Exploring Evaluator Role Identity Katherine E. Ryan, Thomas A. Schwandt, 2002-12-01 Policy-Making as Designing Arwin van Buuren, Jenny M. Lewis, B. Guy Peters, 2023-05-24 First published as a special issue of Policy Politics this book presents original critical reflections on the value of design approaches and how they relate to the classical idea of public administration as a design science Promoting Value in the Public Interest: Informing Policies for Judging Value in Evaluation George Julnes, 2012-04-10 Do you make evidence based decisions when designing and conducting evaluations and use methods validated by experience Because of the growing importance of evidence based decision making for improving programs and policies this issue examines methods selection Which is better How can one be improved Are the results of the project worth the resources expended and how that leads to confidence in value based conclusions It presents a constructive dialogue on valuing in evaluation with the goal of developing a pragmatic approach for guiding method choice and for promoting methodology policies that support multiple approaches to valuation being employed in context appropriate ways so as to serve the public interest This is the 133rd volume of the Jossey Bass quarterly report series New Directions for Evaluation an official publication of the American Evaluation Association Handbook of Emergent Methods Sharlene Nagy Hesse-Biber, Patricia Leavy, 2013-10-15 Social researchers increasingly find themselves looking beyond conventional methods to address complex research questions This is the first book to comprehensively examine emergent qualitative and quantitative theories and methods across the social and behavioral sciences Providing scholars and students with a way to retool their research choices the volume presents cutting edge approaches to data collection analysis and representation Leading researchers describe alternative uses of traditional quantitative and qualitative tools innovative hybrid or mixed methods and new techniques facilitated by technological advances Consistently formatted chapters explore the strengths and limitations of each method for studying different types of research questions and offer practical in depth examples The Handbook of Social Research Ethics Donna M. Mertens, Pauline E. Ginsberg, 2008-09-26 The Handbook of Social Research Ethics is the first comprehensive volume of its kind to offer a deeper understanding of the history theory philosophy and implementation of applied social research ethics Editors Donna M Mertens and Pauline Ginsberg bring together eminent international scholars across the social and behavioral sciences and education to address the ethical issues that arise in the theory and practice of research within the technologically advancing and culturally complex world in which we live In addition this volume examines the ethical dilemmas that arise in the relationship between research practice and social justice issues Key Features Situates the ethical concerns in the practice of social science research in historical and epistemological contexts Explores the philosophical roots of ethics from the perspectives of Kant J S Mill Hegel and others Provides an overview and comparison of ethical regulations across disciplines governments and additional contexts such as IRBs program evaluation and more Examines specific ethical issues that arise in traditional methods and methodologies Addresses ethical concerns within a variety of diverse cultural contexts Intended Audience This reference is an invaluable resource for university faculty researchers ethicists IRB members social science practitioners graduate students and program evaluators throughout the social and behavioral sciences Evaluative Research Methods Saville Kushner, 2016-12-01 How do research students and their supervisors respond in a world of fake news the destabilisation of public institutions and the rise of populism The very foundations of our liberal democracies seem to be under threat and this implicates social inquiry Postgraduate research remains one of the few information spaces which are still free of politicisation and committed to validation This book focuses on democracy in inquiry and on the role of inquiry in a democracy how research helps us to deliberate over what counts as of public value It is a research methods book but methods shaped by political and ethical purposes and by the challenge of making judgements about what in the public sphere is worthy We may be looking at a police training program the siting of a clean energy project a new school curriculum maternal health program or an environmental adaptation project in each case and in others like them we have to negotiate perspectives and claims forge and justify a consensus support competing stakeholders with the best information and analyses possible And we have to make our work defensible undeniable in the forum of public debate and exchange examination and accountability This book full of examples from contemporary research projects is designed to help navigate our way through the complexities of social research which focuses on judgements about public action The book was written with research students and includes examples of their work It recognises that supervisors often struggle as much as students in meeting the challenges of inquiry that involves some element of evaluative judgement inquiry that potentially carries consequences Where there are no quick and ready recipes check lists or theoretical frameworks where we confront the particularities of the context in which the research takes place we are all forced back onto good methodological thinking and this is the pedagogical framing of the book

Developing Programs in Adult Education Edgar J. Boone,R. Dale Safrit,Jo Jones,2002-05-10 The Second Edition of Developing Programs in Adult Education will serve as an indispensable guide for current and prospective adult educators in planning designing implementing and evaluating accounting for adult education programs Like the successful First Edition this revised and expanded volume presents a conceptual programming model that draws from many concepts constructs and theories generated by adult educators and other scholars in closely allied disciplines The updated model field tested and validated enhances and elaborates on the complex contextual relationships and processual actions represented in the original The authors offer illustrative applications within varied organizational contexts and provide a panorama of both macro and micro perspectives and actions of a program planning process with examples from various fields of adult education practice This innovative text is the definitive authority on one of the few theoretical models of the programming process based in systems theory merged with the practice ecology of adult education
