals and eventually all of humanity I also argue for a kind of pandemic version of the dramatic wake up effect Eckart Tolle s concept from A New Earth I experienced when my mother died The human race indeed the very planet is going through extraordinary changes all cause for great alarm among the monotheists as the beginning of the end I insist in Is This the Best God Could Do that on the contrary our situation is karmically inevitable and the dire straits in which we find ourselves an invitation to spiritual growth and thereby a renewal of civilization I also call for those born to relative wealth the American populace in general but also most of the Western world to accept responsibility for charting the way forward because it is easier to evolve beyond the traditional notions of religion when one's belly is full and one is warm and dry But Is This the Best God Could Do is not just a polemic about the medieval grip of fundamentalism that holds humans back from the self awareness necessary to find a way forward through the difficulties of history to an enlightened way of life the book also charts the path I offer guidance to the reader for achieving the kind of awareness that allows them to hear God's voice and to participate in the world as an active agent instead of being just a passive believer to understand the magnitude of our spiritual reality Although my book is utterly unique in its mixture of elements the strident debunking of monotheism the hopeful recognition of the bigness of humans as spiritual beings to stand in opposition to the smallness of fear and guilt a hope filled recipe for saving us from ourselves and memoir

Is God Real? Prove It! Pam Antoun, 2018-04-23 How do you know God is real Is it just a mere feeling or a hope Or is there something more you can point to that proves you are fearfully and wonderfully made in the image of a loving and majestic God in heaven In Is God Real Prove It two young Christian children Amanda and Josiah are confronted with this very challenge Nine year old Gavin has a difficult past that fuels his cynical attitude toward God and church he craves love acceptance and meaning but he struggles with distrust When he sees Amanda and Josiah showing enthusiasm for an upcoming church event he's floored anyone could happily attend church or believe in God As Amanda and Josiah answer Gavin another curious quick witted schoolmate Sophia joins in questioning only she sees something different in Josiah and Amanda's warmth and a peace that she desires for herself Both Gavin and Sophia believe they are fine living without God Can Amanda and Josiah stand their ground without shaking their faith in God Even more can they share their faith and help their friends embrace the good news
