If Two Were One:

A Poetics of Resistance Jeff Conant, 2010-08-01 Part literary criticism part media analysis and part marketing handbook A Poetics of Resistance provides a refreshingly new take on the Zapatistas While much has been written on the history of the Zapatista insurgency and on the communiqués of Subcomandante Marcos very little has been said about Zapatismo the ideologies organizing methodologies and communications strategies of the movement The appeal of the Zapatistas and their survival has as much to do with their goals as with the compelling and wildly effective language and aesthetics they've used to convey their vision Weaving together varied elements of poetics and symbolism Zapatismo has emerged as something entirely new a resolutely radical public relations campaign for human liberation The first postmodern revolution presented itself to the world through a complex and evolving web of propaganda using a wide range of media the colorful communiqués of Marcos the ski masks uniforms toy dolls and other accoutrements of the insurgent or sympathizer and murals songs and other popular cultural forms Employing persuasive publicity myths and symbols the Zapatistas both communicated their message and developed a clear aesthetic that could contain many messages at once and self replicate on a global scale Jeff Conant offers an engaging and innovative tool for organizers and educators to understand how the Zapatistas strategy works and to continue developing and refining their effective messages of participatory bottom up revolution Jeff Conant is a writer and activist in the San Francisco Bay Area and the author of A Community Guide to Environmental Health The Puritans in America Alan Heimert, Andrew Delbanco, 2009-07-01 In a felicitous blend of documents and narrative Heimert and Delbanco recapture the sweep and restless change of Puritan thought from its incipient Americanism through its dominance in New England society to its fragmentation in the face of dissent from within and without An Exposition of the Old and New Testament Matthew Henry, 1856 An Exposition of All the Books of the Old and New Testaments: ..., 1810 The Puritans Perry Miller, Thomas H. Johnson, 2014-09-22 Critically acclaimed compilation includes writings by William Bradford Increase Mather William Hubbard Anne Bradstreet and other influential figures The best selection ever made of Puritan literature historian Samuel Eliot Morison The Works of Anne Bradstreet in Prose and Verse Anne Bradstreet, 1867 The Quotable Founding Fathers Buckner F. Melton, 2014-05-27 No group is quoted and misquoted more often than America's founders When a political controversy heats up the nation's speechwriters politicians reporters editorial writers and talking heads try to influence the debate by quoting their words Year in and year out teachers and political buffs look to their wisdom to illuminate the issues How much easier it would be to find every key quote by the founders in a single source The Quotable Founding Fathers edited by Buckner F. Melton Jr provides just that source a compilation of some 2,500 quotes summing up the wit and wisdom of the founders While some of these quotations can be found in general quotation compilations such as Bartlett's these volumes offer only a fraction of what's available The Quotable Founding Fathers mines deeper into the founders' essays diaries letters speeches and sermons to extract all the nuggets that are significant to the history of the country and to the ongoing debate about the meaning of democracy in America

The Retrospect of Practical Medicine and Surgery William Braithwaite, James Braithwaite, Edmond Fauriel Trevelyan, 1863 Being an analysis of the British and foreign medical journals and transactions or a selection of the latest discoveries and most practical observations in the practice of medicine surgery and the collateral sciences for the past year made chiefly with reference to the treatment of disease

The Retrospect of Practical Medicine and Surgery, 1863

God and Women J Kohn D. Garr, 2011-02-16 Since time immemorial women have been the most consistently and universally abused people group on Planet Earth as men in virtually every human culture have systematically unrelentingly and often violently dominated women Unfortunately women of faith have also been virtually bound in chains of submission and gagged by demands for silence since the end of the apostolic era God and Women brings serious biblical and historical scholarship to bear on the role of women in family society and church in an analysis of God's original intentions for women and for men at the moment when he created humanity Whether you are a woman or a man this book and the other volumes in this series will literally set you free challenging you to think and to act on divine truths from the Hebraic foundations of your faith You will clearly see God's original design and intent for women and you will start tearing down prison walls that have deprived half of God's children of the freedom to pursue his gifts and calling in the family in the society and especially in the community of faith

New Woman Fiction, 1881-1899, Part II vol 5 Carolyn W de la L Oulton, Adrienne E Gavin, SueAnn Schatz, Vybarr Cregan-Reid, 2017-09-29 Covers four texts from the 1890s that helped to crystallize the idea of the New Woman during a period where the role of women was increasingly debated and challenged not least due to the growth of the suffrage movement

Healing, Performance and Ceremony in the Writings of Three Early Modern Physicians: Hippolytus Guarinonius and the Brothers Felix and Thomas Platter M.A. Katritzky, 2016-12-05 While the writings of early modern medical practitioners habitually touch on performance and ceremony few illuminate them as clearly as the Protestant physicians Felix Platter and Thomas Platter the Younger who studied in Montpellier and practiced in their birth town of Basle or the Catholic physician Hippolytus Guarinonius who was born in Trent trained in Padua and practiced in Hall near Innsbruck During his student years and brilliant career as early modern Basle's most distinguished municipal court and academic physician Felix Platter built up a wide network of private religious and aristocratic patients His published medical treatises and private journal record his professional encounters with them as a healer They also offer numerous vivid accounts of theatrical events experienced by Platter as a scholar student and gifted semi professional musician and during his Grand Tour and long medical career Here Felix Platter's accounts many unavailable in translation are examined together with relevant extracts from the journals of his younger brother Thomas Platter and Guarinonius's medical and religious treatises Thomas Platter is known to Shakespeare scholars as the Swiss Grand Tourist who recorded a 1599 London performance of Julius Caesar and Guarinonius's descriptions of quack performances represent the earliest substantial written record of commedia dell'arte lazzi or comic stage business These three physicians records of ceremony festival theatre and marketplace diversions are examined in detail with particular emphasis on the reactions of respectable medical practitioners to healing performers and the performance of healing Taken as a whole their writings contribute to our understanding of many aspects of European theatrical culture and its complex interfaces with early modern healthcare in carnival and other routine manifestations of the Christian festive year in the extraordinary performance and ceremony of court festivals and above all in the rarely welcomed intrusions of quacks and other itinerant performers The Dialogues of Plato B.

Sitrin,2012-09-13 In the wake of the global financial crisis new forms of social organization are beginning to take shape Disparate groups of people are coming together in order to resist corporate globalization and seek a more positive way forward These movements are not based on hierarchy rather than looking to those in power to solve their problems participants are looking to one another In certain countries in the West this has been demonstrated by the recent and remarkable rise of the Occupy movement But in Argentina such radical transformations have been taking place for years Marina Sitrin tells the story of how regular people changed their country and inspired others across the world Reflecting on new forms of social organization such as horizontalism and autogesti n as well as alternative conceptions of value and power Marina Sitrin shows how an economic crisis spurred a people s rebellion how factory workers and medical clinic technicians are running their workplaces themselves without bosses how people have taken over land to build homes raise livestock grow crops and build schools creating their own art and media in the process Daring and groundbreaking Sitrin shows how the experiences of the autonomous movements in Argentina can help answer the question of how to turn a rupture into a revolution The Works of Jonathan Swift Jonathan Swift,D. Hunting in Kangerlussuaq, East Greenland, 1951-1991 An Asessment of Local Knowledge Christian Martin Glahder,1995 What Is It Then between Us? Eric Murphy Selinger,2018-10-18 Tracing the solitude of the American self the difference between idolatrous and companionate affection and the dream of an America of love Eric Murphy Selinger shows how such concerns can shape a poet s most intimate decisions about genre and form His lucid elegant prose illuminates not only well known love poets including Emily Dickinson and William Carlos Williams but also more unexpected figures notably Wallace Stevens and Mina Loy Like the poets he discusses Selinger refuses to view love reductively Rather he takes the impulse to debunk love as part of his subject whether it crops up in Puritan theology or contemporary literary theory As he details Whitman s courtship of his readers weighs the restorations of romance in H D and Ezra Pound and demonstrates the bonds between poets as disparate as Robert Creeley and Robert Lowell Selinger establishes love poetry as an essential American genre

Totemism, Tattoo and Fetishism as Forms of Sign Language Gerald

Massey,2008-11-01 So ancient was Totemism in Egypt that the Totems of the human Mothers had become the signs of Goddesses in whom the head of the beast was blended with the figure of the human female The Totems of the human Mothers had attained the highest status as Totems of a Motherhood that was held to be divine the Motherhood in Nature which was elemental in its origin from Totemism Tattoo and Fetishism as Forms of Sign Language It goes unappreciated by modern Egyptologists but it is embraced by those who savor the concept of a hidden history of humanity and those who approach all human knowledge from the perspective of the esoteric Gerard Massey s massive Ancient Egypt The Light of the World first published in 1907 and the crowning achievement of the self taught scholar redefines the roots of Christianity via Egypt proposing that Egyptian mythology was the basis for Jewish and Christian beliefs Here Cosimo proudly presents Book 2 of Ancient Egypt in which Massey reads the prehistoric story of human civilization that can be studied in the language of ceremonial rites ancient customs and ritual dance and consequently explores the resultant concept that religion evolved out of expressions of human fertility and sexuality particularly as embodied in the primeval symbols of blood sacrifice and motherhood and formed the first influences on Judeo Christianity Peculiar and profound this work will intrigue and delight readers of history religion and mythology British author GERALD MASSEY 1828 1907 published works of poetry spiritualism Shakespearean criticism and theology but his best known works are in the realm of Egyptology including A Book of the Beginnings and The Natural Genesis
