The Immanence of Truths Alain Badiou,2022-05-19 The Being and Event trilogy is the philosophical basis of Alain Badiou s entire oeuvre It is formed of three major texts which constitute a kind of metaphysical saga Being and Event 1988 Logics of the Worlds 2006 and finally The

Immanence of Truths which he has been working on for 15 years The new volume reverses the perspective adopted in Logics of Worlds Where in that book Badiou saw fit to analyze how truths qua events appear from the perspective of particular worlds that by definition exclude them in The Immanence of Truths Badiou asks instead how the irruption of truths transforms the worlds within which they by necessity must arise An emphasis on regularity and continuity has given way to an attempt one unquestionable in its philosophical power and implications to formalize rupture and reconfiguration The Being and Event trilogy is a unique and ambitious work that reveals how truths can be at once context specific and universal situational and eternal

Money Émile Zola, 2014-03 Money centres on the figure of Aristide Rougon known as Saccard and his unscrupulous money making schemes His story intertwines the worlds of politics finance and the press and resonates disturbingly with our own times This is the first new translation for more than a hundred years and the first unabridged translation in English

The Golden Pot and Other Tales E. T. A. Hoffmann, 2008-09-11 Hoffmann is among the greatest and most popular of the German Romantics This selection while stressing the variety of his work puts in the foreground those tales in which the real and the supernatural are brought into contact and conflict The humour of these tales is a result of the incongruity of supernatural beings at large in an ostentatiously everyday world They include The Golden Pot recognized as Hoffmann's masterpiece by himself and posterity its spine chilling companion tale The Sandman which Offenbach drew on for his opera Tales of Hoffmann and which Freud examines in his essay The Uncanny two longer and more elaborate fantasies set respectively in Germany and Italy and the late story My Cousin's Corner Window which shows the powers of the imagination being applied to everyday urban life and marks a transition in European literature generally from Romanticism to Realism Ritchie Robertson's detailed introduction places the stories in their intellectual and historical context and explores their compelling narrative complexities

Pot Luck (Pot-Bouille) Émile Zola, 2009-01-29 Zola's most acerbic social satire Pot Luck is set in a newly constructed block of flats in the Rue de Choiseul Paris Although it seems a place of prosperity and harmony it is riddled with snobbery and hypocrisy Systematically exposing the contradictions that pervade bourgeois life Zola reveals a multitude of adulteries and betrayals and depicts a veritable melting pot of moral and sexual degeneracy This new translation captures the directness and robustness of Zola's language and restores the omissions of earlier abridged versions

Waverley Walter Scott, 2015-04-09 the most romantic parts of this narrative are precisely those which have a foundation in fact Edward Waverley a young English soldier in the Hanoverian army is sent to Scotland where he finds himself caught up in events that quickly transform from the stuff of romance into nightmare His character is fashioned through his experience of the Jacobite rising of 1745

the last civil war fought on British soil and the unsuccessful attempt to reinstate the Stuart monarchy represented by Prince Charles Edward Waverley's love for the spirited Flora MacIvor and his romantic nature increasingly pull him towards the Jacobite cause and test his loyalty to the utmost With Waverley Scott invented the historical novel in its modern form and profoundly influenced the development of the European and American novel for a century at least Waverley asks the reader to consider how history is shaped who owns it and what it means to live in it questions as vital at the beginning of the twenty-first century as the nineteenth ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World's Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford's commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more The Girl with the Golden Eyes and Other Stories Honoré de Balzac, 2012-11-08 The three short fictions in this unique collection Sarrasine The Unknown Masterpiece and The Girl with the Golden Eyes deal with the relationship between artistic ideals and sexual desires They show Balzac's mastery of the seductions of storytelling and are among the 19th century's richest explorations of life and art Critical Forms Ross Wilson, 2023 Critical Forms is an account of the generic forms in which literary criticism has been undertaken It examines literary criticism from around 1750 to the present and examines prefaces selections and anthologies reviews lectures dialogues letters and life writing
