Weiss, 2023-04-04 The Grand Challenges for Social Work GCSW provides an agenda for society and for the social work profession. The 13 GCSW have been codified by the American Academy of Social Work and Social Welfare and are emerging as a significant underpinning in the education of undergraduate and graduate social work students throughout the USA. This volume serves as a guide as to how this can best be achieved in alignment with the 2022 Educational Policy and Accreditation Standards EPAS from the Council of Social Work Education. Divided into four parts: Individual and Family Well Being; Stronger Social Fabric; A Just Society; The Grand Challenges in the Field. Each chapter introduces a Grand Challenge, situates it within the curricula and provides teaching practices in one of the targeted domains as well as learning objectives, class exercises and discussions. By showing how to facilitate class discussion, manage difficult conversations and address diversity, equity and inclusion as part of teaching the topic, this book will be of interest to all faculty teaching at both undergraduate and graduate levels. It should be noted that there are additional supplementary chapters beyond the 13 GCSW that provide further context for the reader.

Trauma-Informed Care in Social Work Education Lea Tufford, Arielle Dylan, 2025-03-28 Structured and informed by social justice orientations, this essential volume explores how trauma-informed care can be integrated in all aspects of social work education. This handbook incorporates a critical and ecologically focused lens with an emphasis on resilience, healing and strengths-based approaches. With contributions from over 60 experts in the field of social work education, psychology and counselling, this comprehensive book provides current understandings of how trauma manifests in the lived experience of social work students. The book begins by introducing why trauma-informed care is needed in social work and addresses the reality of historical trauma. Each chapter views the social work student at the center of the educational journey and considers how trauma can shape experiences in various settings such as the classroom, curriculum, field, educational policy and community involvement and support services. Chapters cover topics such as the neuroscience of trauma, poverty, disability
