Violence and Health Care Professionals Til Wykes, 2013-11-11 Til Wykes BACKGROUND The recent publication of several surveys on violence was the impetus for this book The first was carried out in 1986 by the Health and Safety Commission Health Services Advisory Committee 1987 They conducted a comprehensive survey of the incidence of violence to 5000 workers in five separate health districts The results from the 3000 people who eventually replied made many in the caring professions worried One in 200 workers had suffered a major injury following a violent attack during the previous year and a further one in ten needed first aid following an assault Other surveys also showed high risks of social service staff 6% had suffered an attack in the past 5 years Saunders 1987 and social workers were at even higher risk 29% had been assaulted in the last 3 years Rowett 1986 In addition 4% of general practitioners had experienced an attack resulting in injury in the past year D Urso and Hobbs 1989 Clinical psychologists were also at risk 53% had been assaulted at least once during their professional career and 18% in the past year Perkins 1991 Media reports of extreme violence seem to be the tip of the iceberg Many staff are attacked and some of these attacks have serious physical or psychological consequences that interfere with the victim's ability to return to their full working capacity This loss of highly trained staff should be recognized by employers and the community

Every Woman's Guide to Personal Safety Esther Green, 2009-11 On April 26 1999 as Esther Green prepared to leave home with her 10 month old daughter Victoria she had a fleeting thought to stay home She decided to go about her day as planned Terror struck when out of nowhere a stranger jumped into her driver's seat taking her and her baby on a horrifying ride Esther had to keep her wits to save them from possible tragedy As seen on Oprah Good Morning America 20/20 Montel Larry King Live and more Also featured in People magazine GuidePost Redbook and numerous others Esther has taken her story to help all women This is a compilation of common sense tips for every woman to incorporate into every day life

Breaking the Gender Code Georgina Hickey, 2023-12-12 Historian Georgina Hickey investigates challenges to the code of urban gender segregation in the 20th century focusing on organized advocacy to make the public spaces of American cities accessible to women She traces waves of activism from the Progressive Era with its calls for public restrooms rooming houses anti spitting ordinances covered bus stops employment bureaus lunch rooms and women police through and beyond second wave feminism and its focus on the creation of alternative women only spaces In doing so Hickey looks at how class race and sexuality shaped activists agendas and shaped women s experiences of urban space and the gains and limitations of this activism She uses a wide range of archival material from press coverage to neighborhood association records to etiquette manuals and studies a variety of cities from Minneapolis to Atlanta Throughout she draws connections between the vulnerability of women in public spaces real and presumed and contemporary debates surrounding rape culture bathroom bills and domestic violence Ultimately Hickey unveils the institutionalized hierarchies that have made women feel uncomfortable in American cities and the both strikingly successful and incomplete initiatives activists undertook to open up public space to women The manuscript is organized into eight chapters that move chronologically through the twentieth century with an epilogue that reflects on how these issues manifest in the present
