Language Policies and (Dis)Citizenship Vaidehi Ramanathan, 2013-08-07 This volume explores the concept of citizenship and argues that it should be understood both as a process of becoming and the ability to participate fully rather than as a status that can be inherited acquired or achieved From a courtroom in Bulawayo to a nursery in Birmingham the authors use local contexts to foreground how the vulnerable particularly those from minority language backgrounds continue to be excluded whilst offering a powerful demonstration of the potential for change offered by individual agency resistance and struggle In addressing questions such as under what local conditions does citizenship happen what role do language policies and pedagogic practices play and what kinds of margins and borders keep humans from fully participating The chapters in this volume shift the debate away from visas and passports to more uncertain and contested spaces of interpretation The Routledge Handbook of Language Policy and Planning Michele Gazzola,François Grin,Linda Cardinal,Kathleen Heugh,2023-09-28 The Routledge Handbook of Language Policy and Planning is a comprehensive and authoritative survey including original contributions from leading senior scholars and rising stars to provide a basis for future research in language policy and planning in international national regional and local contexts The Handbook approaches language policy as public policy that can be studied through the policy cycle framework It offers a systematic and research informed view of actual processes and methods of design implementation and evaluation With a substantial introduction 38 chapters and an extensive bibliography this Handbook is an indispensable resource for all decision makers students and researchers of language policy and planning within linguistics and cognate disciplines such as public policy economics political science sociology and education
