Evaluating Literacy:

Evaluating Literacy Instruction Rachael E. Gabriel, Richard L. Allington, 2017-09-19 This must read book for all literacy educators illuminates the intersection of research on literacy instruction and teacher evaluation Since 2009 46 states have changed or revised policies related to evaluating teachers and school leaders In order for these new policies to be used to support and develop effective literacy instruction resources are needed that connect the best of what is known about teaching literacy with current evaluation policies and support practices A major contribution to meeting this need the volume brings together a range of perspectives on tools systems and policies for the evaluation of teaching organized into two sections Crafting Systems and Policies for Evaluating Literacy Instruction Examples of Alternative Systems Approaches for Evaluating Literacy Instruction Across the text expert scholars in the field emphasize the need for literacy professionals to do more than merely apply generic observation instruments for teacher evaluation but also to consider how these tools reflect professional values how elements of effective literacy instruction can be unearthed or included within them and how teacher evaluation systems and policies can be used to increase students opportunities to develop literacy Evaluating Literacy, 1992

Understanding and Using Reading Assessment, K-12 Peter Afflerbach, 2017-12-20 Why do we assess reading What do we assess when we assess reading How where and when do we assess reading Reading instruction and assessment expert Peter Afflerbach addresses these questions and much more in the 3rd edition of Understanding and Using Reading Assessment K 12 Using the CURRV model to evaluate reading assessment methods including reading inventories teacher questioning performance assessment and high stakes reading tests Afflerbach considers the consequences and usefulness of each method the roles and responsibilities of key stakeholders and the reliability and validity of the assessments In addition he examines four important but often overlooked aspects of reading assessment Assessment accommodation for English language learners and students with special needs Assessment of noncognitive aspects of reading such as motivation engagement self concept and self efficacy The use of formative and summative assessment The importance of self assessment in building reading independence The book provides detailed case studies from all grade levels to illustrate reading assessment done well It also includes 15 reproducible forms and checklists that teachers and administrators can use to optimize their reading assessment efforts Students are expected to read increasingly complex texts and to complete increasingly complex reading related tasks to demonstrate their growth as readers This book offers teachers and administrators alike a clear path to helping students meet those expectations This book is a co publication of ASCD and ILA New to the 3rd edition New chapter Formative and Summative Assessment Three significantly revised chapters Performance Assessment Assessment Accommodation for English Learners and Students With Special Needs Accommodation and Reading Assessment in 2nd edition Assessing the Other Important Noncognitive Aspects of Reading Fifteen reproducible and downloadable forms and checklists Evaluating "literacy for Development" Projects, Programs, and Campaigns H. S.

Bhola, Unesco Institute for Education, 1990 This book presents a comprehensive treatment of the subject of evaluation as applied to literacy programs covering evaluation theory planning and practice Part I discusses questions of definition context objectives and functions of evaluation and presents descriptions and analyses of evaluation paradigms and models In Part II the interrelated processes of evaluation planning and management are discussed and evaluation planning and management approaches are explained and demonstrated Parts III IV and V focus on the three components of the evaluation management approach discussed in Part II management information systems MIS naturalistic evaluation NE and rationalistic evaluation RE Chapters in these parts cover 1 theory questions and design of an MIS NE or RE 2 writing a proposal for an MIS or for an evaluation study in the naturalistic or rationalistic mode 3 tools and techniques of the three approaches and 4 writing periodical and special reports Part VI discusses the politics of evaluation the need to establish evaluation standards for meta evaluations and the related question of evaluators training A glossary is appended YLB Making Assessment Matter Nonie K. Lesaux, Sky H. Marietta, 2012-01-01 All too often literacy assessments are given only for accountability purposes and fail to be seen as valuable resources for planning and differentiating instruction This clear concise book shows K 5 educators how to implement a comprehensive balanced assessment battery that integrates accountability concerns with data driven instruction Teachers learn to use different types of test scores to understand and address students specific learning needs The book features an in depth case example of a diverse elementary school that serves many struggling readers and English language learners Reproducible planning and progress monitoring forms can be downloaded and printed in a convenient 8 1/2 x 11 size Provided by publisher Evaluation Models D.L. Stufflebeam, George F. Madaus, T. Kellaghan, 2005-12-19 This is an up to date revision of the classic text first published in 1983 It includes a historical perspective on the growth of evaluation theory and practice and two comparative analyses of the various alternative perspectives on evaluation It also includes articles representing the major schools of thought about evaluation written by the leaders who have developed these schools and models The final section describes and discusses the Standards for Program Evaluation and the reformation of program evaluation Learning to Assess Christopher DeLuca, Jill Willis, Bronwen Cowie, Christine Harrison, Andrew Coombs, 2024-01-01 This book presents a new framework for how teachers develop their assessment capacity based on a multi year study conducted in four countries Australia Canada England and New Zealand which focused on student teacher learning in assessment throughout their initial teacher education programs It examines how teacher learning is shaped by the complex dynamics of assessment capacity within larger teacher education contexts The framework proposed here identifies four domains involved in cultivating assessment capacity and characterizes assessment learning as always integrating cognitive philosophical and moral dimensions with assessment s social emotional and physical dimensions while recognizing that each capacity is continually shaped by the learning context The book draws on the survey of teacher education programs in each of the four focal countries and data from student teachers to shed light on how the various pedagogies program structures and policies encountered provide beginning teachers with codes for classifying and framing assessment capacity and form a template for developing this capacity throughout their careers Offering suggestions for future research and teacher education practice the book concludes with an outlook on future steps to cultivate teachers assessment capacity     Evaluating Literacy Robert J. Anthony,1991     Assessment to Support Learning and Teaching

Dennis Alonzo,2024-04-01 This book outlines the key problems associated with the intersections of assessment learning and teaching and presents guiding principles to effective assessment that schools can follow in order to optimise student outcomes Addressing challenges such as competing conceptualisations of assessment the burden of responsibility on teachers and conflicting views of what effective assessment actually is this book provides an in depth analysis of these problems how they are explored what factors influence them and their implications for learning and teaching It proposes practical solutions to address these challenges supported by 29 case studies that capture examples of practice from Asia Europe the USA and Australia The book concludes with the key features of the effective implementation of assessment reform based on findings from a variety of scenarios across different contexts and levels of education Providing critical insights and practical guidance this book is an essential reference for teachers school leaders and postgraduate students of education     Assessment Literacy for Educators in a Hurry W. Learning through assessment Anita Lubbe,2021-12-31 This book aims to contribute to the discourse of learning through assessment within a self directed learning environment It adds to the scholarship of assessment and self directed learning within a face to face and online learning environment As part of the NWU Self Directed Learning Book Series this book is devoted to scholarship in the field of self directed learning focusing on ongoing and envisaged assessment practices for self directed learning through which learning within the 21st century can take place This book acknowledges and emphasises the role of assessment as a pedagogical tool to foster self directed learning during face to face and online learning situations The way in which higher education conceptualises teaching learning and assessment has been inevitably changed due to the COVID 19 pandemic and now more than ever we need learners to be self directed in their learning Assessment plays a key role in learning and therefore we have to identify innovative ways in which learning can be assessed and which are likely to become the new norm even after the pandemic has been brought under control The goal of this book consisting of original research is to assist with the paradigm shift regarding the purpose of assessment as well as providing new ideas on assessment strategies methods and tools appropriate to foster self directed learning in all modes of delivery

Teaching Strategies That Create Assessment-Literate Learners Anita Stewart McCafferty,Jeffrey S.

Beaudry,2018-04-12 Merely focusing on assessment with no connection to teaching and learning is to overlook the power of assessment for learning This book pulls together several models 1 the five keys of quality assessment 2 Hattie s work on Visible Learning and 3 the seven strategies of assessment for learning Evaluating Reading Materials in Navajo Harry L. Gradman,1972 Exploring classroom assessment practices and teacher decision-making Dennis Alonzo,Chris Davison,Chris Ann Harrison,2023-05-25 Assessing Success in Family Literacy Projects Daniel D. Holt,1994 A discussion of family literacy projects focuses on alternatives to traditional methods of program evaluation In the first chapter the distinction between standardized and alternative assessments is clarified and the special evaluation needs of family literacy projects are highlighted The remainder of the handbook is intended to help program staff members design and implement appropriate alternative approaches to assessment Each chapter addresses a different aspect of assessment and evaluation Chapter 2 contains a model for integrating program planning implementation and evaluation activities Chapter 3 addresses initial assessment including needs assessment intake and placement suggesting strategies for using these to yield accurate baseline information The fourth chapter describes how alternative approaches can be used to document learners progress toward instructional objectives and the fifth chapter suggests uses for surveys performance samples focus groups and observation techniques to measure and demonstrate progress toward program goals The final chapter describes the process used in designing and field testing this handbook using the planning model presented earlier and offering methods for refining the project in question A glossary is included MSE Adjunct ERIC Clearinghouse on Literacy Education
