Pennington, 2018-04-30 This is the first book length study of the fictional autobiography a subgenre that is at once widely recognizable and rarely examined as a literary form with its own history and dynamics of interpretation Heidi L Pennington shows that the narrative form and genre expectations associated with the fictional autobiography in the Victorian period engages readers in a sustained meditation on the fictional processes that construct selfhood both in and beyond the text Through close readings of Jane Eyre David Copperfield and other well known examples of the subgenre Pennington shows how the Victorian fictional autobiography subtly but persistently illustrates that all identities are fictions Despite the subgenre s radical implications regarding the nature of personal identity fictional autobiographies were popular in their own time and continue to inspire devotion in readers This study sheds new light on what makes this subgenre so compelling up to and including in the present historical moment of precipitous social and technological change As we continue to grapple with the existential question of what determines who we really are this book explores the risks and rewards of embracing conscious acts of fictional self production in an unstable world      Encyclopedia of Identity Ronald L. concerned primarily with defining itself and its cultural milieu What this means for the future of Mennonite literature and its attendant criticism is the question at the heart of this volume Contributors explore the histories and contexts as well as the gaps that have informed and diverted the perennial focus on identity in Mennonite literature even as that identity is reread reframed and expanded After Identity is a timely reappraisal of the Mennonite literature of Canada and the United States at the very moment when that literature seems ready to progress into a new era In addition to the editor the contributors are Ervin Beck Di Brandt Daniel Shank Cruz Jeff Gundy Ann Hostetler Julia Spicher Kasdorf Royden Loewen Jesse Nathan Magdalene Redekop Hildi Froese Tiessen and Paul Tiessen

Bending the Rules in the Quest for an Authentic Female Identity Cristina Santos, 2004 The narrative style of both Clarice Lispector and Carmen Boullosa is characterized by a postmodern tendency toward an increased reader participation This is accomplished by a process of liberalizing a pre-established socio-cultural repertoire with respect to female identity The female protagonists created by Lispector and Boullosa and examined in this book struggle to find their true voices and their real life experiences The resulting literary style of both these authors parallels this struggle subverting traditional narrative structure and utilizing a dialogue that is particularly suited to describe this feminine process of conscientization

T&T Clark Social Identity Commentary on the New Testament J. Brian Tucker, Aaron Kuecker, 2020-02-20 The T & T Clark Social Identity Commentary on the New Testament is a one of a kind comprehensive Bible resource that highlights the way the NT seeks to form the social identity of the members of the earliest Christ movement By drawing on the interpretive resources of social scientific theories especially those related to the formation of identity interpreters generate new questions that open fruitful identity-related avenues into the text It provides helpful introductions to each NT book that focus on various social dimensions of the text as well as a commentary structure that illuminates the text as a work of social influence The commentary offers methodologically informed discussions of difficult and disputed passages and highlights cultural contexts in theoretically informed ways drawing on resources from social anthropology historical sociology or social identity theory The innovative but careful scholarship of these writers most of whom have published monographs on some aspect of social identity within the New Testament brings to the fore often overlooked social and communal aspects inherent in the NT discourse The net result is a more concrete articulation of some of the every day lived experiences of members of the Christ movement within the Roman Empire while also offering further insight into the relationship between existing and new identities that produced diverse expressions of the Christ movement during the first century The SICNT shows that identity formation is at the heart of the NT and it offers insights for leaders of faith communities addressing these issues in contemporary contexts      The Limits of Identity Charles Hatfield, 2015-11-15 The Limits of Identity is a polemical critique of the repudiation of universalism and the theoretical commitment to identity and difference embedded in Latin American literary and cultural studies Through original readings of foundational Latin American thinkers such as Jos Mart and Jos Enrique Rod and contemporary theorists such as John Beverley and Doris Sommer Charles Hatfield reveals and challenges the anti universalism that informs seemingly disparate theoretical projects The Limits of Identity offers a critical reexamination of widely held conceptions of culture ideology interpretation and history The repudiation of universalism Hatfield argues creates a set of problems that are both theoretical and political Even though the recognition of identity and difference is normally thought to be a form of resistance The Limits of Identity claims that in fact the opposite is true
