Sports Tourism Chris Bull, Mike Weed, 2012-05-23. Sports Tourism: Participants, Policy and Providers is an unparalleled text that explains sports tourism as a social, economic, and cultural phenomenon that stems from the unique interaction of activity, people, and place. Unlike other texts, it seeks to present sports tourism as a unique area that produces its own unique issues, concerns, and controversies. The text tackles these issues from three viewpoints: participants examining the profiles, motivations, and behaviour patterns of sports tourists; to create a typology of participants; policy analyses the response by policy makers to this phenomenon and the problems of achieving integration between two sectors with historically different cultures; providers: their motivations, aims, objectives, and strategies. Illustrated by international case studies in each chapter and with four extended case study chapters, Sports Tourism: Participants, Policy and Providers examines this area using real-life experiences and concrete evidence.
