Illumination and Night Glare Carlos Lee Barney Dews, 1994 We Never Swim in the Same River Twice Hassouna Mosbahi, 2024-09-16 During Tunisia's Arab Spring and its tilt toward Islamism we meet three friends Saleem who is about to turn fifty and whose once blissful marriage teeters on the edge as his mental health deteriorates Aziz a homely retired postal clerk who finds solace in literature and international cinema and Omran a well traveled writer and public intellectual navigating a complex relationship with a young Franco Tunisian woman who lives in Paris As these men forge an unlikely friendship over drinks at a coastal bar in Bizerte and during walks on the beach they grapple with the political extremism that dominates Tunisia's social and political life at the time Repelled by Islamist rhetoric and the brand of masculinity it represents the three friends recall their lives and question their relationship to their nation We Never Swim in the Same River Twice offers an alternative narrative of the Arab Spring one that challenges Western media's depiction of a blessed revolution and gives readers an intimate and elegiac portrait of a recent period in Tunisian history Illumination

Guidelines for Nighttime Highway Work Ralph D. Ellis (Ph.D.), Scott Amos, Ashish Kumar, National Cooperative Highway Research Program, 2003 Carson McCullers Mary V. Dearborn, 2024-02-27 The first major biography in more than twenty years of one of America's greatest writers based on newly available letters and journals V S Pritchett called her a genius Gore Vidal described her as a beloved novelist of singular brilliance Of all the Southern writers she is the most apt to endure And Tennessee Williams said The only real writer the South ever turned out was Carson She was born Lula Carson Smith in Columbus Georgia Her dream was to become a concert pianist though she'd been writing since she was sixteen and the influence of music was evident throughout her work As a child she said she'd been born a man At twenty she married Reeves McCullers a fellow southerner ex soldier and aspiring writer He was the best looking man I had ever seen They had a fraught tumultuous marriage lasting twelve years and ending with his suicide in 1953 Reeves was devoted to her and to her writing and he envied her talent she yearned for attention mostly from women who admired her but rebuffed her sexually Her first novel The Heart Is a Lonely Hunter was published in 1940 when she was twenty three and overnight Carson McCullers became the most widely talked about writer of the time While McCullers's literary stature continues to endure her private life has remained enigmatic and largely unexamined Now with unprecedented access to the cache of materials that has surfaced in the past decade Mary Dearborn gives us the first full picture of this brilliant complex artist who was decades ahead of her time a writer who understood and captured the heart and longing of the outcast Carson McCullers in the Twenty-First Century Alison Graham-Bertolini, Casey Kayser, 2016-10-26 The contributors to this volume use diverse critical techniques to identify how Carson McCullers writing engages with and critiques modern social structures and how her work resonates with a twenty first century audience The collection includes chapters about McCullers fiction autobiographical writing and dramatic works and is groundbreaking because it includes the first detailed scholarly examination of new archival material donated to Columbus State University after the 2013 death of Dr Mary Mercer McCullers psychiatrist and friend including transcripts of the psychiatric sessions that took place between McCullers and Mercer in 1958 Further the collection covers the scope of McCullers canon of work such as The Heart Is a Lonely Hunter 1940 The Member of the Wedding 1946 and Ballad of the Sad Caf 1943 through lenses that are of growing interest in contemporary literary studies including comparative transatlantic readings queer theory disability studies and critical animal theory among others
