Gathered Together Tilda Norberg, 2015-08-01 How can the church honor a person's profound experience of struggle change or celebration How can corporate worship link to the unique and real life needs of the people in the pews God wants us to be whole One of the purposes of the church is to encourage that However in seeking to provide something for everyone corporate worship traditions may have lost a personal touch that members need Perhaps your most dedicated parishioner for whatever reason looks outside the congregation for support or growth Positive change comes from these efforts but often the much needed spiritual element is left unaddressed In Gathered Together Creating Personal Liturgies for Healing and Transformation Norberg offers ideas for creating tailor made liturgies that connect daily life with the rituals of worship Individualized healing liturgies are not psychotherapy but a wonderful adjunct to an inner journey that may include therapy Norberg writes Personal liturgies can bring a vital component to the life of the church They offer an exciting effective even necessary contribution to personal growth a natural addition to healing ministries Norberg details more than two dozen custom liturgies she has designed and led among the ad hoc church honoring such specific events as finding a vocation recovering from illness giving up false hopes and receiving first car keys These liturgies are truly faith in action intimate honest and deeply transformative as a congregation of close friends participate with the celebrant in a service uniquely designed around a personal need Her wise creative guidance will inspire pastors to widen the scope of the liturgy and encourage laypeople to seek an authentic bridge between the personal journey and church life

A Body of Praise W. David O. Taylor, 2023-03-28 Do our physical bodies really matter in corporate worship Isn't our soul the most important part of us Aren't our bodies at best negligible to worship and at worst a hindrance The answer to this last question is categorically no as Christians have attested throughout history and across the global church The purpose of the body instead is to offer to God in worship what only it can offer and what must be offered to God By drawing on the wisdom of the Bible church history and theology and by taking advantage of the unique insights of the arts and sciences ethics and spiritual formation a respected theologian and pastor argues in this book that there is something for our physical bodies to do that decisively forms Christlikeness in us within the context of corporate worship What we do with our postures gestures and movements in worship matters How our senses of sight scent sound taste and touch are involved in worship matters How our spontaneous and prescriptive activities form us in worship matters All of it matters to faithful and fulsome worship for the sake of a body that is fully alive in the praise of God
