

IF I WERE

In the phrase "If I were" , were is the subjunctive form of the verb be. It is used in hypothetical or imaginary situations to say what you would do if they were true, or to give someone advice about what you'd do if you were in their place.

- If I were you, I'd probably go. / I'd take the money if I were you.
- If I were in charge, I'd do things differently.

Technically speaking 'If I was you ...' is incorrect when used to talk about unreal situations, at least in formal speech and writing. However, it is quite common to hear native speakers use it.
