Introduction To The Writings And Life Of Apuleius:

The Oxford Magazine ,1910      Volume 3: Kierkegaard and the Roman World Jon Stewart,2016-12-05 While Kierkegaard's use of the Greek authors particularly Plato and Aristotle has attracted considerable attention over the years his use of the Roman authors has by contrast remained sadly neglected This neglect is somewhat surprising given the fact that Kierkegaard was extremely well read in Latin from his early youth when he attended the Borgerdyd School in Copenhagen Kierkegaard's interest in the Roman authors is perhaps best evidenced by his book collection In his private library he had a long list of Latin titles and Danish translations of the standard Roman authors in any number of different genres His extensive and frequent use of writers such as Cicero Horace Terence Seneca Suetonius and Ovid clearly warrants placing them in the select group of his major sources The chapters in this volume demonstrate that Kierkegaard made use of the Roman sources in a number of different ways His readings from the Borgerdyd school seem to have stuck with him as an adult He constantly refers to Roman authors such as Livy Nepos and Suetonius for colourful stories and anecdotes In addition he avails himself of pregnant sayings or formulations from the Roman authors when appropriate But his use of these authors is not merely as a rhetorical source He is also profoundly interested in the Roman philosophy of Cicero Seneca and Marcus Aurelius Similarly just as he is fascinated by Tacitus portrayal of the early Christians so also he is amused by the humour of Terence and Apuleius In short the Roman authors serve to enrich any number of different aspects of Kierkegaard's authorship with respect to both content and form      Tertullian the African David E. Wilhite,2011-06-24 Who was Tertullian and what can we know about him This work explores his social identities focusing on his North African milieu Theories from the discipline of social cultural anthropology including kinship class and ethnicity are accommodated and applied to selections of Tertullian's writings In light of postcolonial concerns this study utilizes the categories of Roman colonizers indigenous Africans and new elites The third category new elites is actually intended to destabilize the other two denying any essential Roman or African identity Thereafter samples from Tertullian's writings serve to illustrate comparisons of his own identities and the identities of his rhetorical opponents The overall study finds Tertullian's identities to be manifold complex and discursive Additionally his writings are understood to reflect antagonism toward Romans including Christian Romans which is significant for his so called Montanism and Romanized Africans While Tertullian accommodates much from Graeco Roman literature laws and customs he nevertheless retains a strongly stated non Roman ness and an African ity which is highlighted in the present monograph      Fashioning the Future in Roman Greece Estelle Strazdins,2023-01-10 Fashioning the Future in Roman Greece Memory Monuments Texts uses literature inscriptions art and architecture to explore the relationship of elite Greeks of the Roman imperial period to time This wide ranging work challenges conventional thinking about the temporal positioning of imperial Greece and the so called Second Sophistic which holds that it was obsessed above all with the Classical past Instead the volume establishes that imperial Greek temporality was far more complex than scholarship has previously allowed by detailing how contemporary cultural output used the past to position itself within tradition but was crafted to speak to the future At the same time the book emphasizes the value of interdisciplinary analysis in any explication of elite culture in Roman Greece since abundant extant evidence reveals its purveyors were often responsible for the production of both literature and material culture Strazdins shows how these two modes of cultural production in the hands of elites such as Herodes Atticus Arrian Aelius Aristides Lucian Dio Chrysostom Polemon Pausanias and Philostratus exhibit a shared rhetoric oriented towards posterity and informed by a heightened awareness of the fragility of cultural and personal memory over large spans of time The book thus provides a sophisticated analysis of the tensions anxieties and opportunities that attend the fashioning of commemorative strategies against the background of the Second Sophistic and the Roman empire and details the consequences of embroilment with futurity on our understanding of the cultural and political concerns of elite imperial Greeks
