Yesterday, When I Was Young Frances Winfield Miles,2009-08-14 The collection of poems was written when the author now a senior citizen was a young woman The poems are about racism the civil rights era sex love self introspection youthful struggles and Black America At once eloquent noble and majestic as well as hip sassy and earthy the poems embody and reveal the authors versatility in speaking and writing in many voices The book of poems is for everyone every race class and age and for every mood The poems reveal the authors ability to speak in a voice as majestic as great poets as seen in In the Garden and God Bless the Child and as earthy as blues singers as seen in Go on Man and Git The provocative poem You Will Rise One Morning gives a unique and poetic insight into the creation of Black and White youth The eloquently sensual poem First Love is rich in language and imagery The author describes the early days of the silent protest of the men and women of all walks of life who marched for human rights during the civil rights era as seen in Shell Rise in Jubilee The poem summons White America to look deeply into her soul and discover new ways of thinking about the racial issue and ways of winning this moral victory She writes succinctly passionately and profoundly in the brief messages in The Earth Stood Still Twin Vices The Looking Glass and One Moment in Time The book describes the joys and sorrows of the universal feelings of love She gives advice to young people in their youthful struggles for coping with life and discovering the meaning of life This is expressed in the poems How Do You Make It That's Life Problems and You Can Do It In the section Just Shuckin and Jivin the author shows her ability to get down to earth and speak in a hip and sassy voice The author takes a satirical look at Black America through the fictional characters in the section Portraits in Black America The characterizations are stinging noble witty and humorous The characters in this section represent two classes the affluent who live on Sugar Hill and the poor who live in Mud Town On Sugar Hill we meet the Uncle Tom college president the pillar of society who has a romantic rendezvous with a young man soon after her beloved husband dies the high school teacher who seduces his favorite student the interracial couple the honorable attorney who can't get elected to office and the dreamer who dreamed of holding political office Across the way is Mud Town where we meet the maids and their white employers some of whom are good and some bad There's Deacon John who lives a double life one holy and one sinful Don't forget Ms Tittie Boo the sexpot In both Sugar Hill and Mud Town we meet characters who are honorable and dishonorable just as it is with life Through her poetry the author has earned a place among the great truth tellers of our time

Hi My name is Jesse and I'm in the twilight zone between being a kid and maturing into a young lady Maturing can be hard on a person and I'd just as soon not grow up I'd rather have the world conform to me rather than the other way around I would've been lost without my Gramma I spent summer vacations with her but this past summer when I was fourteen was a doozy When life got messed up she guided me with patience and love Her heart was big enough not only for me but for my friends adventures and problems too It's like she remembered when she was fourteen and faced the same stuff we did We may not be popular according to worldly standards but our daily walk is more secure and we have peace and hope despite what life throws at us because we don't walk alone Jesus is always with us So I might seem weird compared to others my age but I enjoy quiet time at the picnic table being with the Lord as we enjoy the symphony of songs from the birds I want to grow up to be like Grams and have a grandchild I can love into wisdom and truth establishing strong roots at my own picnic table
