First Season Lucy Muir, 2013-09-30 Henrietta Biddle's first season was not going well. She made all the social mistakes a country miss could and handsome Lord Wakeford, though he found her faux pas almost endearing, cynically commented on her various failings. Hetty was an heiress and determined to turn herself into an Original. His lordship would find that this country miss had something to teach him about love.

With an impeccable attention to detail and a keen insight into human relationships, James delves into themes of morality, social status, and the inner workings of the human mind. Pauline Betty Keller, 2015-11-03 Brought up in a strict and sheltered household, the daughter of a Mohawk chief and a non-native woman, Pauline Johnson struggled to make an independent life for herself. She found it as a poet and performer whose dramatic recitals skirted the boundaries of what was acceptable to respectable Canadian society. Her performances took her from the backwoods of British Columbia's gold country to the drawing rooms of England. Onstage, she assumed the role of an Indian princess, while in her personal life, she observed Victorian moral strictures all the while falling regularly and desperately into unrequited love. Pauline is the fascinating story of a charismatic woman whose struggles with culture and identity still engage us today.
