

What do you want to ask, learn, or explore?

What spiritual word will you sing
(like HU, Wah 2, or SUGMAD)?

Where do you want to go?

How do you want to get there?

Is there an ECK Master you'd like to meet?

What will you see or hear?

If You Build It Creating Your Own Spiritual Field Of Dreams:

If You Build It Joseph D. Cusumano, 1999-12-01

Building Your Field of Dreams Mary Manin Morrissey, 2009-10-14

Building Your Field of Dreams is both a compelling personal story and a practical and inspiring guide for anyone who has ever hoped for a better life Mary Morrissey's own dreams were nearly shattered at age 16 when pregnancy forced her into a reluctant marriage that nevertheless became the crucible for remarkable lessons in faith As she was tested by the near death of one of her children by life threatening kidney disease and by years of struggling to make ends meet she clung to her determination to be a minister Now with powerful examples from many dream builders she has known she shows how anyone can identify their deepest desires build a partnership with God confront obstacles and failure and overcome the mental blocks that keep us from our potential It's a great message compellingly delivered by a great teacher From the Trade Paperback edition

The Force Is with You Always! Richard Koepke, 2011-05-10 This book teaches people how Spirit operates directly in our lives today and what we must do to live life to the fullest and with malice toward none It teaches spiritual principles on how to live life with gratitude acceptance joy abundance and wellness It connects us with our eternal being within and encourages us to create our own soul music without Have we lost our way as a society In the wake of humans murdering over 100 million other humans in the past century many of us are seeking answers to the ever increasing cultural violence surrounding us From capital punishment to going postal we live in a very violent society Hardly a day passes without news of government torture prisons drive by shootings a ten year old boy murdering his father or a congresswoman being shot in the head Shocking revelations such as American government doctors using unsuspecting American citizens as human guinea pigs for decades of medical experiments further alienate the government from the people that they are supposed to serve It seems to me that we need a new vision of humanity that our faltering institutions have failed to provide I believe that we need to replace institutional blight with greater spirituality We need a new spirit of integrity that replaces the often deceitful and violent leadership we currently embrace We need to challenge the don't get mad get even mentality in our society with greater understanding for one another We need to be role models for positive reinforcement learning rather than the punishment that only teaches more violence and hatred and like the Montagues and Capulets the never ending need to seek revenge This book addresses how to live a life of health and wellness in the midst of a truly sick society

Startup Kevin

Ready,2012-02-01 If I was going to start a new business today I would be sure to study and pay close attention to Kevin Ready's new book Startup. His wisdom, experience, and his self-effacing and honest writing make this a real gem for aspiring entrepreneurs and business people of all kinds. Bob Beaudine, author of The Power of WHO, Startup: An Insider's Guide to Launching and Running a Business, is for people who are excellent at something: product or web development, writing code, marketing, or selling anything, but who are now toiling for others. Yet they have long had a dream to take that special skill set and use it on their own terms in a startup business. This pattern is romanticized by the media in the form of the tech entrepreneur, the guy brainstorming with buddies in a garage who ends up selling his startup for millions. But what is the reality behind stories like that one? For that matter, what mental processes, frames of reference, hard knocks, and lessons learned make up the back story behind any startup success? This book not only reveals the actual experience of entrepreneurship but it provides readers with a set of universal entrepreneurial skills and tools they can use to build a business. Author Kevin Ready has made this journey and more than once. He earned his MBA, Master of Business Administration, through numerous encounters with situations, problems, black holes, bad employees, sea monsters, not enough money, and other karate chops to the organizational body. Startup illustrates in detail the lessons he learned the hard way so you don't have to. Backed up by stories of both his successes and failures, Ready helps readers learn shortcuts to help them do what eight out of 10 entrepreneurs can't: Build and sustain a successful start-up. Illustrates the entrepreneurial journey from start to finish. Helps readers decide or not to start a business. Provides dozens of lessons learned and other takeaways budding entrepreneurs can put to use today. Theft of the Spirit, Carl Hammerschlag, 1994-08-18 Using Native American experience as an example, the author provides advice on living wisely, well, and spiritually in an increasingly materialistic world. One Sunday, Carrie Gerlach Cecil, 2013-02-12 In this humorous and heartfelt novel, a beleaguered young woman must shed her career identity and power persona to learn how to love and forgive herself, others, and God. Alice Ferguson is an A-list tabloid editor from Los Angeles who gets pregnant after a one-night stand with a sports doctor from Nashville. When her health takes a nosedive and her unborn child is put at risk, she is forced to pack her Louis Vuitton bags and take a sabbatical from her high-pressure existence in Hollywood and relocate to the heart of Dixie with a man she barely knows. As she struggles to adjust to her new life, an unlikely friendship with an African American pastor and his family starts. Alice, on a touching and surprising spiritual exploration, After months of listening to her new friends asking her to attend church, a meal of fried chicken and angel food cake seals the deal. Alice reluctantly agrees to attend one service to watch her pastor friend put on his weekly show. Sitting in the very last pew, she internally doubts and mocks the Bible thumpers, but she also begins to reflect on the incidents in her painful past that have brought her to a life of moral ambiguity. As she learns to let go of the pain and accept herself, Alice goes from making fun of them to possibly being one of them. Equal parts humor and heartbreak. One Sunday is Alice's journey to hope, friendship, laughter, tears, inspiration, forgiveness, and the love and peace that come only
