Emerald Peacock:

The Emerald Peacock Katharine Gordon, 1980-03 , The Psychogeography of Urban Architecture David Prescott-Steed, 2013 This praxis based book explores how an improvisational creative and embodied practice such as the derive works to defamiliarise our experience of the late modern built environment fostering new insight into routinised cultural behaviours In addition to detailing the key contexts of modernity this book includes case studies on the work of Viktor Shklovsky Craig Raine Georges Perec plus rare scholarly attention to the postcards of Jim Henson s Uncle Traveling Matt Tertiary students and early career researchers in the humanities particularly cultural theory and the creative arts will read about the work of internationally recognised artists who have responded creatively to the urban landscape in view of its habituation under advanced capitalism The research aims to provide sufficient detail for the reader to recognise a range of cultural conditions pertaining to the historical period that frames contemporary quotidian experience and that in turn informs a wide range of reflexive creative practices The book s hybridity complimenting a traditional scholarly style with auto ethnographic and journalistic writing offers the reader an authorial honesty transparency and humanity in its intellectual practical and emotional negotiation of psychogeographic ideas Gryphon Insurrection Boxed Set: Eyrie, Ashen Weald, and Starling

Extension Bulletin Mississippi State University. Cooperative Extension Service,1926 A Girl's Problems in Home Economics Mabel Barbara Trilling,Florence Williams,1926 The Stone Angel Margaret Laurence,2015-07-22 The Stone Angel The Diviners and A Bird in the House are three of the five books in Margaret Laurence s renowned Manawaka series named for the small Canadian prairie town in which they take place Each of these books is narrated by a strong woman growing up in the town and struggling with physical and emotional isolation In The Stone Angel Hagar Shipley age ninety tells the story of her life and in doing so tries to come to terms with how the very qualities which sustained her have deprived her of joy Mingling past and present she maintains pride in the face of senility while recalling the life she led as a rebellious young bride and later as a grieving mother Laurence gives us in Hagar a woman who is funny infuriating and heartbreakingly poignant This is a revelation not impersonation The effect of such skilled use of language is to lead the reader towards the self recognition that Hagar misses Robertson Davies New York Times It is Laurence s admirable achievement to strike with an equally sure touch the peculiar note and the universal she gives us a portrait of a remarkable character and at the same time the picture of old age itself with the pain the weariness the terror the impotent angers and physical mishaps the realization that others are waiting and wishing for an end Honor Tracy The New Republic Miss Laurence is the best fiction writer in the Dominion and one of the best in the hemisphere Atlantic Laurence demonstrates in The Stone Angel that she has a true novelist s gift for catching a character in mid passion and life at full flood As Hagar Shipley daydreams and chatters and lurches through the novel she traces one of the most convincing and the most touching portraits of an unregenerate sinner declining into senility since Sara Monday went to her reward in Joyce Cary s The Horse s Mouth Time Laurence s triumph is in her evocation of Hagar at ninety We sympathize with her in her resistance to being moved to a nursing home in her preposterous flight in her impatience in the hospital Battered depleted suffering she rages with her last breath against the dying of the light The Stone Angel is a fine novel admirably written and sustained by unfailing insight Granville Hicks Saturday Review The Stone Angel is a good book because Mrs Laurence avoids sentimentality and condescension Hagar Shipley is still passionately involved in the puzzle of her own nature Laurence s imaginative tact is strikingly at work for surely this is what it feels like to be old Paul Pickrel Harper s A book on angling Francis Francis,1872
