Murray, 2015-10-23 Who has what and why in our societies is a pressing issue that has prompted explanation and exposition by philosophers politicians and jurists for as long as societies and intellectuals have existed It is a primary issue for a society to tackle this and these answers have been diverse This collection of essays approaches some of these questions and answers to shed light on neglected approaches to issues of distribution and how these issues have been dealt with historically socially conceptually and practically The volume moves away from the more dominating and traditionally cast understandings of distributive justice and shows novel and unique ways to approach distributive issues and how these can help enlighten our course of action and thought today by creating new pathways of understanding The editors and contributors challenge readers by exploring the role and importance of restorative justice within distributive justice exploring the long shadow of practices of trusteeship and concepts of social and individual rights and obligations in welfare and economic systems social protection provision schemes egalitarian practices and post colonial African political thought Distributive Justice Debates in Political and Social Thought empowers the reader to cast a more critical and historically complete light on the idea of a fair share and the implications it has on societies and the individuals who comprise them Using Political Ideas Barbara Goodwin, 2016-12-19 Using Political Ideas is a unique blend of political philosophy political theory and history of political thought It combines a critique of the major ideologies of recent and contemporary society with an analysis of the ideas that form the very stuff of political debate By exposing the interplay between ideas and ideologies it shows why political opponents often speak at cross purposes and why rational agreement is so hard to achieve in politics The sixth edition of this well respected and widely known text will be welcomed by those interested in questions such as Is equality more important than personal freedom Does the majority have the right to dictate to the minority in multicultural society Is nationalism a progressive force in the world Politics does not stand still there are always new controversies and ideological conflicts and the climate of discussion
