International Relations Abhiruchi Ojha, Pramod Jaiswal, 2023-03-31 This book presents South Asian women s voices which have been marginalised in the theory and practice of international relations in the region It highlights critical issues of importance for women which are often neglected in traditional International Relations IR Embracing Feminist epistemology the book re imagines the theory and practice of IR in South Asia placing women s experiences and their diverse voices at the centre Refusing the temptation to typecast women the book showcases the varied voices of South Asian women in international relations with contributions from an eclectic set of authors from different nationalities In doing so the book expands the ontological and epistemological limits of IR by including caste conflict protest perspectives While some of these are uniquely South Asian like caste all of them show how the field of IR in general can become enriched by being more inclusive This book will be of interest to researchers as it provides a fresh conceptual re conceptualization of the field of IR from gender as well as global south perspective The book will also help graduate students seeking to understand the intersection of gender and IR The New Agenda for International Relations Stephanie Lawson, 2013-07-08 There have been significant political eras which have shaped not only the structure of world politics but the way in which it has been studied The geopolitical and ideological contours of the Cold War period for example had an impact on almost every aspect of world politics and the study of international relations for around 45 years This book argues that just as the collapse of the Soviet Union in the period following the fall of the Berlin Wall signalled the end of strategic polarization it also marked the apparent end of a particular form of polarized debate around political social and economic ideas The various new directions taken by scholars of international relations in the post Cold War era constitute a large part of a new agenda for the discipline This collection reflects the variety of issues and approaches that have become part and parcel of this agenda over the past ten years Issues tackled in this volume include the power of culture and ideology the concept of globalisation inequality human rights and security as well as reflections on new forms of polarization in the post Cold War world Each contributor addresses the nature of changes and continuities in world politics considers how the discipline of international relations itself has changed and reflects on possible directions for the twenty first Century This book will be of great interest to scholars of international relations global politics economics and related disciplines Undesired Revolution Ahmed M.

Abozaid,2023-09-20 This book introduces new non Western perspectives on the Arab Uprisings decentering and decolonizing International Relations and Middle Eastern Studies Drawing on over 10 years of fieldwork ethnography over 250 interviews and empirical research it is one of the first books to evaluate the position of International Relations theorists towards the study of the Arab Uprisings It relies on local IR scholarship from the region which is rarely considered It provides a critical account of why democratic revolutions have failed how counterrevolutions and authoritarianism have fortified and why revolutions will once again experience a resurgence in this part of the world An Introduction to International

European Neighbourhood Policy Tobias Schumacher,Andreas Marchetti,Thomas Demmelhuber,2017-12-06 The Routledge Handbook on the European Neighbourhood Policy provides a comprehensive overview of the EU s most important foreign policy instrument provided by leading experts in the field Coherently structured and adopting a multidisciplinary approach this handbook covers the most important themes developments and dynamics in the EU s neighbourhood policy framework through a series of cutting edge contributions With chapters from a substantial number of scholars who have been influential in shaping the study of the ENP this handbook serves to encourage debates which will hopefully produce more conceptual as well as neighbourhood specific perspectives leading to enriching future studies on the EU s policies towards its neighbourhood It will be a key reference point both for advanced level students scholars and professionals developing knowledge in the fields of EU European Studies European Foreign Policy Analysis Area studies EU law and more broadly in political economy political science comparative politics and international relations International Security Bilal

Karabulut,2024-04-01 International Security Threats Theories and Transformation maps out security studies the subdiscipline of discipline of International Relations IR which has strong topics and dynamic structure but this and almost everything in the globalization process is changing or transforming rapidly This situation also affects the field of IR and security studies New concepts are entering literature traditional thought patterns are not enough to understand and make sense of the IR discipline In addition to traditional security issues such as terrorism and war new security areas emerging with the process of globalization are also comprehensively analyzed in this book These include energy security cyber security environmental security health security economic security food security demographic security and irregular migration A World in Chaos Syed Tariq Mahmood-ul-Hassan, 2021-02-05 The world is divided by dangerous and shifting faultlines the global order is suffering a period of dislocation Since the onset of the 21st century the world is embroiled into a war with itself The democracy is receding in the era of rising populism and nonagenarian like Kissinger are hearing the drums of the Third World War Donald Trump in his four years presidency shook the foundations of the United States of America and leaving the White House in tatters in January 2021 President Erdogan is pampering the ambition of restoration of the Ottoman empire while reigning in the Kemalist forces Muhammad Bin Salman is riding his ruthless aspirations to lead Arabs against the Iranian regime President Xi Jinping s China struts the global stage with newfound confidence and economic prowess Pakistan is finding itself again between a rock and a hard place with instability at its heart and a saphronised India on its doorsteps Worst of all the conflict ridden world is threatened by a pandemic that has caused an economic bloodbath from Wall Street to Tokyo with millions of lives lost and billions at risk to fall prey to a virus that is changing faster than its cure T H Hassan analyses a grandly messed up world and proposes solutions to resolve the undergoing crises and conflicts T M Hassan analyses the world at conflict while drawing upon the ancient enmities and imminent collisions that define the struggle for power and control in the twenty first century Region by region it delays the causes contexts actors and likely outcomes of globally significant violent struggle now underway This book is an imperative read to make sense of the fractured and perilous world around us and find an exit from the ongoing chaos Unnatural States Peter Ian Lomas, 2017-09-08 Unnatural States is a radical critique of international theory in particular of the assumption of state agency that states act in the world in their own right Peter Lomas argues that since the universal states system is inequitable and rigid and not all states are democracies anyway this assumption is unreal and to adopt it means reinforcing an unjust status quo Looking at the concepts of state nation and agency Lomas sees populations struggling to find an agreed model of the state owing to inherited material differences and unsurprisingly among theorists of the nation only controversy and a great confusion of terms Meanwhile the functional incarnations of the state agent are caricatures the mandarin state the lawyer state the landlord state the heir to history state and the patriot state Yet recent developments in international theory constructivism scientific realism postmodernism sacrifice state agency only at the price of an unhelpful abstraction The states system is dysfunctional and obsolete Lomas contends and international theory must be recast with morality as central to inspire and to guide historic change He focuses in his conclusion on prescriptions for change led by four moral concerns human rights weapons of mass destruction relations between rich and poor societies and the environment I begin this book writes Lomas with the commonest commonplace of international theory to expose it as a meaningless cliché In the masterly hands of Hobbes it was elaborated into a shock formula for organized society a reading of history as civilization's failure Kant sought to rescue morality from Hobbes and create the structures of modernity but Kant's influence is coming to an end In the Cold War politicians disagreeing over another philosopher almost brought the world to an end Hence the challenges of our time These are primary and profound Philosophers have done much to define the modern world The point of international theory is to change it

Politics in Cinema Aneek Chaudhuri, 2020-05-03 For mainstream Political Science popular culture is still no longer considered worthy of serious investigation Similarly the concept of the use of films as a pedagogical device has remained on the margins Nevertheless movies may be a treasured way of teaching college students about politics and international politics especially This paper identifies four wonderful ways of using movies as a teaching tool the first approach uses movie to portray historical events along with the Cold War and the second makes use of movie to debate unique problems in worldwide politics which includes terrorism or genocide
